REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of Ceiba Financial, LLC:

Opinion on Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Ceiba Financial, LLC (the "Company") as of June 30, 2026, and the related notes (collectively referred to as "financial statement"). In our opinion, the financial statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of June 30, 2026, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statement based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free from material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud.

Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. Our audit also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement. We believe that the audit of the financial statement provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Note 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization and Nature of Business

CEIBA Financial, LLC (the "Company") is a capital acquisition broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA"). The Company, a California limited liability company ("LLC"), received its approval for membership on April 26, 2019.

The Company conducts business in private placements of securities.

Since the Company is an LLC, the member is not liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, unless the member has signed a specific guarantee.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company's prospects are subject to certain risks, expenses and uncertainties frequently encountered by companies in rapidly evolving markets. These risks include the failure to market the Company's offerings as well as other risks and uncertainties.

The Company has historically funded its operations through advisory fee revenue and equity contributions. Management of the Company expects to be successful in maintaining sufficient working capital and will manage operations commensurate with its level of working capital.

Basis of Presentation

The Company keeps its books and prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which is required by the SEC and FINRA.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of Cash Flows, the Company has defined cash equivalents as highly liquid investments with original maturities of less than 90 days that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are uncollateralized customer obligations due under normal trade terms generally requiring payment within 30 days from the invoice date. Accounts receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from outstanding balances. Management provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a charge to earnings and a credit to valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current collectability status of accounts, which includes specific losses for known troubled accounts and other available evidence. At June 30, 2025, management considers all accounts receivable to be fully collectible, therefore no allowance for uncollectible amounts is necessary.

Revenue Recognition

The Company records revenue under the provisions of ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Under this standard, recognition of revenue occurs when a customer obtains control of promised services or goods in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. In addition, the standard requires disclosure of the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts. The Company recognizes revenue when services are transferred to clients. Revenue is recognized based on the amount of consideration that management expects to receive in exchange for these services in accordance with the terms of the contract with the client. To determine the amount and timing of revenue recognition, the Company must (1) identify the contract with the client, (2) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (3) determine the transaction price, (4) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract, and (5) recognize revenue when the Company satisfies a performance obligation.

Significant Judgments

Revenue from contracts with customers includes advisory fees and platform fees. The recognition and measurement of revenue is based on the assessment of individual contract terms. Significant judgment is required to determine whether performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time or over time; how to allocate transaction prices where multiple performance obligations are identified; when to recognize revenue based on the appropriate measure of the Company's progress under the contract' and whether constraints on variable consideration should be applied due to uncertain future events.

Advisory fees are determined on a case-by-case basis according to the terms negotiated by management and are generally recognized at the time the services are completed and the income is reasonably determinable.

Monthly platform fees are negotiated with individual registered representatives and are billed monthly. The fees are recognized for the month covered by the invoice to the registered representative.

Reimbursable expense income is recognized at the time the expenses are incurred.

Concentrations

During the year ended June 30, 2026, there was no significant concentration of revenue. No customer generated more than 22% of total revenues.

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk for cash.

Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and as such, is not required to file its own tax return. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is provided in the financial statements as they are the responsibility of the individual member.

The Company has adopted the provision of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under FASB ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes the entity's status and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions for which a provision or liability for income taxes is necessary.

Management Review

The Company evaluated subsequent events through the date the financial statements were issued. The Company did not identify any material subsequent events requiring adjustment to or disclosure in its financial statements.

Segment Reporting

The Company follows ASC 280, Segment Reporting (including adoption of ASU 2023-07), which requires companies to disclose segment data based on how management makes decisions about allocating resources to segments and evaluating performance.

The Company conducts its business activities and reports financial results as a single reportable segment, brokerage services segment. Using the management approach, qualitative and quantitative criteria established by ASC 280, the Company is considered a single reportable segment.

The Company's Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM") is the Company's Chief Executive Officer. The CODM makes decisions about allocating resources and assessing performance in a manner consistent with the way the Company operates its business and presents their financial results. The nature of business and accounting policies of the brokerage services segment are the same as described in the organization and nature of business and summary of significant accounting policies. The measure of segment assets is reported on the Statement of Financial Condition as total assets. Segment financial information is identical to that presented in the accompanying financial statements. All expenses reported on the Statement of Operations are considered significant segment expenses and are regularly reviewed by the CODM.

Note 2 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, shall not exceed 15 to 1 and that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1.

Note 3 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company makes periodic payments to its sole owner, Carlos Lane, for his services as the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Compliance Officer. For the year ended June 30, 2026, the firm paid Mr. Lane $105,999.68. The Company paid $12,000 to Rachel Lane as an independent contractor for her services as Compliance Assistant.

Note 4 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company has evaluated commitments and contingencies in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification 450, Contingencies (ASC450) and Accounting Standards Codification 440 Commitments (ASC 440). Management has determined that no significant commitments and contingencies exist as of June 30, 2026.

Litigation

The Company from time to time may be involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of its normal course of business. Management believes that there were no claims or actions pending or threatened against the Company, the ultimate disposition of which would have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Risk Management

The Company maintains various forms of insurance that the Company's management believes are adequate to reduce the exposure to these risks to an acceptable level.

Subordinated Debt

The Company has no subordinated debt obligations.

Leases

The Company has no lease arrangements.

Legal Matters

The Company has no pending lawsuits.

Note 5 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date these financial statements were issued and determined no events occurred that would require adjustments to our disclosures in the financial statements.
