I'm always drawn to valuable innovations!

To the best of my knowledge, ONER Network is the first startup prepared to deploy the innovative concept of a Multi-Issuer Digital Dollar.

This is paired with a Regulatory-First approach and a Launch-Ready status.

Hi ██████████

You follow young companies, so here's one I've been watching.

A fintech team built shared infrastructure others can develop on, with a stable-dollar layer for smooth transfers. It's already working, and they've just opened a community round on WeFunder (a portal overseen by the SEC) — in the early "testing the waters" window, gauging interest with non-binding reservations.

Have a look: wefunder.com/oner

██████████, Glad to answer questions or arrange a quick founder meeting. Reply if it's worthwhile.
