

Hello Sahr, I've been building Oya, a football kit brand focused on making pro-level soccer jerseys and equipments for everyone. Think of it as a culture-driven alternative to Nike and Adidas.

Since launching last year:

- * Our first int'l tournament partnership put Oya in front of 50,000 fans
- * 5 teams signed, 10 more in the pipeline
- * Partnerships with 2 Sunday leagues with 210 teams
- * Popcaan has worn Oya

We're opening a $120k friends & family round on WeFunder to help drive our next level of growth.

Please take a look, would love to have you involved:
