PS-2

INVESTOR SUITABILITY

The Notes may be suitable for you if:

- You seek an investment with a return linked to the potential positive performance of the Reference Asset and that will provide a full return of principal.
- You are willing to invest in the Notes based on the Maximum Cap of 8.50%, which may limit your return at maturity.
- You are willing to accept the risk and return profile of the Notes versus a conventional debt security with a comparable maturity issued by HSBC or another issuer with a similar credit rating.
- You are willing to forgo dividends or other distributions paid on the stocks included in the Reference Asset.
 - You do not seek current income from your investment.
- You are willing to hold the Notes to maturity.
- You do not seek an investment for which there will be an active secondary market.
- You are comfortable with the creditworthiness of HSBC, as issuer of the Notes.

The Notes may not be suitable for you if:

- You believe the Reference Return will not be sufficiently positive to provide you with your desired return.
- You are unwilling to invest in the Notes based on the Maximum Cap of 8,50%, which may limit your return at maturity.
- You prefer the lower risk, and therefore accept the potentially lower returns, of conventional debt securities with comparable maturities issued by HSBC or another issuer with a similar credit rating.
- You prefer to receive the dividends or other distributions paid on the stocks included in the Reference Asset.
- You seek current income from your investment.
 You are unable or unwilling to hold the Notes to maturity.
- Notes to maturity. You are unable or
 - You seek an investment for which there will be an active secondary market.
 - You are not willing or are unable to assume the credit risk associated with HSBC, as issuer of the Notes.

PS-3

RISK FACTORS

We urge you to read the section "Risk Factors" beginning on page S-1 of the accompanying prospectus supplement and page S-1 of the accompanying Equity Index Underlying Supplement, You should understand the risks of investing in the Notes and should reach an investment decision only after careful consideration, with your advisors, of the suitability of the Notes in Ight of your particular financial circumstances and the information set forth in this document and the accompanying prospectus, prospectus supplement and Equity Index Underlying Supplement.

In addition to the risks discussed below, you should review "Risk Factors" in the accompanying prospectus supplement and Equity Index Underlying Supplement including the explanation of risks relating to the Notes described in the following sections:

"—Risks Relating to All Note Issuances" in the prospectus supplement: and

"—General Risks Related to Indices" in the Equity Index Underlying Supplement.

You will be subject to significant risks not associated with conventional fixed-rate or floating-rate debt securities.

Risks Relating to the Structure or Features of the Notes

The appreciation on the Notes is limited by the Maximum Cap.

You will not participate in any appreciation in the value of the Reference Asset (as multiplied by the Upside Participation Rate) beyond the Maximum Cap of 8,50%. You will not receive a return on the Notes greater than the Maximum Cap.

The amount payable on the Notes is not linked to the value of the Reference Asset at any time other than on the Final Valuation Date.

The Final Value of the Reference Asset will be based on its Official Closing Level on the Final Valuation Date, subject to postponement for non-trading days and certain Market Disruption Events, Even if the value of the Reference Asset appreciates during the term of the Notes other than on the Final Valuation Date but then decreases on the Final Valuation Date to a value that reflects a Reference Return that is less than or or qual to zero, the Payment at Maturity may be less than it would have been had the Payment at Maturity been Inked to the value of the Reference Asset prior to such decrease. Although the actual value of the Reference Asset on the Maturity Date or at other times during the term of the Notes may be higher than the Final Value, the Payment at Maturity will be based solely on the Official Closing Level of the Reference Asset on the Final Valuation Date.

The Notes will not bear interest.

As a holder of the Notes, you will not receive interest payments.

Risks Relating to the Reference Asset

Changes that affect the Reference Asset may affect the value of the Reference Asset and the market value of the Notes and the amount you will receive on the Notes and the amount you will receive at maturity.

The policies of the reference sponsor of the Reference Asset concerning additions, deletions and substitutions of the stocks included in the Reference Asset, and the manner in which the reference sponsor takes account of certain changes affecting these stocks, may affect the value of the Reference Asset. The policies of the reference sponsor make respect to the calculation of the Reference Asset could also affect the value of the Reference Asset. The preference sponsor may discontinue or suspend calculation of the Reference Asset could also affect the value of the Reference Asset. The reference sponsor may discontinue or suspend calculation of the Reference Asset. Any such actions could affect the value of the Reference Asset and the value of and the return on the Notes.

General Risk Factors

The Notes are subject to the credit risk of HSBC USA Inc.

The Notes are subject to the creat hist of histo value, HSBC, and are not, either directly or indirectly, an obligation of any third party. As further described in the accompanying prospectus supplement and prospectus, the Notes will rank on par with all of the other unsecured and neubordinated debt obligations of HSBC, except such obligations as may be preferred by operation of Bw. Any payment to be made on the Notes, including any return of principal at maturity, depends on the ability of HSBC to settify its obligations as they come dus, As a result, the actual and perceived creditivorthiness of HSBC may affect the market value of the Notes and , in the event HSBC were to default on its obligations, you may not receive the amounts owed by ou under the terms of the Notes.

The Notes are not insured or guaranteed by any governmental agency of the United States or any other jurisdiction.

The Notes are not deposit liabilities or other obligations of a bank and are not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insure Corporation or any other governmental agency or program of the United States or any other jurisdiction. An investment in the Note subject to the credit risk of HSBC, and in the event that HSBC is unable to pay its obligations as they become due, you may not re the full payments due on the Notes.

PS-5

Tax treatment.

We intend to treat the Notes as contingent payment debt instruments for U,S, federal income tax purposes, Pursuant to the terms of the Notes, you agree to treat the Notes as contingent payment debt instruments for all U.S, federal income tax purposes. Assuming the Notes are treated as contingent payment debt instruments, a U.S, holder will be required to include original issue discount in gross income each year, even though no payments will be made on the Notes until maturity.

For a discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of your investment in a Note, please see the discussion under "U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" herein and the discussion under "U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the accompanying prospectus supplement.

to pound: The price to public takes into account certain costs. These costs, which will be used or retained by us or one of our affiliates, include our affiliates projected hedging profits (which may or may not be realized) for assuming risks inherent in hedging our obligations under the Notes, the underwriting discount and the costs associated with structuring and hedging our obligations under the Notes. If you were to sell your Notes in the secondary market if any, the price you would receive for your Notes may be less than the price you paid for them because secondary market is will not take into account these costs. The price of your Notes in the secondary market, if any, at may time after issuance will vary based on many factors, including the value of the Reference Asset and changes in market conditions, and cannot be predicted with accuracy. The Notes are not designed to be short-term trading instruments, and you should, therefore, be able and willing to hold the Notes to maturity. Any sale of the Notes prior to maturity could result in a loss to you.

If we were to repurchase your Notes immediately after the Original Issue Date, the price you receive may be higher than the Estimated Initial Value of the Notes.

Estimated Initial Value of the Notes. Assuming that all rejevant factors remain constant after the Original Issue Date, the price at which HSBC Securities (USA) Inc, may initially buy or sell the Notes in the secondary market, if any, and the value that may initially be used for customer accound statements. If any, may exceed the Estimated Initial Value on the Trade Date for a temporary period expected to be approximately. 3 months after the Original Issue Date. This temporary price difference may exist because, in our discretion, we may elect to effectively a months after the Original Issue Date. This temporary price difference may exist because, in our discretion, we may elect to effectively we imburse to investors a portion of the estimated cost of hedging our oblgations under the Notes and other costs in connection with the Notes that we will no longer expect to incur over the term of the Notes. We will make such discretionary election and determine this temporary reimbursement period on the basis of a number of factors, including the tenor of the Notes and any agreement we may have with the distriburse of the Notes. The amount of our estimated costs which we effectively reimburse to investors in this way may not be allocated ratably throughout the reimbursement period, and we may discontinue such reimbursement ta may time or revise the duration of the reimbursement period after the Original Issue Date of the Notes based on changes in market conditions and other factors that cannot be predicted.

You will not have any ownership interest in the stocks included in the Reference Asset.

As a holder of the Notes, you will not have any ownership interest in the stocks included in the Reference Asset, such as rights to vote, dividend payments or other distributions. Because the return on the Notes will not reflect any dividends on those stocks, the Notes may underperform an investment in the stocks included in the Reference Asset.

The Notes lack liquidity.

The Notes will not be listed on any securities exchange or automated quotation system. HSBC Securities (USA) Inc, is not required to offer to purchase the Notes in the secondary market. If any exists, Even if there is a secondary market, it may not provide enough liquidity to allow you to trade or sell the Notes easily. Recause other dealers are not Ikely to make a secondary market for the Notes, the price at which you may be able to trade your Notes is likely to depend on the price, if any, at which HSBC Securities (USA) Inc, is willing to buy the Notes.

Potential conflicts of interest may exist.

An affiliate of HSBC has a minority equity interest in the owner of an electronic platform, through which we may make available certain structured investments offering materials. HSBC and its affiliates play a variety of roles in connection with the issuance of the Notes, including acting as calculation agent and hedging our obligations under the Notes. In performing these dutes, the economic interests of the calculation agent and other affiliates of our are potentially adverse to your interests are in news in the Notes. We will not have any obligation to consider your interests as a holder of the Notes in taking any action that might affect the value of your Notes.

Example 1: The value of the Reference Asset increases from the Initial Value of 1,000.00 to a Final Value of 1,600.00

Because the Reference Return is positive, and the Reference Return multiplied by the Upside Participation Rate is greater than the Maximum Cap, the Final Settlement Value would be $1,085.000 per $1,000 Principal Amount, calculated as follows: $1,000 + ($1,000 × Maximum Cap)

- = $1.000 + ($1.000 × 8.50%)
- = $1,085,000

Example 1 shows that you will receive the return of your principal investment plus a return equal to the Maximum Cap when the Reference Return multiplied by the Upside Participation Rate exceeds the Maximum Cap.

Example 2: The value of the Reference Asset increases from the Initial Value of 1,000.00 to a Final Value of 1,040.00

Because the Reference Return is positive, and the Reference Return multiplied by the Upside Participation Rate is less than the Maximum Cap, the Final Settlement Value would be $1,040.000 per $1,000 Principal Amount, calculated as follows:

$1,000 + ($1,000 × Reference Return × Upside Participation Rate)

- = $1,000 + ($1,000 × 4.00% × 100.00%)
- = $1 040.000

Example 2 shows that you will receive the return of your principal investment plus a return equal to the Reference Return multiplied by the Upside Participation Rate when the Reference Asset appreciates and such Reference Return multiplied by the Upside Participation Rate does not exceed the Maximum Cap.

Example 3: The value of the Reference Asset decreases from the Initial Value of 1.000.00 to a Final Value of 700.00

U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

You should carefully consider the matters set forth in "U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the accompanying prospectus supplement. The following discussion summarizes the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the purchase, beneficial ownership, and disposition of the Notes. This summary supplements the section "U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the accompanying prospectus supplement and supersedes it to the extent inconsistent therewith.

There are no statutory provisions, regulations, published rulings or judicial decisions addressing the characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes of securities with terms that are substantially the same as those of the Notes. We intend to treat the Notes as contingent payment debt instruments for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Pursuant to the terms of the Notes, you agree to treat the Notes as contingent payment debt instruments for all U.S. federal income tax purposes and, in the opinion of Mayer Brown LLP, special U.S. tax counsel to us, it is reasonable to treat the Notes as contingent payment debt instruments. Assuming the Notes are treated as contingent payment debt instruments, a U.S. folder will be required to include original issue discount ("OID") in gross income each year, even though no payments will be made on the Notes until maturity.

Based on the factors described in the section, "U.S. Federal income Tax Considerations — Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders — U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Notes as Indebtedness for U.S. Federal Income Tax Purposes — Contigent Notes, we have determined that the comparable yield of the Notes, solely for U.S. Federal Income Tax Purposes, will be 5.6578% per annum (compounded annually). Further, based upon the method described in the section, "U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations — Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders — U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Notes as Indebtedness for U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations — Tax Treatment of U.S. Holders — U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Notes as Indebtedness for U.S. Federal Income Tax Purposes — Contigent Notes' and based upon the comparable yield, where determined that the projected payment schedule for Notes that have a Principal Amount of $1,000 and an issue price of $1,000 consists of a single payment of $1,061,74 at maturity (the "Projected Payment").

Based upon the comparable yield, a U.S. holder that pays taxes on a calendar year basis, buys a Note for $1,000, and holds the Note until maturity will be required to pay taxes on the following amounts of ordinary income in respect of the Notes in each year.

Because there are no statutory provisions, regulations, published rulings or judicial decisions addressing the characterization for U.S. federal income tax purposes of securities with terms that are substantially the same as those of the Notes, other characterizations and reatments are possible. As a result, the timing and character of income in respect of the Notes might differ from the treatment described above. You should carefully consider the discussion of all potential tax consequences as set forth in "U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the accompanying prospectus supplement.

Considerations in the accompanying prospecies suppresentation. We will not attempt to ascertain whether any of the entities whose stock is included in the Reference Asset would be treated as a passive foreign investment company ("PEIC") or United States real property holding corporation ("USRPHC"), both as defined for U.S, federal income tax purposes, if no er or more of the entities whose stock is included in the Reference Asset were so treated, certain adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences might apply. You should refer to information filed with the SEC and other authorities by the entities whose stock is included in the Reference Asset and consult; your tax advisor regarding the possible consequences to you if one or more of the entities whose stock is included in the Reference Asset are to become a PFIC or a USRPHC.

of the entities whose stock is included in the Reference Asset is or becomes a PFIC or a USRPHC. A "divident equivalent" payment is treated as a dividend from sources within the United States and such payments generally would be subject to a 30% U.S. withholding tax if paid to a non-U.S. holder. Under U.S. Treasury Department regulations, payments (including deemed payments) with respect to equily-linked instruments ("ELIS") that are "specified ELIs" may be treated as a dividend equivalents if such specified ELIs reference an interest in an "inderlying security", which is generally any interest in an entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes if a payment with respect to such interest ould give rise to a U.S. source dividend, However, Internal Revenue Service guidance provides that withholding on divident equivalent payments will not tapply to specified ELIs that are not delia-one instruments, and that are issued before January 1, 2025.
