To the Member of
Leonis Securities, LLC

Opinion on the Financial Statement

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Leonis Securities, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2022, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statement"). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement to the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Company's auditor since 2016.

Leonis Securities, LLC
Notes To Financial Statements
December 31, 2022

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business: Leonis Securities, LLC is a Delaware limited liability company formed on May 25, 2016, and is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) since September 19, 2016. As a limited liability company, the member’s liability is limited to their investment.

Income Taxes: The Company is wholly-owned by Leonis Principal LLC (“Member”). As a limited liability company, the tax consequences of the Company’s operations pass through to the member. Accordingly, the Company’s financial statements do not include a provision for federal income taxes.

Under the provisions of FASB ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity’s status, including its status as a pass-through entity, and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that no provision or liability for uncertain tax positions is necessary.

The Company’s member is subject to a 4% unincorporated business tax for all income attributable to New York City. The Company calculates the provision for the unincorporated business tax on income by using a “separate return” method. Under this method, the Company is assumed to file a separate return with the local tax authority, thereby reporting the Company’s taxable income and paying the applicable tax to Leonis Principal LLC. The Company’s current provision is the amount of tax payable on the basis of a hypothetical, current-year separate return.

Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires the use of estimates in determining assets and liabilities. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Cash: The Company maintains its bank accounts in a high credit quality financial institution. The balances at times may exceed federally insured limits.

Date of Management’s Review: Subsequent events were evaluated through the date the financial statements were issued.

Accounts Receivable: Accounts receivable are non-interest-bearing uncollateralized obligations receivable in accordance with the terms agreed upon with each customer. The Company regularly reviews its accounts receivable for any uncollectible amounts. The review for uncollectible amounts is based on the Company’s collection experience, customer credit worthiness and current economic trends.

NOTE 2 – NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of a minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness as well as a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital that shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2022, the Company had net capital of $8,380,153 which was $8,370,936 in excess of its required minimum net capital of $9,217. The Company’s ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was .02 to 1.00.

NOTE 3 -RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has an expense sharing agreement with its Member. Under the terms of this agreement, the Company pays the Member for allocated expenses such as personnel services, occupancy and other administrative costs provided to the Company. Allocated expenses amounted to approximately $1,474,159 for the year ended December 31, 2022.

At times, the Member pays operating expenses on behalf of the Company for which the Member subsequently seeks reimbursement. Approximately $36,091 of the due to Member on the accompanying statement of financial condition arose from such payments made by the Member that have not yet been reimbursed by the Company.

Approximately $87,500 of the due to Member on the accompanying statement of financial condition is the amount of unincorporated business tax on New York City income payable to the Company's Member on the basis of a hypothetical, current-year separate return. This amount differs from unincorporated business tax expense determined by applying the statutory rate to the Company's pretax income due to non-New York City sourced income.

The Company relies on referrals from its Member for its customers and revenue.

Financial position and results of operations might differ from the amounts in the accompanying financial statements if these related party transactions did not exist.

NOTE 4 -CONTINGENCIES

The Company is subject to litigation in the normal course of business. The Company has no litigation in progress at December 31, 2022.

To Whom It May Concern:

We, as members of management of Leonis Securities, LLC (the "Company") are responsible for complying with Rule 17a-5, "Reports to be made by certain brokers and dealers". We have performed an evaluation of the Company's compliance with the requirements of Rule 17a-5 and the exemption provisions in Rule 15c3-3(k) (the "exemption provisions") and of the 2013 Release adopting amendments to Rule 17a-5, including Footnote 74 of the 2013 Release.

We have determined that the Company does not meet any of the exemption conditions of paragraph (k) of Rule 15c3-3 (i.e., paragraph (k)(1), (k)(2)(i) or (k)(2)(ii) but also (1) does not directly or indirectly receive, hold or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Exchange Act Rule 15c2-4 ("Rule 15c2-4"); (2) does not carry accounts of or for customers; and (3) does not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) and therefore is covered by Footnote 74 of the 2013 Release.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of
Leonis Securities, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements included in the accompanying Broker Dealers Annual Exemption Report in which (1) Leonis Securities, LLC did not claim an exemption from Rule 15c3-3 in reliance upon Footnote 74 of the 2013 Release, and (2) Leonis Securities, LLC stated that Leonis Securities, LLC met the identified conditions for such reliance throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Leonis Securities, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Leonis Securities, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in Footnote 74 of the 2013 Release.
