NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2025

NOTE 1- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Audacity Capital Partners LLC (the “Company”) was organized in the State of California on February 9, 2021 as a limited liability company. The Company’s objective is to assist business clients in the areas of private placements and mergers and acquisitions. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (“FINRA”). #### 15c3-3 Exemption

The Company carries no customer funds or securities and therefore is exempt from the reserve and possession or control requirements under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company identified the provisions of Footnote 74 under which the Company is not required to claim an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3. ## NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the dates of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basis of Accounting

The Company maintains its books and records on an accrual basis of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the U.S. and as required by FINRA and the SEC. The Company is evaluating new accounting standards and will implement as required.

Revenue Recognition

The Company has adopted ASU 2019-04, Revenue from Contracts and Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, ASC 606) which creates a single framework for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers. Revenue is measured based on considerations specified in a contract with a customer. The Company recognizes revenue when it satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a service to a customer. The Company had no revenue during the period.

Single Reportable Segment

The Company is engaged in a single line of business as a securities broker-dealer, which is comprised of several classes of services, including mergers and acquisitions, private placements of securities and investment advisory services. The company has identified its Chief Executive Officer as the chief operating decision maker (“CODM”), who uses net income to evaluate the results of the business, predominately in the forecasting process, to manage the Company. Additionally, the CODM uses excess net capital (see Note 2), which is not a measure of profit and loss, to make operational decisions while maintaining capital adequacy, such as whether to reinvest profits or pay dividends. The Company’s operations constitute a single operating segment and therefore, a single reportable segment, because the CODM manages the business activities using information of the Company as a whole. The accounting policies used to measure the profit and loss of the segment are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies. The company had no revenues in 2025.

AUDACITY CAPITAL PARTNERS LLC

DECEMBER 31, 2025

NOTE 2 – NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, and requires that during the Company's first year of operations as a broker-dealer, the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1 (and the rule of the "applicable" exchange also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1). At December 31, 2025, the Company had net capital of $16,799 which was $11,799 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was .81 to 1.

NOTE 3 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES AND GOING CONCERN

The Company at December 31, 2025 has no unfulfilled contract, commitments, or contingencies. These financial statements are presented on a concern basis .Going concern, the Company sustained a net loss and negative cash flow from operations. However, management has determined that the Company will be able to meet current obligations and net capital requirements through future revenue or capital contributions.

NOTE 4 – RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company operates from office space provided by the Owner of its member and does not record these shared expenses as is allowed under Rule 15c3-1(c)(2)(i)(F) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and further guidance on FINRA Notice 03-63, because the Owner is deemed to have adequate resources independent of the broker dealer to pay his liabilities and expenses. For the year ended December 31, 2025 the non-reimbursed shared expenses are not material to the financial statements.

NOTE 5 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has performed an evaluation of subsequent events through the date the financial statements were issued, March 3, 2026. The evaluation did not result in any subsequent events that required adjustments or disclosures.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member and Management of
Audacity Capital Partners, LLC

We have reviewed management's statements for the year ended December 31, 2025, included in the accompanying Rule 15c3-3 Exemption Report pursuant to SEC Rule 17a-5, in which (1) Audacity Capital Partners, LLC (the Company) did not claim an exemption under paragraph (k) of 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3, and (2) the Company is filing this Exemption Report relying on Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5 because the Company would limit its business activities exclusively to include receiving transaction-based compensation for identifying potential merger and acquisition opportunities for clients, referring securities transactions to other broker-dealers. The Company had no revenue in 2025.

In addition, the Company did not directly or indirectly receive, hold, or otherwise owe funds or securities for or to customers, other than money or other consideration received and promptly transmitted in compliance with paragraph (a) or (b)(2) of Rule 15c2-4 and/or funds received and promptly transmitted for effecting transactions via subscriptions on a subscription way basis where the funds are payable to the issuer or its agent and not to the Company; did not carry accounts of or for customers; and did not carry PAB accounts (as defined in Rule 15c3-3) throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception.

Audacity Capital Partners, LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Audacity Capital Partners, LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based upon the Company's business activities contemplated by Footnote 74 of the SEC Release No. 34-70073 adopting amendments to 17 C.F.R. § 240.17a-5, and related SEC Staff Frequently Asked Questions.
