Securities Outstanding

9. Reflects securities outstanding as of June 30, 2026, and market prices as of June 30, 2026. Yield is shown to the stated maturity based on market prices as of June 30, 2026. Track Record: Common Stock Total Return and Price to Book Ratio

10. Total return is calculated as the percent change in the value of $10,000 invested in ECC common stock at the time of the Company's IPO and assumes that any dividends or distributions are reinvested at prices obtained by the Company's dividend reinvestment plan on the applicable payment date. Future results may vary and may be higher or lower than those shown. Returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Company distributions or the sale of Company shares.
11. The S&P BDC Index is designed to track leading business development companies ("BDCs") that trade on NYSE and NASDAQ and satisfy market capitalization and equity requirements. Although ECC is not a BDC, BDCs generally invest in high yielding credit investments, as does ECC. In addition, similar to ECC, BDCs generally elect to be classified as a regulated investment company under the US Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which generally requires an investment company to distribute its taxable income to shareholders. You cannot invest directly in an index.
12. Price to book is calculated as price per share divided by book value per share, which for ECC, reflects management's reported estimate of book value for periods where final determined book values are not available. Future results may vary and may be higher or lower than those shown.

ECC By The Numbers

13. Since IPO date October 7, 2014 through June 30, 2026.

Why Invest in CLO Equity?

1. The Adviser expects CLO equity to provide some measure of protection against rising interest rates when the applicable benchmark rate is greater than the benchmark rate floor on a CLO's underlying assets (which can typically range from 0.00% to 1.00% depending on the loan). However, CLO equity is also subject to other forms of interest rate risk.

CLOs are Securitizations of a Portfolio of Senior Secured Loans

2. Since a CLO's indenture typically requires that the maturity dates of a CLO's assets (typically 5 to 7 years from the date of issuance of a senior secured loan) be shorter than the maturity date of the CLO's liabilities (typically 12 to 13 years), CLOs generally do not face refinancing risk on the CLO debt. However, CLO investors do face reinvestment risk with respect to a CLO's underlying portfolio. In addition, in most CLO transactions, CLO debt investors are subject to prepayment risk in that the holders of a majority of the equity tranche can direct a call or refinancing of a CLO, which would cause the CLO's outstanding CLO debt securities to be repaid at par.

Senior Secured Loans are the Raw Materials of CLOs

3. The Adviser expects CLO equity to provide some measure of protection against rising interest rates when the applicable benchmark rate is greater than the benchmark rate floor on a CLO's underlying assets (which can typically range from 0.00% to 1.00% depending on the loan). However, CLO equity is also subject to other forms of interest rate risk.
4. Loan-to-value ratio is typically based on market values as determined in an acquisition, by the public in the case of publicly traded companies or by private market multiples and other valuation methodologies in the case of private companies.

In the event multiple ratings are available, the lowest S&P rating, or if there is no S&P rating, the lowest equivalent rating, is used. The ratings of specific borrowings by an obligor may differ from the rating assigned to the obligor and may differ among rating agencies. For certain obligors, no rating is available in the reports received by the Company. Such obligors are not shown in the graphs and, accordingly, the sum of the percentages in the graphs may not equal 100%. Ratings below BBB- are below investment grade.
