Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation – Sauer, Dazey Investment Company (the Company) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Orion Investment Company (Orion), which is a registered investment advisor. The Company is a registered securities broker/dealer and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The Company clears all customer transactions through another broker/dealer on a fully disclosed basis. The Company does not hold funds or securities for, or owe money or securities to, customers and does not otherwise carry customer accounts. Accordingly, the Company is exempt from Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 15c3-3.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - The Company considers all short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition - The Company follows the revenue recognition guidance that requires an entity to follow a five-step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies the performance obligation.

Commissions - Commission revenue is recorded on a trade date basis and represents sales commissions generated for clients' purchases and sales of securities on exchanges and over the counter, as well as purchases of other investment products. The Company views the selling, distribution, and marketing, or any combination thereof, of investment products to such clients as a single performance obligation.

Commissions Receivable - Accounts receivable are stated at the original invoice amount less an allowance for credit losses, based on a review of all outstanding accounts, in accordance with FASB ASC 326-20, which requires the Company to estimate expected credit losses over the life of its financial assets and certain off-balance sheet exposures as of the reporting date based on relevant information about past events, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. The allowance for credit losses is reported as a valuation account on the statement of financial condition that adjusts the asset's cost basis. Changes in the allowance for credit losses are reported as credit loss expense. Receivables are written off when deemed uncollectible. Any recoveries of receivables previously written off are recorded when received. Management has determined that an allowance for credit losses was not necessary as of March 31, 2026.

Interest - The Company earns interest from its clearing broker's bank deposit program.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Sauer, Dazey Investment Company
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2026

I. Concentration of Credit Risk

Sauer, Dazey Investment Company is located in Saint Louis, Missouri. Most of its clients are individuals who reside in the Saint Louis metropolitan area.

The Company maintains an account with Bank of America and two bank deposit accounts with RBC Clearing and Custody (RBC), a securities broker/dealer. Bank of America provides $250,000 of deposit insurance through the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The RBC Bank deposit program provides $5,000,000 of coverage through the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. There were no amounts in excess of insured limits in any account on March 31, 2026.

II. Net Capital Requirements

Sauer, Dazey Investment Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of $50,000 and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, not exceed 15 to 1. The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn, or cash dividends paid, if the Company's resulting net capital is less than $50,000, or its ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital exceeds 15 to 1. The Company's net capital and the required minimum net capital were $205,561 and $50,000 respectively at March 31, 2026, resulting in net capital of $155,561 in excess of the minimum requirement. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0.0450 to 1.

III. Related Party Transactions

The Company has an expense sharing agreement regarding the allocation of expenses with Orion, whereby payments are made to Orion on a monthly basis to compensate for salaries of officers and employees, occupancy, and equipment expenses. These expenses were $128,367 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026. At March 31, 2026 the Company had no outstanding payables to Orion. The results in the accompanying financial statements could differ if this agreement were not in place.

IV. Income Taxes

The Company files its federal tax return as a member of a consolidated group and records its share of the consolidated federal tax liability on a separate return basis. The Company's income tax expense for the year ended March 31, 2026, consists of the following:

Provision for Federal Income Tax	$ 65,304
Provision for State Income Tax	$ 12,957
Total Provision for Income Tax	$ 78,261

The provision for federal and state income taxes was calculated using the rates of 21% and 4.00%, respectively. Income tax expense differs from the amounts which would be obtained by applying the statutory income tax rate of 25% (combined Federal and Missouri income tax rates) to the current year's earnings before taxes as follows:

For the Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2026

Computed "Expected" Tax Expense	81,751
Increase (Decrease) In Tax Resulting from:

The Company remits amounts currently payable to its parent, Orion Investment Company, Inc. The accrued tax expense was remitted to Orion before year end so no balance remains on the balance sheet.

V. Commitments and Contingencies

As of the report date, the Company is not aware of any commitments or contingencies that require disclosure in the financial statements.

VI. Segment Reporting

The Company adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2023-7, Disclosure of Financial Information for a Single Segment Entity. Under this guidance, the Company is required to disclose specific financial information for its single reportable segment.
