NOTES TO THE STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION JUNE 30, 2026

ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESS

NGC Financial, LLC (the “Company”), a New York limited liability company, was organized on March 1, 2000. The Company is a broker-dealer and registered investment advisory firm registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company does not claim an exemption from Rule 15c3-3 in reliance upon footnote 74 of SEC Release No. 34-70073, limiting business to the distribution of mutual funds and/or variable life insurance and annuities. The Company does not hold customer securities or funds for investment, nor does it owe funds or securities to its customers.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CASH EQUIVALENTS

For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments, with original maturities of less than three months that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

RECEIVABLES

Concessions are paid directly from registered investment companies. Amounts receivable from registered investment companies are paid within 90 days after the concession is earned. Advisory fees are paid within 30 days after the quarter ends and the fee has been earned. Therefore, no allowance for credit losses has been recorded at June 30, 2026.

NGC Financial, LLC

(A New York Limited Liability Company)

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company's primary source of revenue is concessions derived from introducing customer orders for securities interests to mutual funds and variable life insurance and annuities which carry the customer accounts. Concession revenues and the related commission expenses are recognized on the trade date when the positions are opened or closed by the respective mutual fund or insurance company. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC Topic 606"). The revenue recognition guidance requires an entity to follow a five step model to (a) identify the contract(s) with a customer, (b) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (c) determine the transaction price, (d) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (e) recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies the performance obligation.

Significant Judgments - The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract; and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

INCOME TAXES

The Company is organized in the State of New York as a single member limited liability company ("LLC"). A single member LLC is treated as a disregarded entity for federal and state income tax purposes and is not required to file a separate federal or state income tax return. Accordingly, no provision for regular income taxes has been made in these financial statements because the single member is individually responsible for reporting income or loss based on the Company's income and expenses as reported for income tax purposes.

NGC Financial, LLC

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Management has continued to evaluate the application of Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 740, “Income Taxes”, and has determined that no reserves for uncertain tax positions were required to have been recorded as a result of the adoption of ASC 740. There are no tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly increase or decrease within twelve months. The 2022 through 2025 tax years generally remain subject to examination by the U.S. federal and most state tax authorities.

LEASE STANDARD

The company adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-02 Leases, which requires recognition of lease assets (right-of-use) and lease liabilities (liability to make lease payments) by lessees for those currently classified as operating leases. This adoption did not have a material impact on the Company’s statement of financial condition.

SEGMENT REPORTING

The company adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2023-7, Disclosure of Financial Information for a Single Segment Entity. Under this guidance, the Company is required to disclose specific financial information for its single reportable segment.

The Company operates as a single reportable segment, focusing on broker dealer activities, mainly brokering securities. All material financial information, including revenue, expenses, and assets, is reviewed and managed by the Company’s Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM), its chief executive officer. The accounting policies used to measure the profit and loss of the segment are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies.

NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

The Company, as a registered broker-dealer with the SEC, is subject to the net capital requirements of Rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and has elected to use the basic method as permitted by this rule. Under this rule, the Company is required to maintain net capital equal to the greater of $5,000 or 6 2/3% of aggregate indebtedness, as defined.

NGC Financial, LLC

(A New York Limited Liability Company)

NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT (continued)

At June 30, 2026, the Company had a net capital requirement of $5,000, aggregate indebtedness of $15,343 and a net capital of $296,811 or $291,811 in excess of the minimum net capital requirement.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company leases office facilities and telephone services on a month-to-month basis from its single member for an annual charge of $7,200 and $1,200, respectively. Any unpaid charges are recorded as due to related party on the statement of financial condition and repaid with available cash flow of the Company. These unsecured amounts bear no interest or due dates. There were no amounts due to the Company's sole member at June 30, 2026 for these charges.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Company maintains cash deposits with its bank that at times may exceed the insurance provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). The Company has not experienced any losses as a result.

REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS

Interest income - The Company earns interest income from cash and cash equivalents. This revenue is not in scope for Topic 606 as it is not generated from contracts with customers.

Concessions - The Company generates two types of concession revenue: sales-based concession revenue that is recognized on the trade date and trailing concession revenue that is recognized over time as earned. Sales-based concession revenue varies by investment product and is based on a percentage of an investment product's current market value at the time of purchase. Trailing concession revenue is generally based on a percentage of the current market value of clients' investment holdings in trail-eligible assets, and is recognized over the period during which services, such as on-going support, are performed. As trailing concession revenue is based on the market value of clients' investment holdings, this variable consideration is constrained until the market value is determinable.

NGC Financial, LLC

(A New York Limited Liability Company)

REVENUE FROM CONTRACTS WITH CUSTOMERS (continued)

Advisory Fees - The Company earns revenue for performing asset management services for clients. The revenue is earned on a fixed or tiered rate applied, as a percentage, to assets under management. Assets under management vary with market fluctuations and client behavior. The asset management performance obligation is considered a series of distinct services that are substantially the same and are satisfied each day over the term of the contract. Asset management fees are billed and received quarterly, in arrears, and recognized as earned over the course of the current quarter.

Disaggregation of Revenue:

The following table presents revenue by major source:

Concession Revenue
Variable Annuities - Trailing	$ 294,489
Mutual Funds – Sales-based	14,898
Mutual Funds - Trailing	69,705
Non-Securities Insurance Products – Sales-based	6,107
Total Concessions	$ 385,199

For presentation purposes, revenue on the Statement of Income is disaggregated further than what was presented on the FOCUS filings.

Management has evaluated all subsequent events from June 30, 2026 through August 21, 2026, the date of the accompanying financial statements were available to be issued, and is not aware of any subsequent events occurring during this period that have not been disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.
