Offering Statement

Respond to each question in each paragraph of this part. Set forth each question and any notes, but not any instructions thereto, in their entirety. If disclosure in response to any question is responsive to one or more other questions, it is not necessary to repeat the disclosure. If a question or series of questions is inapplicable or the response is available elsewhere in the Form, either state that it is inapplicable, include a cross-reference to the responsive disclosure, or omit the question or series of questions.

Be very careful and precise in answering all questions. Give full and complete answers so that they are not misleading under the circumstances involved. Do not discuss any future performance or other anticipated event unless you have a reasonable basis to believe that it will actually occur within the foreseeable future. If any answer requiring significant information is materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the Company, its management and principal shareholders may be liable to investors based on that information.

RISK FACTORS

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky: ⓘ

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. Investors should not invest any funds unless they can afford to lose the entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

the fact, however, that the offering is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, we do not pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

The company is partially dependent on third-party AI engines such as Open AI, Google, etc. Depending on how the AI industry changes or adapts, we will need to follow suit.

In connection with this offering, the founder of Syllaby has designated themselves as the lead investor who will sign documents and make certain decisions on behalf of all investors participating through the special purpose vehicle structure. This arrangement creates a significant conflict of interest because the founder simultaneously represents the interests of the company as its founder and operator, and the interests of investors as their designated representative. These interests may not always align and may at times be directly adverse to one another. For example, decisions regarding the timing and terms of future financings, acquisition offers, or other corporate transactions may benefit the company and its founders while being disadvantageous to investors. The founder will have access to material non-public information about the company that other investors do not possess, creating an information asymmetry. Unlike a traditional investment structure where an independent third party represents investor interests, there is no independent investor advocate to negotiate on behalf of crowdfunding investors or to challenge decisions that may favor the company over investors. Investors should be aware that they are relying on an individual who has inherent conflicts and whose primary loyalty is to the success of the company rather than to maximizing investor returns.

An investment in these securities is highly illiquid and should be considered a long-term investment. There is currently no public market for the securities, and we do not expect one to develop. The securities have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or any state securities laws and are subject to significant restrictions on transfer. Investors will be required to hold the securities for at least one year from the date of purchase, and even after that period, transfer will be permitted only in limited circumstances and in compliance with applicable securities laws. Investors should not expect to be able to liquidate their investment or access their capital for an indefinite period of time, and should be prepared to bear the financial risks of this investment until the company is sold, conducts an initial public offering, or engages in another liquidity event, which may never occur. The inability to sell or transfer the securities could result in investors losing their entire investment.

Regulatory impositions from governmental authorities might introduce stringent conditions and limitations that could negatively affect the demand for our products. Regulations concerning our products or services at federal, state, or local levels may potentially escalate our expenses and service pricing, adversely impact our revenue and profitability, and put the financial feasibility of our business at risk. Alterations to international, state, and local legislations pertaining to privacy, client data, integration of collaborators or their data usage, as well as modifications to payment systems or partnership requirements, could all lead to unfavorable consequences.

In no way should the content herein be considered as a guarantee of our future performance. Our capacity to generate revenue in the future is contingent on numerous factors, many of which are outside our control. These elements encompass market adoption rates for our products, regulatory changes, and broader economic trends. Given these factors, it is impossible for us to accurately predict our future revenues, if any.

Our product's market might be smaller than anticipated, potentially leading to lower-than-expected revenue generation. We cannot guarantee that the market for our product aligns with our expectations. Moreover, numerous factors may prevent us from attaining the desired unit cost, such as competitor pricing, general economic conditions, and market dynamics.

We could face substantial competition in our markets, including emerging competition from other businesses. Our competitors span across various companies in the United States and internationally. Many of these competitors are significantly larger, more established, have enduring customer and potential partner relationships, enjoy greater brand recognition, and possess or may have access to considerably more extensive financial and marketing resources. If we fail to effectively compete with these rivals, our business, financial situation, and operational results may suffer negative impacts.

You possess minimal historical financial information and operational outcomes to assess our business and its potential. Consequently, it is crucial to evaluate our prospects while acknowledging the nascent stage of our enterprise in a swiftly changing market.

Investors in this offering will hold a minority position in the company and will have no ability to control or significantly influence corporate decisions or the day-to-day operations of the business. All major decisions regarding the business, including decisions relating to financing, operations, strategic direction, mergers or acquisitions, and the timing and terms of any liquidity event, will be made by our management and board of directors, in which investors will have no representation or voting rights. The interests of management may differ from the interests of investors, and management may make decisions that investors disagree with or that adversely affect the value of their investment. Investors will have limited information rights and will not receive the same level of financial and operational information that would be available to investors in a publicly traded company. As a minority investor with no control or influence, you must rely entirely on the judgment and actions of management.

Syllaby, Inc was incorporated in 2023 and has a very limited operating history upon which investors can evaluate our business, financial performance, and prospects. We are an early-stage company with only eleven employees and face all the risks inherent in a new business venture. Our business model may not prove viable, and we may not achieve market acceptance for our products or services. The likelihood of our success must be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications, and delays frequently encountered in connection with the establishment of any business, the competitive environment in which we operate, and the continued development of our technology and services. There is no assurance that we will be successful in addressing these challenges, and failure to do so would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Our future success depends heavily on the continued services of our founders and key management personnel, as well as our ability to attract, retain, and motivate qualified personnel. With only eleven employees, we have a small team, and the loss of any key personnel could significantly disrupt our operations and strategic direction. We face intense competition for qualified individuals from numerous other companies, including larger, more established companies with greater financial resources. We do not maintain key person life insurance on any of our executives. If we are unable to attract and retain the necessary personnel to accomplish our business objectives, we may experience constraints that will adversely affect our ability to meet customer demand and to support our growth strategy. A significant portion of the proceeds from this offering will be used for staff hiring, reflecting our need to expand our team to execute our business plan.

We intend to use a substantial portion of the proceeds from this offering for staff hiring and affiliate and influencer marketing expansion, which reflects our plan to rapidly scale our operations. Rapid growth, if achieved, will place significant demands on our management, operational capacity, and financial resources. We will need to continue to improve our operational, financial, and management controls and our reporting systems and procedures. We will require significant capital expenditures and the allocation of valuable management resources to grow and change in these areas without undermining our corporate culture of rapid innovation and attention to customer satisfaction. If we fail to manage our anticipated growth effectively, our business, financial condition, and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected.

A significant portion of the proceeds from this offering will be allocated to affiliate and influencer marketing expansion, indicating that our business strategy relies substantially on these marketing channels to acquire customers and generate revenue. Our success depends on our ability to identify, recruit, and maintain relationships with effective affiliates and influencers who can promote our products or services to their audiences. These third parties are not under our direct control, and their actions or statements could damage our brand reputation. Changes in social media platform algorithms, policies, or fee structures could reduce the effectiveness of influencer marketing. Additionally, regulatory scrutiny of influencer marketing practices and disclosure requirements continues to evolve, and failure by our affiliates or influencers to comply with applicable regulations could result in regulatory action or reputational harm to our company. If we are unable to maintain effective affiliate and influencer relationships or if these marketing channels become less effective or more expensive, our ability to acquire customers and grow our business could be materially impaired.

We have incurred losses since our inception and expect to continue to incur losses for the foreseeable future. As an early-stage company incorporated in 2023, we have not yet achieved profitability and may never become profitable. We expect our operating expenses to increase as we expand our workforce, invest in marketing and customer acquisition, develop our technology platform, and scale our operations. Our ability to achieve profitability will depend on our ability to generate sufficient revenue to offset these increasing costs. Even if we do achieve profitability, we may not be able to sustain or increase profitability on a quarterly or annual basis. If we are unable to achieve and maintain profitability, the value of our company and your investment could decline significantly.

We will require substantial additional funding beyond this offering to fully develop our business, expand our operations, and achieve our strategic objectives. While we currently have some cash reserves, there can be no assurance that additional financing will be available on acceptable terms, or at all, when needed. Our ability to obtain additional financing will be subject to a number of factors, including market conditions, our operating performance, and investor sentiment. If we raise additional funds through the issuance of equity securities, our existing stockholders, including investors in this offering, will experience dilution of their ownership interests, and the per share value of our securities could decline. The terms of any future financing may be more favorable to new investors than to existing stockholders. If we are unable to obtain adequate financing when needed, we may be required to significantly curtail our operations, delay or abandon our development plans, or seek alternative arrangements, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business and prospects.

We operate in a highly competitive industry characterized by rapidly changing technology, evolving customer needs, and the frequent introduction of new products and services. We face competition from established companies with significantly greater financial, technical, marketing, and other resources than we possess. Many of our competitors have longer operating histories, larger customer bases, greater brand recognition, and more established relationships with customers and strategic partners. These competitors may be able to respond more quickly to new or emerging technologies and changes in customer requirements, devote greater resources to the development, promotion, and sale of their products, or adopt more aggressive pricing policies. We may also face competition from new market entrants. If we are unable to compete effectively, we could lose market share, experience pricing pressure, and suffer reduced revenue and profitability, which would materially harm our business and financial condition.

Our future success depends on market acceptance of our products and services and our ability to attract and retain customers. As an early-stage company with limited operating history, we have not yet demonstrated sustained market demand for our offerings. Customer preferences and market dynamics may change in ways that we do not anticipate or cannot address effectively. Potential customers may be reluctant to purchase products or services from a relatively unknown company with limited resources and an unproven track record. If we fail to achieve sufficient market acceptance, or if demand for our products or services fails to develop as anticipated, our revenue will be adversely affected and we may be unable to achieve or sustain profitability. Additionally, negative publicity or customer dissatisfaction, whether justified or not, could harm our reputation and reduce demand for our products and services.

Our business involves the collection, storage, processing, and transmission of customer data and other sensitive information. We are subject to numerous federal, state, and international laws and regulations relating to privacy, data protection, and information security, including regulations such as the General Data Protection Regulation in Europe, the California Consumer Privacy Act, and other evolving privacy laws. Compliance with these laws and regulations is complex, costly, and subject to change. Any failure or perceived failure to comply with applicable privacy and data protection laws and regulations could result in significant liability, government enforcement actions, regulatory fines, litigation, and reputational harm. Additionally, we face ongoing threats from cyberattacks, data breaches, and other security incidents. A significant security breach or unauthorized access to customer data could result in substantial costs, legal liability, loss of customer trust, and damage to our reputation, any of which could materially harm our business and financial condition.

Our success depends in part on our ability to protect our proprietary technology, trade secrets, and other intellectual property rights. We rely on a combination of trademark, copyright, and trade secret laws, as well as confidentiality agreements and other contractual protections, to protect our intellectual property. However, these measures may not provide adequate protection, and our intellectual property rights may be challenged, invalidated, or circumvented. We may not be able to detect unauthorized use of our intellectual property or take appropriate steps to enforce our rights. Additionally, we may face claims from third parties alleging that our products, services, or technology infringe upon their intellectual property rights. Defending against such claims can be costly and time-consuming, and an adverse outcome could require us to pay substantial damages, cease using certain technology, or obtain expensive licenses. Any of these outcomes could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and competitive position.

Our business operations depend on third-party technology platforms, cloud infrastructure providers, payment processors, social media platforms, and other service providers. Any disruption in service, change in terms of service, increase in fees, or termination of our relationship with these providers could adversely affect our ability to operate our business. We have limited control over these third parties and cannot guarantee that they will perform as expected or continue to provide services on acceptable terms. Technical failures, security breaches, or operational issues affecting these providers could result in service interruptions, data loss, or other disruptions to our business. Additionally, changes to the policies, algorithms, or fee structures of social media platforms or other distribution channels could reduce our ability to reach customers or increase our customer acquisition costs. Our dependence on these third-party providers exposes us to risks that could materially harm our business operations and financial performance.

Our business and financial performance may be adversely affected by general economic conditions and external events beyond our control, including economic recessions, inflation, changes in consumer spending patterns, pandemics, natural disasters, geopolitical instability, and other force majeure events. Economic downturns or uncertainty may cause customers to reduce or delay purchases, which could result in decreased revenue and harm our financial condition. External events such as public health crises, natural disasters, or geopolitical conflicts could disrupt our operations, supply chains, or workforce, or negatively impact our customers' businesses and their ability to purchase our products or services. As an early-stage company with limited financial resources, we may be particularly vulnerable to these external risks and may lack the resources to effectively respond to or recover from such events.

The securities being offered are Simple Agreements for Future Equity, commonly known as SAFEs. SAFEs are not traditional debt or equity securities. A SAFE does not represent a current equity stake in the company and does not accrue interest or have a maturity date. Instead, it represents a contractual right to receive equity in the company upon the occurrence of certain future events, such as a future equity financing, a change of control, or an initial public offering. There is no guarantee that any such triggering event will occur, and if no such event occurs, investors may never receive equity in the company or any return on their investment. The terms of conversion, including the valuation at which the SAFE converts and the type of equity received, will depend on the terms of future financing rounds or liquidity events, which are uncertain and beyond investors' control. The amount of equity investors ultimately receive, if any, may be significantly less than anticipated, and investors could lose their entire investment.

The Offering

USE OF FUNDS

9. What is the purpose of this offering?

The Company intends to use the net proceeds of this offering for working capital and general corporate purposes, which includes the specific items listed in Item 10 below. While the Company expects to use the net proceeds from the Offering in the manner described above, it cannot specify with certainty the particular uses of the net proceeds that it will receive from this Offering. Accordingly, the Company will have broad discretion in using these proceeds.

10. How does the issuer intend to use the proceeds of this offering? ⓘ

If we raise: $50,000

Use of Proceeds: If only the minimum target amount is raised, Syllaby expects to use proceeds approximately as follows: 42% Staff Hiring and Payroll, 39% Affiliate and Influencer Marketing, 7% Legal and Compliance Fees, 4.1% Investor Perks Fulfillment, and 7.9% Wefunder fee and related offering expenses. Management intends to allocate proceeds as described but may adjust priorities based on operational needs, market conditions, and the actual amount raised.

If we raise: $500,000

Use of Proceeds: If the maximum offering amount is raised, including any oversubscriptions, Syllaby expects to have a longer runway and increased headcount. The projected use of proceeds are as follows: 34% Staff Hiring and Payroll, 40% Affiliate and Influencer Marketing, 9% AI Platform Development and Features, 4% Legal and Compliance Fees, 5.1% Investor Perks Fulfillment, and 7.9% Wefunder fee and related offering expenses. Management expects to deploy excess proceeds toward platform growth and expanded marketing, but actual allocations may vary based on business conditions and opportunities at the time of deployment.

DELIVERY & CANCELLATIONS

11. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

Book Entry and Investment in the Co-Issuer. Investors will make their investments by investing in interests issued by one or more co-issuers, each of which is a special purpose vehicle ("SPV"). The SPV will invest all amounts it receives from investors in securities issued by the Company. Interests issued to investors by the SPV will be in book entry form. This means that the investor will not receive a certificate representing his or her investment. Each investment will be recorded in the books and records of the SPV. In addition, investors' interests in the investments will be recorded in each investor's "Portfolio" page on the Wefunder platform. All references in this Form C to an investor's investment in the Company (or similar phrases) should be interpreted to include investments in a SPV.

12. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

NOTE: Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these offering materials.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline.

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be canceled and the committed funds will be returned.

An investor's right to cancel. An investor may cancel his or her investment commitment at any time until 48 hours prior to the offering deadline.

If there is a material change to the terms of the offering or the information provided to the investor about the offering and/or the Company, the investor will be provided notice of the change and must re-confirm his or her investment commitment within five business days of receipt of the notice. If the investor does not reconfirm, he or she will receive notifications disclosing that the commitment was cancelled, the reason for the cancellation, and the refund amount that the investor is required to receive. If a material change occurs within five business days of the maximum number of days the offering is to remain open, the offering will be extended to allow for a period of five business days for the investor to reconfirm.

If the investor cancels his or her investment commitment during the period when cancellation is permissible, or does not reconfirm a commitment in the case of a material change to the investment, or the offering does not close, all of the investor's funds will be returned within five business days.

Within five business days of cancellation of an offering by the Company, the Company will give each investor notification of the cancellation, disclose the reason for the cancellation, identify the refund amount the investor will receive, and refund the investor's funds.

The Company's right to cancel. The Investment Agreement you will execute with us provides the Company the right to cancel for any reason before the offering deadline.

If the sum of the investment commitments from all investors does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the time of the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned.

Ownership and Capital Structure

THE OFFERING

13. Describe the terms of the securities being offered.

To view a copy of the SAFE you will purchase, please see Appendix B, Investor Contracts. The main terms of the SAFEs are provided below.

The SAFEs. We are offering securities in the form of a Simple Agreement for Future Equity ("SAFE"), which provides investors the right to Preferred Stock in the Company ("Preferred Stock"), when and if the Company sponsors an equity offering that involves Preferred Stock, on the standard terms offered to other investors.

Conversion to Preferred Equity. Based on our SAFEs, when we engage in an offering of equity interests involving Preferred Stock, investors will receive a number of shares of Preferred Stock calculated using the method that results in the greater number of Preferred Stock:

the total value of the investor's investment, divided by the price of Preferred Stock issued to new investors multiplied by the discount rate (90%), or if the valuation for the company is more than $13,000,000.00 (the "Valuation Cap"), the amount invested by the investor divided by the quotient of the Valuation Cap divided by the total amount of the Company's capitalization at that time.
For investors up to the first $200,000.00 of the securities, investors will receive a valuation cap of $11,700,000.00 and a discount rate of 90.0%. Wefunder VIP investors will be entitled to these terms for the entire duration of the offering, even if the threshold limit noted above is met.

Additional Terms of the Valuation Cap. For purposes of option (i) above, the Company's capitalization calculated as of immediately prior to the Equity Financing and (without double-counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis):

Includes all shares of Capital Stock issued and outstanding;
Includes all Converting Securities;
Includes all (i) issued and outstanding Options and (ii) Promised Options; and Includes the Unissued Option Pool, except that any increase to the Unissued Option Pool in connection with the Equity Financing shall only be included to the extent that the number of Promised Options exceeds the Unissued Option Pool prior to such increase.

Liquidity Events. If the Company has an initial public offering or is acquired by, merged with, or otherwise taken over by another company or new owners prior to investors in the SAFEs receiving Preferred Stock, investors will receive proceeds equal to the greater of (i) the Purchase Amount (the "Cash-Out Amount") or (ii) the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Liquidity Price (the "Conversion Amount")

Liquidity Priority. In a Liquidity Event or Dissolution Event, this Safe is intended to operate like standard nonparticipating Preferred Stock. The investor's right to receive its Cash-Out Amount is:

Junior to payment of outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, including contractual claims for payment and convertible promissory notes (to the extent such convertible promissory notes are not actually or notionally converted into Capital Stock);
On par with payments for other Safes and/or Preferred Stock, and if the applicable Proceeds are insufficient to permit full payments to the investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Stock, the applicable Proceeds will be distributed pro rata to the investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Stock in proportion to the full payments that would otherwise be due; and Senior to payments for Common Stock.

VIP BonusSyllaby will offer a discount to the normal terms listed in this Form C for all investments that are committed by investors who are part of Wefunder, Inc's VIP program. This means eligible Wefunder investors will receive a discount for any securities they purchased in this offering. For more specific details on the company's discount, please review the description of the terms above.

The discount is only valid until the offering closes. Investors eligible for the bonus will also receive priority if they are on a waitlist to invest and the company exceeds its maximum funding goal. They will be given the first opportunity to invest if space in the offering becomes available due to the cancellation or failure of previous investments.

Securities Issued by the SPVInstead of issuing its securities directly to investors, the Company has decided to issue its securities to the SPV, which will then issue interests in the SPV to investors. The SPV is formed concurrently with the filing of the Form C. Given this, the SPV does not have any financials to report. The SPV is managed by Wefunder Admin, LLC and is a co-issuer with the Company of the securities being offered in this offering. The Company's use of the SPV is intended to allow investors in the SPV to achieve the same economic exposure, voting power, and ability to assert State and Federal law rights, and receive the same disclosures, as if they had invested directly in the Company. While the issuer may be required to pay an annual administrative fee for the maintenance of the SPV, investors should note the Company's use of the SPV will not result in any additional fees being charged to investors.

The SPV has been organized and will be operated for the sole purpose of directly acquiring, holding and disposing of the Company's securities, will not borrow money and will use all of the proceeds from the sale of its securities solely to purchase a single class of securities of the Company. As a result, an investor investing in the Company through the SPV will have the same relationship to the Company's securities, in terms of number, denomination, type and rights, as if the investor invested directly in the Company.

Voting Rightsif the securities offered by the Company and those offered by the SPV have voting rights, those voting rights may be exercised by the investor or his or her proxy. The applicable proxy is the Lead Investor, if the Proxy (described below) is in effect.

Proxy to the Lead investorThe SPV securities have voting rights. With respect to those voting rights, the investor and his, her, or its transferees or assignees (collectively, the "investor"), through a power of attorney granted by investor in the Investor Agreement, has appointed or will appoint the Lead Investor as the investor's true and lawful proxy and attorney (the "Proxy") with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, on behalf of the investor to: (i) vote all securities related to the Company purchased in an offering hosted by Wefunder Portal, and (ii) execute, in connection with such voting power, any instrument or document that the Lead Investor determines is necessary and appropriate in the exercise of his or her authority. Such Proxy will be irrevocable by the investor unless and until a successor lead investor ("Replacement Lead Investor") takes the place of the Lead Investor. Upon notice that a Replacement Lead Investor has taken the place of the Lead Investor, the investor will have five (5) calendar days to revoke the Proxy. If the Proxy is not revoked within the 5-day time period, it shall remain in effect.

Restriction on TransferabilityThe SPV securities are subject to restrictions on transfer, as set forth in the Subscription Agreement and the Limited Liability Company Agreement of Wefunder SPV, LLC, and may not be transferred without the prior approval of the Company, on behalf of the SPV.

14. Do the securities offered have voting rights?

☐ Yes
☒ No

15. Are there any limitations on any voting or other rights identified above?

See the above description of the Proxy to the Lead Investor.

16. How may the terms of the securities being offered be modified?

Any provision of this Safe may be amended, waived or modified by written consent of the Company and either:

- i. the Investor or
- ii. the majority-in-interest of all then-outstanding Safes with the same "Post-Money Valuation Cap" and "Discount Rate" as this Safe (and Safes lacking one or both of such terms will be considered to be the same with respect to such term(s)), provided that with respect to clause (ii):
 - A. the Purchase Amount may not be amended, waived or modified in this manner;
 - B. the consent of the Investor and each holder of such Safes must be solicited (even if not obtained); and
 - C. such amendment, waiver or modification treats all such holders in the same manner. "Majority-in-interest" refers to the holders of the applicable group of Safes whose Safes have a total Purchase Amount greater than 50% of the total Purchase Amount of all of such applicable group of Safes.

Pursuant to authorization in the Investor Agreement between each Investor and Wefunder Portal, Wefunder Portal is authorized to take the following actions with respect to the investment contract between the Company and an investor:

- A. Wefunder Portal may amend the terms of an investment contract, provided that the amended terms are more favorable to the investor than the original terms; and
- B. Wefunder Portal may reduce the amount of an investor's investment if the reason for the reduction is that the Company's offering is oversubscribed.

Restrictions on Transfer of the Securities Being Offered:

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one year period beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

- 1. to the issuer;
- 2. to an accredited investor;
- 3. as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or
- 4. to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

NOTE: The term "accredited investor" means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

The term "member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent" includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes adoptive relationships. The term "spousal equivalent" means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

Description of Issuer's Securities

17. What other securities or classes of securities of the issuer are outstanding? Describe the material terms of any other outstanding securities or classes of securities of the issuer.

Class of Security	Authorized	Outstanding	Voting rights
Common Stock	14800000	12750000	☒
Class of Security	Total Pool
Warrants	None
Options	671053

Describe any other rights:

The Company has not yet authorized Preferred Stock, which investors in the SAFE (if converted) may receive. Preferred Stock has liquidation preference over common stock.

18. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of security identified above?

The holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company could limit the Investor's rights in a material way. For example, those interest holders could vote to change the terms of the agreements governing the Company's operations or cause the Company to engage in additional offerings (including potentially a public offering).

These changes could result in further limitations on the voting rights the Investor will have as an owner of equity in the Company, for example by diluting those rights or limiting them to certain types of events or consents.

To the extent applicable, in cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new awards are granted under our equity compensation plans, an Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro rata portion of the Company represented by the Investor's securities will decrease, which could also diminish the Investor's voting and/or economic rights. In addition, as discussed above, if a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional equity, an Investor's interest will typically also be diluted.

Based on the risk that an Investor's rights could be limited, diluted or otherwise qualified, the Investor could lose all or part of his or her investment in the securities in this offering, and may never see positive returns.

Additional risks related to the rights of other security holders are discussed below, in Question 20.

19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

No.

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders identified in Question 6 above affect the purchasers of the securities being offered?

As holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company, the shareholders may make decisions with which the Investor disagrees, or that negatively affect the value of the Investor's securities in the Company, and the Investor will have no recourse to change these decisions. The Investor's interests may conflict with those of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the Company will develop in a way that is optimal for or advantageous to the Investor.

For example, the shareholders may change the terms of the articles of incorporation for the company, change the terms of securities issued by the Company, change the management of the Company, and even force out minority holders of securities. The shareholders may make changes that affect the tax treatment of the Company in ways that are unfavorable to you but favorable to them. They may also vote to engage in new offerings and/or to register certain of the Company's securities in a way that negatively affects the value of the securities the Investor owns. Other holders of securities of the Company may also have access to more information than the Investor, leaving the Investor at a disadvantage with respect to any decisions regarding the securities he or she owns.

The shareholders have the right to redeem their securities at any time. Shareholders could decide to force the Company to redeem their securities at a time that is not favorable to the Investor and is damaging to the Company. Investors' exit may affect the value of the Company and/or its viability.

In cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new awards are granted under our equity compensation plans, an Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro rata portion of the Company represented by the Investor's securities will decrease, which could also diminish the Investor's voting and/or economic rights. In addition, as discussed above, if a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional stock, an Investor's interest will typically also be diluted.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The offering price for the securities offered pursuant to this Form C has been determined arbitrarily by the Company, and does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Company's book value, assets, earnings or other generally accepted valuation criteria. In determining the offering price, the Company did not employ investment banking firms or other outside organizations to make an independent appraisal or evaluation. Accordingly, the offering price should not be considered to be indicative of the actual value of the securities offered hereby.

The initial amount invested in a SAFE is determined by the investor, and we do not guarantee that the SAFE will be converted into any particular number of shares of Preferred Stock. As discussed in Question 13, when we engage in an offering of equity interests involving Preferred Stock, investors may receive a number of shares of Preferred Stock calculated as either (i) the total value of the investor's investment, divided by the price of the Preferred Stock being issued to new investors, or (ii) if the valuation for the company is more than the Valuation Cap, the amount invested divided by the quotient of (a) the Valuation Cap divided by (b) the total amount of the Company's capitalization at that time.

Because there will likely be no public market for our securities prior to an initial public offering or similar liquidity event, the price of the Preferred Stock that investors will receive, and/or the total value of the Company's capitalization, will be determined by our board of directors. Among the factors we may consider in determining the price of Preferred Stock are prevailing market conditions, our financial information, market valuations of other companies that we believe to be comparable to us, estimates of our business potential, the present state of our development and other factors deemed relevant.

In the future, we will perform valuations of our stock (including both common stock and Preferred Stock) that take into account, as applicable, factors such as the following:

- unrelated third party valuations;
- the price at which we sell other securities in light of the relative rights, preferences and privileges of those securities;
- our results of operations, financial position and capital resources;
- current business conditions and projections;
- the marketability or lack thereof of the securities;
- the hiring of key personnel and the experience of our management;
- the introduction of new products;
- the risk inherent in the development and expansion of our products;
- our stage of development and material risks related to our business;
- the likelihood of achieving a liquidity event, such as an initial public offering or a sale of our company given the prevailing market conditions and the nature and history of our business;
- industry trends and competitive environment;
- trends in consumer spending, including consumer confidence;
- overall economic indicators, including gross domestic product, employment, inflation and interest rates; and
- the general economic outlook.

We will analyze factors such as those described above using a combination of financial and market-based methodologies to determine our business enterprise value. For example, we may use methodologies that assume that businesses operating in the same industry will share similar characteristics and that the Company's value will correlate to those characteristics, and/or methodologies that compare transactions in similar securities issued by us that were conducted in the market.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

An Investor in the Company will likely hold a minority position in the Company, and thus be limited as to its ability to control or influence the governance and operations of the Company.

The marketability and value of the Investor's interest in the Company will depend upon many factors outside the control of the Investor. The Company will be managed by its officers and be governed in accordance with the strategic direction and decision-making of its Board Of Directors, and the Investor will have no independent right to name or remove an officer or member of the Board Of Directors of the Company.

Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction, but such opportunity cannot be assured.

The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment, or the lack of an opportunity to make such a follow-on investment, may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions, including additional issuances of securities, issuer repurchases of securities, a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or transactions with related parties?

Additional issuances of securities. Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction, but such opportunity cannot be assured. The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment, or the lack of an opportunity to make such a follow-on investment, may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

Issuer repurchases of securities. The Company may have authority to repurchase its securities from shareholders, which may serve to decrease any liquidity in the market for such securities, decrease the percentage interests held by other similarly situated investors to the Investor, and create pressure on the Investor to sell its securities to the Company concurrently.

A sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer. As a minority owner of the Company, the Investor will have limited or no ability to influence a potential sale of the Company or a substantial portion of its assets. Thus, the Investor will rely upon the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company to manage the Company so as to maximize value for shareholders. Accordingly, the success of the Investor's investment in the Company will depend in large part upon the skill and expertise of the executive management of the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company. If the Board Of Directors of the Company authorizes a sale of all or a part of the Company, or a disposition of a substantial portion of the Company's assets, there can be no guarantee that the value received by the Investor, together with the fair market estimate of the value remaining in the Company, will be equal to or exceed the value of the Investor's initial investment in the Company.

Transactions with related parties. The Investor should be aware that there will be occasions when the Company may encounter potential conflicts of interest in its operations. On any issue involving conflicts of interest, the executive management and Board of Directors of the Company will be guided by their good faith judgement as to the Company's best interests. The Company may engage in transactions with affiliates, subsidiaries or other related parties, which may be on terms which are not arm's-length, but will be in all cases consistent with the duties of the management of the Company to its shareholders. By acquiring an interest in the Company, the Investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential conflicts of interest and to have waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from the existence of any such conflict of interest.

24. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

Loan Amount: $175,000.00 Maturity date: 1/12/2027
Convertible Note Amount: $50,000.00
Convertible Note Amount: $25,000.00
Convertible Note Amount: $25,000.00
Convertible Note Amount: $25,000.00
Convertible Note Amount: $30,000.00

INSTRUCTION TO QUESTION 24: name the creditor, amount owed, interest rate, maturity date, and any other material terms.

25. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?

26. Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12- month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest: ⓘ

1. any director or officer of the issuer;

2. any person who is, as of the most recent practicable date, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power;

3. if the issuer was incorporated or organized within the past three years, any promoter of the issuer;

4. or any immediate family member of any of the foregoing persons.

☐ Yes

☒ No

For each transaction specify the person, relationship to issuer, nature of interest in transaction, and amount of interest.

The Company had a loan outstanding to a related party (SocialtyPro), an entity owned by two co-founders, Ehsan Gharadjedaghi and Paul (Austin) Armstrong. The amount was $15,000 and is included in the total of short-term loans on the Company's balance sheet which total $104,645 at December 31, 2025. This loan was repaid in full in March 2026.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE ISSUER

27. Does the issuer have an operating history?

Yes

28. Describe the financial condition of the issuer, including, to the extent material, liquidity, capital resources and historical results of operations. ⓘ

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview of the Business and Financial Condition

Syllaby, Inc. is an AI-powered video creation platform that enables users to create viral videos using AI avatars, faceless video technology, and automated content generation. The platform offers tools for social media content creation, scheduling, and analytics across multiple AI models including Google Veo, ByteDance Seedance, Kling, and Grok Imagine.

We are an early-stage company and have incurred operating losses and negative cash flows from operations since inception. We expect to continue to incur operating losses in the near term.

As of September, 2026, we had cash and cash equivalents of approximately $72,000.

Our ability to continue operations is dependent on managing our expenses and, if necessary, obtaining additional financing.

This discussion should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and related notes included in this offering statement.

Business and Operating Uncertainty

Our business operates in an environment subject to various risks, uncertainties, and changing conditions, which makes it difficult to evaluate our business, financial condition, and prospects and may limit the comparability of our results of operations from period to period.

Financial Condition

As of December 31, 2025, our total assets were $48,5367 and our current and non-current liabilities, as reflected in available financial statement fields, were $683,420.

Our financial statements reflect an early-stage company with limited operating history. Investors should not place undue reliance on historical financial information given the company's limited operating history and the likelihood that future results will differ from historical results.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2025, we had cash and cash equivalents of approximately $48,537.

Based on our current operations, we have a monthly net cash burn of approximately $1,500.

Our monthly net cash burn or profit may vary significantly from month to month due to the timing of receipts and expenditures and other short-term factors. As a result, period-to-period comparisons may not be meaningful.

Based on our current plan, we believe to have sufficient cash to fund operations for at least the next 12 months.

Our historical operations have been funded primarily through external financing.

Liquidity Assumptions

Our assessment of our liquidity and ability to fund operations is not a projection and is based on current assumptions regarding operating expenses, cash requirements, and capital needs. These assumptions may change, and actual results may differ materially due to changes in operating conditions, timing of receipts and payments, and other factors.

Dependence on Additional Financing

There can be no assurance that additional financing will be available on acceptable terms, or at all. If we are unable to raise additional capital when needed, we may be required to materially reduce or suspend operations.

Indebtedness and Capital Structure

As of the date of this offering statement, we had total outstanding indebtedness of approximately $330,000 consisting of convertible notes and loans. The material terms of such indebtedness are described in Item 24 of this Form C. (For the avoidance of doubt, SAFEs are not treated as indebtedness.)

During the past three years, we have conducted exempt offerings, resulting in the issuance of securities in aggregate amounts of approximately $388,995 . The material terms of such offerings are described in Item 25 of this Form C

Known Trends, Events, and Uncertainties

Management is aware of the following trends, events, or uncertainties that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations over the next 12 months:

Lower pricing or higher discounts

Higher costs (suppliers, wages, fees, etc.)

Regulatory or legal costs

Platform or partner changes

These factors could increase operating costs, reduce liquidity, or require us to raise additional capital earlier than anticipated.

Other than the matters described above, management is not currently aware of any known trends, events, or uncertainties that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations.

The absence of a discussion of any particular trend, event, or uncertainty should not be interpreted to mean that such matters do not exist; rather, it reflects management's judgment based on information currently available.

Changes Since the Date of the Financial Statements

Since the date of the financial statements included in this offering statement, there were material changes in our operations and financial condition, including a material decrease in revenue and a material increase in losses or cash burn.

Impact of This Offering

The proceeds from this offering are expected to be used to toward staff hiring, affiliate & influencer marketing expansion, and legal and fundraising costs. The timing and extent of our use of proceeds will depend on the amount of proceeds raised and future operating conditions. Additional detail regarding our planned use of proceeds is provided in Item 10 of this Form C.

There can be no assurance that the proceeds of this offering will be sufficient to fund our operations or achieve our business objectives.

Certain information relevant to understanding our financial condition and liquidity is presented elsewhere in this offering statement, including in the financial statements, related notes, and the sections describing indebtedness and prior financings.

Forward-Looking Statements

This discussion contains forward-looking statements that are based on management's current expectations and assumptions. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these statements.

If you would have answered "Yes" to any of these questions had the conviction, order, judgment, decree, suspension, expulsion or bar occurred or been issued after May 16, 2016, then you are NOT eligible to rely on this exemption under Section 4(p)(6) of the Securities Act.

OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

31. In addition to the information expressly required to be included in this Form, include: Ⓢ

- (1) any other material information presented to investors; and

- (2) such further material information, if any, as may be necessary to make the required statements, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

The Lead Investor. As described above, each Investor that has entered into the Investor Agreement will grant a power of attorney to make voting decisions on behalf of that Investor to the Lead Investor (the "Proxy"). The Proxy is irrevocable unless and until a Successor Lead Investor takes the place of the Lead Investor, in which case, the Investor has a five (5) calendar day period to revoke the Proxy. Pursuant to the Proxy, the Lead Investor or his or her successor will make voting decisions and take any other actions in connection with the voting on Investors' behalf.

The Lead Investor is an individual that is chosen to act in the role of Lead Investor on behalf of Investors that have a Proxy in effect. The Lead Investor will be chosen by the Company and approved by Wefunder Inc. and the identity of the initial Lead Investor will be disclosed to Investors before Investors make a final investment decision to purchase the securities related to the Company.

The Lead Investor can quit at any time or can be removed by Wefunder Inc. for cause or pursuant to a vote of investors as detailed in the Lead Investor Agreement. In the event the Lead Investor quits or is removed, the Company will choose a Successor Lead Investor who must be approved by Wefunder Inc. The identity of the Successor Lead Investor will be disclosed to Investors, and those that have a Proxy in effect can choose to either leave such Proxy in place or revoke such Proxy during a 5-day period beginning with notice of the replacement of the Lead Investor.

The Lead Investor will not receive any compensation for his or her services to the SPV. The Lead Investor may receive compensation if, in the future, Wefunder Advisors LLC forms a fund ("Fund") for accredited investors for the purpose of investing in a non-Regulation Crowdfunding offering of the Company. In such circumstances, the Lead Investor may act as a portfolio manager for that Fund (and as a supervised person of Wefunder Advisors) and may be compensated through that role.

Although the Lead Investor may act in multiple roles with respect to the Company's offerings and may potentially be compensated for some of its services, the Lead Investor's goal is to maximize the value of the Company and therefore maximize the value of securities issued by or related to the Company. As a result, the Lead Investor's interests should always be aligned with those of Investors. It is, however, possible that in some limited circumstances the Lead Investor's interests could diverge from the interests of Investors, as discussed in section 8 above.

Investors that wish to purchase securities related to the Company through Wefunder Portal must agree to give the Proxy described above to the Lead Investor, provided that if the Lead Investor is replaced, the Investor will have a 5-day period during which he or she may revoke the Proxy. If the Proxy is not revoked during this 5-day period, it will remain in effect.

Tax Filings. In order to complete necessary tax filings, the SPV is required to include information about each investor who holds an interest in the SPV, including each investor's taxpayer identification number ("TIN") (e.g., social security number or employer identification number). To the extent they have not already done so, each investor will be required to provide their TIN within the earlier of (i) two (2) years of making their investment or (ii) twenty (20) days prior to the date of any distribution from the SPV. If an investor does not provide their TIN within this time, the SPV reserves the right to withhold from any proceeds otherwise payable to the investor an amount necessary for the SPV to satisfy its tax withholding obligations as well as the SPV's reasonable estimation of any penalties that may be charged by the IRS or other relevant authority as a result of the investor's failure to provide their TIN. If applicable, the Company may also be required to pay Wefunder certain fees for the preparation of tax filings. Such fees and the Company's obligation to deliver required tax documents are further specified in the related Tax Services Agreement ("TSA").

Investors should carefully review the terms of the SPV Subscription Agreement for additional information about tax filings.

Potential Dissolution of the SPV. The Company has agreed that it will pay an administrative fee and / or certain tax fees to Wefunder, in addition to delivering required tax information in the manner prescribed by the TSA, where applicable. Failure to pay such fees or provide Wefunder with required tax information could result in the dissolution of the SPV (an "SPV Dissolution Event"). Subsequent to an SPV Dissolution Event, the securities held by the SPV would be distributed directly and proportionally to the individual investors. This could create administrative complexities, as investors would need to manage the securities themselves rather than having them held and administered by the SPV. Additionally, the unplanned distribution of securities may not align with investors' intended investment strategy or asset allocation.

Upon an SPV Dissolution Event, the Investor hereby consents to and agrees to accept direct assignment of the SPV's rights and obligations under any investment agreements between the SPV and the Company that is located in the Form C or C/A offering materials. The Investor acknowledges they will be bound by all terms and conditions of such agreements as if they were an original party thereto.

ONGOING REPORTING

32. The issuer will file a report electronically with the Securities & Exchange Commission annually and post the report on its website, no later than:
120 days after the end of each fiscal year covered by the report.

33. Once posted, the annual report may be found on the issuer's website at:

<https://syllaby.io/invest>

The issuer must continue to comply with the ongoing reporting requirements until:

- 1. the issuer is required to file reports under Exchange Act Sections 13(a) or 15(d);
- 2. the issuer has filed at least one annual report and has fewer than 300 holders of record;
- 3. the issuer has filed at least three annual reports and has total assets that do not exceed $10 million; or
- 4. the issuer or another party purchases or repurchases all of the securities issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(6), including any payment in full of debt securities or any complete redemption of redeemable securities; or the issuer liquidates or dissolves in accordance with state law.
