(2) Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying statement of financial condition is presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of statement of financial condition in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the statement of financial condition. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(c) Cash and Cash Equivalents

(d) Funds Segregated for Regulatory Purposes

(e) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments are recorded on a trade date basis and are reported in the statement of financial condition under securities owned at fair value in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. The estimated fair value of securities owned and securities sold are generally based on quoted market prices or dealer quotes. Open trade equity on futures contracts is recorded as receivables and payables to clearing organizations or customers, as appropriate. (See note 19 for more information related to fair value measurements.)

(f) Depreciation and amortization

Furniture and equipment are carried at cost and are depreciated using the straight line and accelerated methods using an estimated useful life of three to ten years. Leasehold improvements are amortized on the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the improvements or the term of the lease.

(g) Translation of Foreign Currencies

Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated to U.S. dollars at year-end exchange rates.

(h) Exchange Memberships and Stock

Exchange memberships and stock required to be held in connection with such memberships are recorded at cost, or if other than temporary impairment in value has occurred, at a value that reflects an adjustment for management's estimate of the impairment. There was no impairment recognized for the year ended December 31, 2025.

(i) Receivables, Payables, and Marketable Securities

Receivables from and payables to brokers, dealers, clearing organizations, customers and non-customers represent balances arising primarily in connection with security and commodity transactions, including unrealized gains and losses on open commodity futures contracts. Marketable securities, consisting primarily of U.S. government securities, are held as collateral for receivables from customers and as margin. The Company may deposit these securities as margin or clearing fund requirements with exchange clearing organizations. Customer-owned securities and options are not reflected in the statement of financial condition.

The Company monitors the receivables from and payables to brokers, dealers, clearing organizations, customers and non-customers on a daily basis and interest is accrued and included in the statement of financial condition. Interest rates paid on the cash balances fluctuate with short-term interest rates.

ABN AMRO Clearing USA LLC
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2025

The Company establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts based upon historical experience and specific customer collection issues. At December 31, 2025, the Company did not hold an allowance for doubtful accounts on receivables from other brokers.

(j) Credit Losses

The Company estimates expected credit losses over the contractual term of its financial assets as of the reporting date based on relevant information about past events and current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. The Company's financial assets, measured on an amortized cost basis, are primarily subject to collateral maintenance provisions for which the Company elected to apply the practical expedient of estimating credit losses. If the fair value of the collateral were less than the amortized cost basis of the financial assets, the Company would establish an allowance for current expected credit losses for the unsecured balance. See note 5, note 6, and note 7 for details of the financial assets.

(k) Income Taxes

The Company is organized as a limited liability company and taxed as a partnership under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The Company's taxable income/(loss) is included in the respective income tax returns of the members. The liability for payment of federal and state income tax on the Company's earnings is the responsibility of its members rather than the Company. Accordingly, no liability for U.S. federal and state income tax has been recorded in the statement of financial condition. The Company is responsible for franchise tax payments and or/entity level tax payments, such as, New York City's Unincorporated Business Tax (UBT). The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions by prescribing a minimum recognition threshold that a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the statement of financial condition. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense. As of December 31, 2025 the Company has recorded no unrecognized tax benefits, interest, or penalties in the statement of financial condition and expects no significant increase or decrease within the next 12 months.

At December 31, 2025, the Company had federal and state income tax returns for the 2020 through 2024 tax years open and subject to examination.

(l) Collateralized Financing

Securities purchased under agreements to resell which are short term in nature, are accounted for as collateralized financing transactions and carried at the amounts at which the underlying securities will be subsequently resold as specified in the respective agreements. It is the Company's policy to take possession of securities, subject to resale agreements. The fair value of the securities is determined daily and collateral is added whenever necessary to bring the market value of the underlying collateral equal to or greater than the resale price specified in the contract.

Securities borrowed and securities loaned transactions are generally reported as collateralized financings and recorded at the amount of cash collateral advanced or received. Securities borrowed transactions require the Company to deposit cash collateral with the lender. When lending securities, the Company receives cash collateral generally in excess of the market value of the securities loaned. The Company monitors the market value of securities borrowed and loaned on a daily basis with additional collateral obtained or refunded as necessary. Interest on such transactions is accrued and included in the statement of financial condition in other assets. Interest rates paid on the cash collateral fluctuate with short-term interest rates.

ABN AMRO Clearing USA LLC
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2025

(m) Leases

The Company recognizes and measures its leases in accordance with ASC 842, Leases. The Company is a lessee in several operating leases for office space and data center facilities. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease, or contains a lease, at inception of a contract and when the terms of an existing contract are changed. The Company recognizes a lease liability and a right of use (ROU) asset at the commencement date of the lease. The lease liability is initially and subsequently recognized based on the present value of its future lease payments, including any lease extension or termination options that are expected to be exercised. The discount rate is the implicit rate if it is readily determinable otherwise the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate. The implicit rates of the Company's leases are not readily determinable and accordingly, it uses its incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at the commencement date for all leases. The Company's incremental borrowing rate for a lease is the rate of interest it would have to pay on a collateralized basis to borrow an amount equal to the lease payments under similar terms and in a similar economic environment. The ROU asset is subsequently measured throughout the lease term at the amount of the re-measured lease liability (i.e., present value of the remaining lease payments), plus unamortized initial direct costs, plus (minus) any prepaid (accrued) lease payments, less the unamortized balance of lease incentives received, and any impairment recognized. Lease cost for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(n) Not yet Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

There are no new accounting standards not yet adopted that are expected to be material to the Company as of December 31, 2025.

(3) Segment Reporting

The Company has a regional management team that act as the chief operating decision maker (CODM). Decisions and evaluations related to the Company are made in U.S. Dollars and the CODM uses net income to evaluate, manage, and forecast for the Company. Excess net capital is another indicator used to make operational decisions. These decisions include reinvestment in the firm and dividends to the parent while maintaining capital adequacy. The Company operates in one reportable operating segment, which provides clearing services and execution services for equities and equities options as well as futures and futures options.

ABN AMRO Clearing USA LLC
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

(4) Funds Segregated for Regulatory Purposes

Cash of $652.3 million, securities purchased under agreements to resell of $1.4 billion, and U.S. government securities with a fair value of $498.4 million are segregated under the CEAct and represent funds deposited by customers and funds accruing to customers as a result of trades or contracts.

Cash of $99.0 million and securities purchased under agreements to resell of $10.2 million have been segregated in special reserve accounts for the exclusive benefit of customers pursuant to federal regulations under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or agreements for proprietary accounts of broker-dealers.

(5) Receivables from and Payables to Brokers, Dealers, and Clearing Organizations

The Company does business with other broker-dealers who, for the most part, are members of the major U.S. securities exchanges. The Company monitors the credit standing of brokers and dealers and customers with whom it conducts business. In addition, the Company monitors the market value of collateral held and the market value of securities receivable from others. The Company seeks to obtain additional collateral if insufficient protection against loss exists.

Brokers' and dealers' trading and investment accounts cash and securities transactions are recorded on settlement date. The receivables are collateralized by brokers' and dealers' securities held, which are not reflected on the statement of financial condition.

At December 31, 2025, the market value of securities used to secure brokers' and dealers' margin balances was $7.6 billion, of which $3.5 billion was used to collateralize financing for the brokers' and dealers' margin balances.

At December 31, 2025, receivables from and payables to brokers, dealers, and clearing organizations are composed of the following, net of the allowance for doubtful accounts (in thousands):

(6) Receivables from and Payables to Customers

Receivables from and payables to customers include amounts due on cash and margin transactions. Customer cash, securities and commodities transactions are recorded on the settlement date. The receivables are collateralized by customers' securities held, which are not reflected on the statement of financial condition.

(7) Collateralized Transactions

The Company enters into reverse repurchase agreements, securities borrowed and securities loaned transactions to finance receivables from brokers' and dealers' and customer trading and investment accounts. The Company manages credit exposure from such transactions by entering into master netting agreements and collateral agreements with counterparties that provide the Company, in the event of a counterparty default (such as bankruptcy or a counterparty's failure to pay or perform), the right to net a counterparty's rights and obligations under such agreement and liquidate and setoff collateral against the net amount owed by the counterparty. The Company's policy is generally to take possession of securities purchased under agreements to resell and securities borrowed, and to receive securities and cash posted as collateral (with rights of re-hypothecation). The Company also monitors the fair value of the underlying securities as compared with the related receivable or payable, including accrued interest, and, as necessary, requests additional collateral as provided under the applicable agreement to ensure such transactions are adequately collateralized.

Securities borrowed and securities loaned transactions are for equities securities only and are recorded at the amount of the cash collateral advanced or received, the tenor of which is overnight, adjusted daily for additional collateral obtained or received. At December 31, 2025, the fair value of securities received as collateral for securities borrowing and pledged for securities lending transactions was $2.3 billion and $97.8 million, respectively.

At December 31, 2025, the fair value of the collateral received for reverse repurchase agreements, included in the statement of financial conditions under securities purchased under agreements to resell and within funds segregated for regulatory purposes, totaled $1.6 million and $1.5 billion, respectively. The Company seeks to mitigate mark-to-market risk by taking collateral in the form of U.S. government securities, the tenor of which is open and callable on demand.

The following table presents information about the potential effect of rights of setoff and the effect of rights of setoff associated with the Company's recognized assets and liabilities as of December 31, 2025 (in thousands):

In the normal course of business, the Company accepts and clears futures contracts and options on futures contracts for the accounts of its customers, primarily exchange members and institutional firms. As such, the Company guarantees to the respective clearing houses or other brokers, its customers' performance under these contracts. To reduce its risk, the Company requires its customers to meet, at minimum, the margin requirement established by each of the exchanges at which contracts are traded. Margin requirements for exchange members may be significantly less than those required from other customers. Margin is a good faith deposit from the customer that reduces risk to the Company of failure on behalf of the customer to fulfill any obligation under these contracts. To minimize its exposure to risk of loss due to market variation, the Company adjusts these margin requirements as needed.

ABN AMRO Clearing USA LLC
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2025

Customers may also be required to deposit additional funds, securities, or other collateral. As a result of market variation, the Company may satisfy margin requirements by liquidating certain customer positions. Management believes that the margin deposits and collateral held at December 31, 2025 were adequate to minimize the risk of material loss that could be created by positions held at that time.

The Company is engaged in various trading activities, whose counterparties include clearing organizations, brokers and dealers, futures commission merchants, banks, and other financial institutions. In the event counterparties do not fulfill their obligations, the Company may be exposed to risk. The risk of default depends on credit worthiness of the counterparty or issuer of the financial instrument. It is the Company's policy to review, as necessary, the credit standing of each counterparty with which it conducts business.

(14) Leases

The Company has obligations as a lessee for office space and data center facilities with initial non-cancelable terms in excess of one year. The Company classified these leases as operating leases. One of the office space leases contains renewal options for periods ranging from five to ten years. The Company does not expect to exercise these renewal options, as such, the optional periods are not included when determining the lease term and associated payments under the lease agreement. The data center facilities leases contain monthly renewal options. The Company is reasonably certain to exercise these renewal options for an estimable period of time, as such, the optional periods are included in determining the lease term and the associated payments under these renewal options. The Company's leases do include termination options for either party to the lease or restrictive financial or other covenants. Payments due under the lease contracts include fixed payments.

The weighted-average remaining lease term was 10.9 years and the weighted average discount rate was 4.84% for the operating leases as of December 31, 2025.

Maturities of lease liabilities under non-cancellable operating leases as of December 31, 2025 are as follows (in thousands):

2025	1,675
2026	1,627
2027	1,649
2028	1,670
2029	1,691

(15) Guarantees and Indemnifications

Under certain exchange or clearinghouse membership agreements, members are generally required to guarantee the performance of other members by meeting any shortfalls in the event a member becomes unable to satisfy their obligation to the exchange or clearinghouse. To mitigate this risk, the exchanges and clearinghouses typically require their members to deposit collateral with them. As of December 31, 2025, the Company had $1.0 billion in cash deposited with clearing organizations, as included in deposits with clearing organizations on the statement of financial condition. The Company's maximum potential liability under these arrangements cannot be quantified. However, the potential for the Company to be required to make payments under the arrangements is remote. Accordingly, no contingent liability is recorded in the accompanying statement of financial condition.

The Company clears and executes futures contracts, options on futures contracts, and equity products, including options for the accounts of its customers. As such, the Company deposits performance bond collateral with the applicable clearing organizations to fulfill the obligations of its customers' performance under these contracts. To reduce its operational risk, the Company requires its customers to meet, at a minimum, the margin requirements established by each exchange on which the contract is traded. This margin is a good faith deposit from the customer. To minimize its market and credit risks, the Company adjusts the amount of margin required commensurate with the level of risk associated with the customers' underlying positions. If necessary, the Company may liquidate certain positions in order to satisfy minimum margin requirements. Management believes that the margin deposits held at December 31, 2025 are adequate to mitigate the risk of material loss.

(16) Members' Equity

The limited liability company operating agreement for the Company provides for two classes of membership with varying rights, preferences, privileges, and obligations. The Common Member has all of the voting rights and authority to manage the Company's operations and the Preferred Members have no voting rights and do not participate in management by reason of such memberships or interests. The Company is authorized to issue 1,000 Class A preferred interests in exchange for a $10,000 capital contribution for each such interest. Class A members have a Joint Back Office (JBO) clearing agreement with the Company. This agreement allows JBO participants to receive favorable margin treatment as compared to the full customer margin requirements of Regulation T. As part of this agreement, Class A members are not allocated any income or losses from the Company's operations.

(17) Related-Party Transactions

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into transactions with affiliated companies. The Company executes and clears trades for related customers and noncustomers and earns certain commissions and fees in connection with these services. The Company also utilizes related clearing brokers to execute and clear futures transactions on exchanges where the Company is not a member, for which it incurs brokerage and clearing charges. Balances related to these transactions are reflected in the statement of financial condition under receivables from and payables to customers, brokers, dealers and clearing organizations and noncustomers. The Company also receives guarantees from affiliated companies for certain counterparty relationships related to clearing transactions.

The Company enters into short-term reverse repurchase agreements with affiliates in connection with collateralized transactions. These agreements are primarily to acquire securities needed for clearing organization margin deposits or to invest excess cash from operating activities. Reverse repurchase agreements are reflected in the statement of financial condition under securities purchased under agreements to resell and are as set forth in the table below.

The Company also had securities borrowed and securities loaned transactions with affiliated companies. Securities borrowed and securities loaned transactions with affiliates are recorded at the amount of cash collateral advanced or received and are as set forth in the table below. The Company primarily borrows from third party counterparties and lends to affiliates. Interest on such transactions is accrued and is included in the statement of financial condition in other assets and accounts payable and accrued expenses.

At December 31, 2025, the Company had borrowing transactions with affiliated banks in order to facilitate client transactions, and to meet short-term financing needs (notes 10 and 11).

The Company is party to a Service Level Agreement (SLA) with affiliates under which the Company receives services for operational and administrative support.

The Company has $0.4 million invested in an affiliated company. This amount is reflected in other assets in the statement of financial condition.

The following table sets forth the Company's related party assets and liabilities as of December 31, 2025 (in thousands):

	Assets	Liabilities

(18) Net Capital Requirements

The Company is a broker-dealer subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1) and is a futures commission merchant subject to the CFTC Minimum Capital Requirement (Regulation 1.17).

ABN AMRO Clearing USA LLC
Notes to Statement of Financial Condition
December 31, 2025

Under the more restrictive of these rules, the Company is required to maintain “net capital” equivalent to the greater of $5 million, 2% of “aggregate debit items” or the sum of 8% of the customer risk maintenance margin requirement plus 8% of the noncustomer risk maintenance margin requirement, as these terms are defined.

Adjusted net capital, aggregate debit items, and risk maintenance margin requirements change from day to day. At December 31, 2025, under the more restrictive of these rules, the Company had net capital and net capital requirements of $996,700,014 and $230,264,747, respectively. The net capital rule may effectively restrict member withdrawals and the repayment of subordinated loans.

(19) Fair Value Disclosure

The Company’s financial instruments are reported in the statement of financial condition at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Fair value measurements and disclosures include a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value.

A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income, or cost approach, as specified by ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

ASC 820 establishes a hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value into three broad levels that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available:

- Level 1 Inputs: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the reporting date.
- Level 2 Inputs: Other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. Level 2 assets include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities that are not active; and inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, such as models or other valuation methodologies.
- Level 3 Inputs: Unobservable inputs for the valuation of the asset or liability. Level 3 assets include investments for which there is little, if any, market activity. These inputs require significant management judgment or estimation.

The following table presents the Company’s fair value hierarchy for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2025 (in thousands):

(20) Litigation

In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to litigation and regulatory proceedings. Management of the Company, after consultation with legal counsel, believes that the outcome of such proceedings will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position.

(21) Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated other events and transactions through February 27, 2026, the date the statement of financial condition were issued, noting no subsequent events requiring recording or disclosure in the statement of financial condition or in related notes to the statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2025.
