

Orla Mining Reaches Agreement on Camino Rojo Productivity Bonus

Vancouver, BC – June 24, 2026 – Orla Mining Ltd. (TSX: OLA; NYSE: ORLA) (“Orla” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has reached an agreement (the “Agreement”) with employees and their representing union at its Camino Rojo Mine regarding the outstanding 2025 productivity bonus. The Agreement was approved by the majority of employees at the mine site and has been signed before the Mexican Labour Authority.

“We are pleased to have reached an agreement with our employees and the union on the productivity bonus at Camino Rojo,” said Jason Simpson, President and Chief Executive Officer of Orla Mining. “We will continue to honour the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement while working to create sustained, long-term value for all Camino Rojo employees, local communities and other stakeholders. We thank our employees, the workers’ union, and the Mexican Labour Authority for their partnership throughout this resolution.”

About Orla Mining Ltd.

Orla’s corporate strategy is to acquire, develop, and operate mineral properties where the Company’s expertise can substantially increase stakeholder value. The Company has three material projects, consisting of two operating mines and one development project, all 100% owned by the Company: (1) Camino Rojo, in Zacatecas State, Mexico, an operating gold and silver open-pit and heap leach mine and the potential underground Project. The property covers over 139,000 hectares which contains a large oxide and sulphide Mineral Resource; (2) Musselwhite Mine, in Northwestern Ontario, Canada, an underground gold mine that has been in operation for over 25 years and produced over 6 million ounces of gold, with a long history of resource growth and conversion; and (3) South Railroad (South Carlin Complex), in Nevada, United States, a feasibility-stage, open pit, heap leach gold project located on the Carlin trend. The technical reports for the Company’s material projects are available on Orla’s website at www.orlaminig.com, and on SEDAR+ and EDGAR under the Company’s profile at www.sedarplus.ca and www.sec.gov, respectively.
