Offering Statement

Respond to each question in each paragraph of this part. Set forth each question and any notes, but not any instructions thereto, in their entirety. If disclosure in response to any question is responsive to one or more other questions, it is not necessary to repeat the disclosure. If a question or series of questions is inapplicable or the response is available elsewhere in the Form, either state that it is inapplicable, include a cross-reference to the responsive disclosure, or omit the question or series of questions.

Be very careful and precise in answering all questions. Give full and complete answers so that they are not misleading under the circumstances involved. Do not discuss any future performance or other anticipated event unless you have a reasonable basis to believe that it will actually occur within the foreseeable future. If any answer requiring significant information is materially inaccurate, incomplete or misleading, the Company, its management and principal shareholders may be liable to investors based on that information.

RISK FACTORS

8. Discuss the material factors that make an investment in the issuer speculative or risky:

A crowdfunding investment involves risk. Investors should not invest any funds unless they can afford to lose the entire investment.

In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the issuer and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. These securities have not been recommended or approved by any federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority. Furthermore, these authorities have not passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of this document.

The U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission does not pass upon the merits of any securities offered or the terms of the offering, nor does it pass upon the accuracy or completeness of any offering document or literature.

These securities are offered under an exemption from registration; however, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

Reid Anderson is a part-time officer. As such, it is likely that the company will not make the same progress as it would if that were not the case.

Big D Energy Drink LLC was incorporated in February 2024 and has a very limited operating history upon which investors can evaluate our business, financial performance, and prospects. We are an early-stage company with only one employee and face all the risks inherent in a new business venture. We have not yet demonstrated that we can successfully manufacture, market, and sell our products at scale, achieve sustainable revenue growth, or operate profitably. Our business model remains largely unproven, and we may encounter unforeseen expenses, difficulties, complications, and delays as we attempt to grow our operations. The likelihood of our success must be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications, and delays frequently encountered by early-stage companies in competitive markets. If we are unable to successfully address these challenges, our business will fail and investors will lose their entire investment.

Big D Energy Drink LLC currently has only one employee, and our entire business operation depends on the continued services, efforts, and abilities of this individual. The loss of this key person due to death, disability, resignation, or any other reason would have a severe adverse effect on our business and could result in the failure of the company. We have no employment agreements that would prevent this individual from leaving, and we do not maintain key person life insurance that would provide financial resources to help the company continue operations in the event of such a loss. Given our early stage and limited resources, we may face significant difficulties in attracting and retaining additional qualified personnel to replace or supplement this individual.

may face significant difficulties in attracting and retaining additional qualified personnel to replace or supplement the individual. Our dependence on a single person creates substantial risk for investors, as there is no management team or organizational depth to ensure business continuity.

The Company may never receive a future equity financing or elect to convert the Securities upon such future financing. In addition, the Company may never undergo a liquidity event such as a sale of the Company or an IPO. If neither the conversion of the Securities nor a liquidity event occurs, the Purchasers could be left holding the Securities in perpetuity. The Securities have numerous transfer restrictions and will likely be highly illiquid, with no secondary market on which to sell them. The Securities are not equity interests, have no ownership rights, have no rights to the Company's assets or profits and have no voting rights or ability to direct the Company or its actions.

Big D Energy Drink has adopted a business strategy centered on provocative, politically-themed branding with product names and messaging designed to appeal to conservative-leaning consumers. While this approach may resonate with our target demographic, it inherently limits our addressable market by alienating consumers who do not share these political viewpoints or who prefer to avoid politically-charged products. This polarizing positioning may prevent us from achieving the broad market penetration typically necessary for success in the highly competitive beverage industry. Additionally, our provocative branding exposes us to risks of public backlash, social media controversies, boycotts, and negative publicity that could damage our reputation and sales. Retailers may be reluctant to carry our products due to concerns about offending customers or creating controversy in their stores. Changes in the political climate or public sentiment could rapidly diminish the appeal of our brand positioning. If our branding strategy fails to generate sufficient customer loyalty within our target market, or if the controversy associated with our brand outweighs its appeal, our business will suffer and may fail entirely.

Our business model relies significantly on TikTok Shop as a primary distribution channel and on social media platforms, particularly TikTok and Instagram, for marketing and customer acquisition. This dependence on third-party platforms creates substantial risks that are largely outside our control. TikTok faces ongoing regulatory scrutiny in the United States, including potential bans or restrictions on its operations, which could eliminate or severely limit our access to TikTok Shop as a sales channel and TikTok as a marketing platform. Even absent regulatory action, these platforms can change their algorithms, policies, fee structures, or terms of service at any time in ways that could reduce our visibility, increase our costs, or terminate our access entirely. Platform outages, technical issues, or changes in user behavior and engagement could significantly impact our ability to reach customers and generate sales. We have limited ability to reach our customer base through alternative channels, and the loss of access to these platforms, or significant adverse changes to how they operate, would have a material adverse effect on our revenue and business prospects.

The energy drink market is highly competitive and dominated by large, well-established brands such as Red Bull, Monster Energy, and Rockstar, as well as offerings from major beverage companies like Coca-Cola and PepsiCo. These competitors have substantial financial resources, established distribution networks, strong brand recognition, extensive marketing budgets, and long-standing relationships with retailers and distributors. They can leverage economies of scale in production, distribution, and marketing that we cannot match. These competitors can also respond to market changes more quickly, invest heavily in product innovation, and sustain extended periods of competitive pricing or promotional activity that we cannot afford. As a small, early-stage company with limited resources and no established distribution beyond online channels, we may be unable to compete effectively for shelf space, consumer attention, and market share. Our politically-themed positioning, while differentiated, may not be sufficient to overcome the significant competitive disadvantages we face. If we cannot successfully compete against these established players, our business will not succeed.

We do not manufacture our own products and instead rely on third-party co-packers and suppliers for the production of our energy drinks, as well as for ingredients, packaging materials, and other components. Our business is therefore vulnerable to disruptions in our supply chain, including the inability of our suppliers to deliver materials or finished products on time, in sufficient quantities, or at acceptable quality levels. We may have limited or no alternative sources for certain ingredients or production capacity, and qualifying new suppliers can be time-consuming and expensive. Supply chain disruptions due to natural disasters, pandemics, geopolitical events, transportation challenges, labor disputes, or financial difficulties experienced by our suppliers could result in product shortages, delays in fulfilling customer orders, increased costs, or quality control issues. We have limited bargaining power with suppliers due to our small order volumes, and we may face unfavorable pricing or terms. Any significant disruption in our supply chain could harm our reputation, result in lost sales, and materially adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Big D Energy Drink LLC has very limited cash reserves and is not currently profitable. We have incurred losses since our inception and expect to continue incurring losses for the foreseeable future as we invest in product development, inventory, marketing, and building our distribution capabilities. Our limited cash position means we have minimal financial cushion to absorb unexpected expenses, market downturns, or operational setbacks. We may be unable to pay our suppliers, fulfill customer orders, or meet other obligations as they come due. Even if we raise the maximum amount in this offering, the proceeds will be used primarily for immediate operating needs, debt reduction, and working capital, with limited funds available for growth initiatives. Our ability to achieve profitability depends on numerous factors, many of which are outside our control, including our ability to generate sufficient sales volume, manage costs, and achieve favorable pricing from suppliers and customers. There is no assurance that we will ever achieve profitability, and our limited financial resources create substantial risk that we may be forced to cease operations.

The proceeds from this offering, even at the maximum amount, will not be sufficient to fully fund our business plan and achieve our long-term objectives. We have disclosed a broader capital objective of up to two million dollars, indicating that we will need to raise substantial additional funding beyond this initial offering to support product development, expand distribution, scale marketing efforts, and achieve sustainable operations. We have no commitments or arrangements for additional financing, and there can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain additional capital on acceptable terms, or at all. Our ability to raise additional funds will depend on factors including our operating performance, market conditions, investor appetite for early-stage beverage companies, and competition for capital. If we are unable to obtain sufficient additional financing when needed, we will be forced to delay, reduce, or eliminate planned activities, which could include product launches, marketing initiatives, or operational improvements. The inability to secure adequate financing could ultimately require us to cease operations entirely, resulting in a total loss of investment for our investors.

We will need to raise additional capital through future equity financings to fund our operations and growth. Each time we issue additional equity securities, whether through SAFEs, convertible notes, preferred stock, or common stock, the ownership percentage of existing investors will be diluted. Given our early stage and capital needs, we expect to conduct multiple future financing rounds, and the cumulative dilution to investors in this offering could be substantial. Future investors may negotiate terms that are more favorable than those offered in this offering, including lower valuation caps, higher discounts, or preferential rights. The SAFE securities being offered provide limited anti-dilution protection, and investors should expect that their ownership percentage will decrease significantly over time. In addition, if we are unable to achieve milestones that increase our valuation, future financings may occur at valuations that result in even greater dilution. There is no limit on the amount of securities we may issue in the future, and investors have no preemptive rights to participate in future offerings to maintain their ownership percentage.

As a manufacturer and seller of energy drinks, we are subject to extensive regulation by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and other federal, state, and local regulatory authorities. Our products must comply with the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and related regulations governing food safety, labeling, nutritional content, ingredient disclosure, and health claims. Energy drinks face particular scrutiny due to their caffeine content and marketing, especially regarding claims about energy, performance, or health benefits. We must ensure that our product formulations, manufacturing processes, labeling, and marketing materials comply with all applicable regulations, which can be complex and subject to change. Regulatory authorities may determine that our products or labeling are not in compliance, which could require us to reformulate products, change packaging, modify marketing claims, recall products, or cease sales entirely. We may also face regulatory action, fines, or penalties if we are round to be in violation of applicable laws. Changes in regulations, such as new restrictions on caffeine content, ingredient prohibitions, or labeling requirements, could require costly reformulations or operational changes. Any regulatory challenges or compliance failures could result in significant costs, reputational harm, and disruption to our business.

Our business strategy is built around distinctive, provocative brand names and product names that are central to our market positioning. We rely on trademark protection and trade dress to protect our brand identity, but we may face challenges in securing or enforcing these rights. Our product names and branding may be considered offensive or controversial by trademark examiners, which could result in refusal of trademark registration or limitations on the scope of protection. Third parties may claim that our brand names, product names, or marketing materials infringe their intellectual property rights, which could result in costly litigation, require us to rebrand products, or prevent us from using certain names or marketing approaches. Given our limited resources, we may be unable to adequately defend our intellectual property rights or defend against claims of infringement. We may also face challenges from competitors who attempt to copy or create confusingly similar branding to capitalize on any market recognition we achieve. The loss of our ability to use our current brand names, or the costs associated with defending or enforcing our intellectual property rights, could have a material adverse effect on our business.

Our business depends on consumer discretionary spending, as energy drinks are not essential products. Economic downturns, recessions, inflation, rising interest rates, or other adverse economic conditions could cause consumers to reduce spending on non-essential items, including premium or specialty beverages. Our products may be perceived as premium-priced compared to mainstream energy drinks, making them more vulnerable to reduced demand during economic stress. Additionally, our target customer base may be particularly affected by economic conditions that impact their purchasing power. Consumer confidence, employment levels, and disposable income all affect demand for our products, and we have no control over these macroeconomic factors. A significant or prolonged economic downturn could materially reduce our sales and revenue, impair our ability to achieve profitability, and jeopardize our ability to continue operations.

The securities being offered are Simple Agreements for Future Equity (SAFEs), which are not traditional debt or equity securities. SAFEs have no maturity date and do not require the company to repay the investment amount or convert the SAFE into equity at any specific time. Your SAFE will convert into equity only upon the occurrence of specific triggering events, such as a future priced equity financing or a liquidity event, which may never occur. If Big D Energy Drink LLC does not raise a future priced equity round or experience a liquidity event, your SAFE may never convert into equity, and you may never realize any return on your investment. The terms of conversion, including the type and amount of securities you will receive, depend on the terms of future financing rounds, which are uncertain and will be negotiated at the company's discretion. The valuation cap and discount rate in your SAFE provide some downside protection, but there is no guarantee that the conversion will occur at terms favorable to you or that the equity you receive will have any value. The lack of a maturity date means the company has no obligation to return your capital, and you may be locked into this investment indefinitely with no ability to force conversion or redemption.

There is no public market for the SAFE securities being offered, and we do not expect one to develop. The securities have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or any state securities laws, and they may not be sold or transferred except in compliance with registration requirements or pursuant to an available exemption. Even if you are legally permitted to sell your securities, there is no established secondary market and it is unlikely that you will be able to find a buyer. You should be prepared to hold your investment for an indefinite period of time, potentially for many years or until the company experiences a liquidity event such as an acquisition or public offering, which may never occur. Federal securities laws impose a minimum one-year holding period before these securities can be resold, even if an exemption from registration is available. The illiquid nature of this investment means you will be unable to access your capital when needed, and you should only invest funds that you can afford to lose and do not need for other purposes. The lack of liquidity substantially increases the risk of this investment.

The founder of Big D Energy Drink LLC has designated themselves as the lead investor who will sign agreements and make decisions on behalf of all investors in the special purpose vehicle (SPV) structure. This arrangement creates a significant conflict of interest because the founder simultaneously represents the interests of the company and the interests of the investors, which may not always align. As the company's operator, the founder has incentives to make decisions that benefit the company's operations, growth, or their own position, even if those decisions are not in the best interests of investors. The founder will have access to material non-public information about the company's performance, challenges, and prospects that other investors do not have, creating an information asymmetry that could be used to the founder's advantage. There is no independent third-party investor advocate or representative to protect the interests of crowdfunding investors or to provide checks and balances on the founder's decision-making authority. Investors will have no ability to remove the founder as lead investor or to challenge decisions made on their behalf. This structure concentrates significant power in the hands of the founder and eliminates the independent oversight that would typically protect investor interests in similar investment arrangements.

The Offering

USE OF FUNDS

9. What is the purpose of this offering?

The Company intends to use the net proceeds of this offering for working capital and general corporate purposes, which includes the specific items listed in Item 10 below. While the Company expects to use the net proceeds from the Offering in the manner described above, it cannot specify with certainty the particular uses of the net proceeds that it will receive from this Offering. Accordingly, the Company will have broad discretion in using these proceeds.

10. How does the issuer intend to use the proceeds of this offering?

If we raise: $50,000

Use of Proceeds: If only the minimum target amount is raised, Big D Energy Drink expects to use proceeds approximately as follows: 13% Offering and professional fees, 27% Debt reduction and near-term obligations, 27% Indiana fulfillment transition and inventory, 25.1% E-commerce operations and working capital, and 7.9% Wefunder fee and related offering expenses. Management may adjust allocations among these categories based on creditor arrangements, inventory requirements, and operating conditions at the time proceeds are received.

If we raise: $124,000

Use of Proceeds: If the maximum offering amount is raised, including any oversubscriptions, Big D Energy Drink expects to use proceeds approximately as follows: 13% Debt reduction and professional fees, 18% Indiana fulfillment transition and inventory, 23% Founder-led sales deployment and field, 18% Creator, affiliate, and e-commerce growth, 20.1% New product development and racing activation, and 7.9% Wefunder fee and related offering expenses. Additional proceeds are expected to support broader growth initiatives, and management may reallocate among categories, including in oversubscription scenarios, based on strategic priorities and business conditions.

DELIVERY & CANCELLATIONS

11. How will the issuer complete the transaction and deliver securities to the investors?

Book Entry and Investment in the Co-Issuer. Investors will make their investments by investing in interests issued by one or more co-issuers, each of which is a special purpose vehicle ("SPV"). The SPV will invest all amounts it receives from investors in securities issued by the Company. Interests issued to investors by the SPV will be in book entry form. This means that the investor will not receive a certificate representing his or her investment. Each investment will be recorded in the books and records of the SPV. In addition, investors' interests in the investments will be recorded in each investor's "Portfolio" page on the Wefunder platform. All references in this Form C to an Investor's investment in the Company (or similar phrases) should be interpreted to include investments in a SPV.

12. How can an investor cancel an investment commitment?

NOTE: Investors may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the deadline identified in these offering materials.

The intermediary will notify investors when the target offering amount has been met. If the issuer reaches the target offering amount prior to the deadline identified in the offering materials, it may close the offering early if it provides notice about the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to such new offering deadline.

If an investor does not cancel an investment commitment before the 48-hour period prior to the offering deadline, the funds will be released to the issuer upon closing of the offering and the investor will receive securities in exchange for his or her investment.

If an investor does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the offering, the investor's investment commitment will be canceled and the committed funds will be returned.

An Investor's right to cancel. An Investor may cancel his or her investment commitment at any time until 48 hours prior to the offering deadline.

If there is a material change to the terms of the offering or the information provided to the Investor about the offering and/or the Company, the Investor will be provided notice of the change and must re-confirm his or her investment commitment within five business days of receipt of the notice. If the Investor does not reconfirm, he or she will receive notifications disclosing that the commitment was cancelled, the reason for the cancellation, and the refund amount that the investor is required to receive. If a material change occurs within five business days of the maximum number of days the offering is to remain open, the offering will be extended to allow for a period of five business days for the investor to reconfirm.

If the Investor cancels his or her investment commitment during the period when cancellation is permissible, or does not reconfirm a commitment in the case of a material change to the investment, or the offering does not close, all of the Investor's funds will be returned within five business days.

Within five business days of cancellation of an offering by the Company, the Company will give each investor notification of the cancellation, disclose the reason for the cancellation, identify the refund amount the Investor will receive, and refund the Investor's funds.

The Company's right to cancel. The Investment Agreement you will execute with us provides the Company the right to cancel for any reason before the offering deadline.

If the sum of the investment commitments from all investors does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the time of the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be cancelled and committed funds will be returned.

Ownership and Capital Structure

THE OFFERING

13. Describe the terms of the securities being offered.

To view a copy of the SAFE you will purchase, please see Appendix B, Investor Contracts. The main terms of the SAFEs are provided below.

The SAFEs. We are offering securities in the form of a Simple Agreement for Future Equity ("SAFE"), which provides Investors the right to Preferred Units in the Company ("Preferred Units"), when and if the Company sponsors an equity offering that involves Preferred Units, on the standard terms offered to other Investors.

Conversion to Preferred Equity. Based on our SAFEs, when we engage in an offering of equity interests involving Preferred Units, Investors will receive a number of shares of Preferred Units calculated using the method that results in the greater number of Preferred Units:

- i. the total value of the Investor's investment, divided by
 - a. the price of Preferred Units issued to new Investors multiplied by
 - b. the discount rate (80%), or
- ii. if the valuation for the company is more than $7,500,000.00 (the "Valuation Cap"), the amount invested by the Investor divided by the quotient of
 - a. the Valuation Cap divided by
 - b. the total amount of the Company's capitalization at that time.
- iii. For investors up to the first $100,000.00 of the securities, investors will receive a valuation cap of $6,500,000.00 and a discount rate of 80%. Wefunder VIP investors will be entitled to these terms for the entire duration of the offering, even if the threshold limit noted above is met.

Additional Terms of the Valuation Cap. For purposes of option (ii) above, the Company's capitalization calculated as of immediately prior to the Equity Financing and (without double-counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Units basis):

- Includes all shares of Capital Units issued and outstanding;
- Includes all Converting Securities;
- Includes all (i) issued and outstanding Options and (ii) Promised Options; and
- Includes the Unissued Option Pool, except that any increase to the Unissued Option Pool in connection with the Equity Financing shall only be included to the extent that the number of Promised Options exceeds the Unissued Option Pool prior to such increase.

Liquidity Events. If the Company has an initial public offering or is acquired by, merged with, or otherwise taken over by another company or new owners prior to Investors in the SAFEs receiving Preferred Units, Investors will receive

- proceeds equal to the greater of (i) the Purchase Amount (the "Cash-Out Amount") or (ii) the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Units equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Liquidity Price (the "Conversion Amount")

Liquidity Priority. In a Liquidity Event or Dissolution Event, this Safe is intended to operate like standard nonparticipating Preferred Units. The Investor's right to receive its Cash-Out Amount is:

- i. Junior to payment of outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, including contractual claims for payment and convertible promissory notes (to the extent such convertible promissory notes are not actually or notionally converted into Capital Units);
- ii. On par with payments for other Safes and/or Preferred Units, and if the applicable Proceeds are insufficient to permit full payments to the Investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Units, the applicable Proceeds will be distributed pro rata to the Investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Units in proportion to the full payments that would otherwise be due; and
- iii. Senior to payments for Common Units.

Big D Energy Drink will offer a discount to the normal terms listed in this Form C for all investments that are committed by investors who are part of Wefunder, Inc's VIP program. This means eligible Wefunder investors will receive a discount for any securities they purchased in this offering. For more specific details on the company's discount, please review the description of the terms above.

The discount is only valid until the offering closes. Investors eligible for the bonus will also receive priority if they are on a waitlist to invest and the company exceeds its maximum funding goal. They will be given the first opportunity to invest if space in the offering becomes available due to the cancellation or failure of previous investments.

Securities Issued by the SPV

Instead of issuing its securities directly to investors, the Company has decided to issue its securities to the SPV, which will then issue interests in the SPV to investors. The SPV is formed concurrently with the filing of the Form C. Given this, the SPV does not have any financials to report. The SPV is managed by Wefunder Admin, LLC and is a co-issuer with the Company of the securities being offered in this offering. The Company's use of the SPV is intended to allow investors in the SPV to achieve the same economic exposure, voting power, and ability to assert State and Federal law rights, and receive the same disclosures, as if they had invested directly in the Company. While the Issuer may be required to pay an annual administrative fee for the maintenance of the SPV, investors should note the Company's use of the SPV will not result in any additional fees being charged to investors.

The SPV has been organized and will be operated for the sole purpose of directly acquiring, holding and disposing of the Company's securities, will not borrow money and will use all of the proceeds from the sale of its securities solely to purchase a single class of securities of the Company. As a result, an investor investing in the Company through the SPV will have the same relationship to the Company's securities, in terms of number, denomination, type and rights, as if the investor invested directly in the Company.

Voting Rights

If the securities offered by the Company and those offered by the SPV have voting rights, those voting rights may be exercised by the investor or his or her proxy. The applicable proxy is the Lead Investor, if the Proxy (described below) is in effect.

Proxy to the Lead Investor

The SPV securities have voting rights. With respect to those voting rights, the investor and his, her, or its transferees or assignees (collectively, the "Investor"), through a power of attorney granted by Investor in the Investor Agreement, has appointed or will appoint the Lead Investor as the Investor's true and lawful proxy and attorney (the "Proxy") with the power to act alone and with full power of substitution, on behalf of the Investor to: (i) vote all securities related to the Company purchased in an offering hosted by Wefunder Portal, and (ii) execute, in connection with such voting power, any instrument or document that the Lead Investor determines is necessary and appropriate in the exercise of his or her authority. Such Proxy will be irrevocable by the Investor unless and until a successor lead investor ("Replacement Lead Investor") takes the place of the Lead Investor. Upon notice that a Replacement Lead Investor has taken the place of the Lead Investor, the Investor will have five (5) calendar days to revoke the Proxy. If the Proxy is not revoked within the 5-day time period, it shall remain in effect.

Restriction on Transferability

The SPV securities are subject to restrictions on transfer, as set forth in the Subscription Agreement and the Limited Liability Company Agreement of Wefunder SPV, LLC, and may not be transferred without the prior approval of the Company, on behalf of the SPV.

14. Do the securities offered have voting rights?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

15. Are there any limitations on any voting or other rights identified above?

See the above description of the Proxy to the Lead Investor.

16. How may the terms of the securities being offered be modified?

Any provision of this Safe may be amended, waived or modified by written consent of the Company and either:

- i. the Investor or
- ii. the majority-in-interest of all then-outstanding Safes with the same "Post-Money Valuation Cap" and "Discount Rate" as this Safe (and Safes lacking one or both of such terms will be considered to be the same with respect to such term(s)), provided that with respect to clause (ii):
 - A. the Purchase Amount may not be amended, waived or modified in this manner,
 - B. the consent of the Investor and each holder of such Safes must be solicited (even if not obtained), and
 - C. such amendment, waiver or modification treats all such holders in the same manner. "Majority-in-interest" refers to the holders of the applicable group of Safes whose Safes have a total Purchase Amount greater than 50% of the total Purchase Amount of all of such applicable group of Safes.

Pursuant to authorization in the Investor Agreement between each Investor and Wefunder Portal, Wefunder Portal is authorized to take the following actions with respect to the investment contract between the Company and an investor:

- A. Wefunder Portal may amend the terms of an investment contract, provided that the amended terms are more favorable to the investor than the original terms; and
- B. Wefunder Portal may reduce the amount of an investor's investment if the reason for the reduction is that the Company's offering is oversubscribed.

Restrictions on Transfer of the Securities Being Offered:

The securities being offered may not be transferred by any purchaser of such securities during the one year period beginning when the securities were issued, unless such securities are transferred:

1. to the issuer;
2. to an accredited investor;
3. as part of an offering registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; or
4. to a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

NOTE: The term "accredited investor" means any person who comes within any of the categories set forth in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D, or who the seller reasonably believes comes within any of such categories, at the time of the sale of the securities to that person.

The term "member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent" includes a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the purchaser, and includes adoptive relationships. The term "spousal equivalent" means a cohabitant occupying a relationship generally equivalent to that of a spouse.

Description of Issuer's Securities

17. What other securities or classes of securities of the issuer are outstanding? Describe the material terms of any other outstanding securities or classes of securities of the issuer.

Class of Security	Authorized	Outstanding	Voting rights
Class of Security	Total Pool
Warrants	None
Options	None

Describe any other rights:

The Company has not yet authorized Preferred Units, which investors in the SAFE (if converted) will receive. Preferred Units have liquidation preference over common units.

18. How may the rights of the securities being offered be materially limited, diluted or qualified by the rights of any other class of security identified above?

The holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company could limit the Investor's rights in a material way. For example, those interest holders could vote to change the terms of the agreements governing the Company's operations or cause the Company to engage in additional offerings (including potentially a public offering).

These changes could result in further limitations on the voting rights the Investor will have as an owner of equity in the Company, for example by diluting those rights or limiting them to certain types of events or consents.

To the extent applicable, in cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new awards are granted under our equity compensation plans, an Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro rata portion of the Company represented by the Investor's securities will decrease, which could also diminish the Investor's voting and/or economic rights. In addition, as discussed above, if a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional equity, an Investor's interest will typically also be diluted.

Based on the risk that an Investor's rights could be limited, diluted or otherwise qualified, the Investor could lose all or part of his or her investment in the securities in this offering, and may never see positive returns.

Additional risks related to the rights of other security holders are discussed below, in Question 20.

19. Are there any differences not reflected above between the securities being offered and each other class of security of the issuer?

No.

20. How could the exercise of rights held by the principal shareholders identified in Question 6 above affect the purchasers of the securities being offered?

As holders of a majority-in-interest of voting rights in the Company, the unitholders may make decisions with which the Investor disagrees, or that negatively affect the value of the Investor's securities in the Company, and the Investor will have no recourse to change these decisions. The Investor's interests may conflict with those of other investors, and there is no guarantee that the Company will develop in a way that is optimal for or advantageous to the Investor.

For example, the unitholders may change the terms of the operating agreement for the company, change the terms of securities issued by the Company, change the management of the Company, and even force out minority holders of securities. The unitholders may make changes that affect the tax treatment of the Company in ways that are unfavorable to you but favorable to them. They may also vote to engage in new offerings and/or to register certain of the Company's securities in a way that negatively affects the value of the securities the Investor owns. Other holders of securities of the Company may also have access to more information than the Investor, leaving the Investor at a disadvantage with respect to any decisions regarding the securities he or she owns.

The unitholders have the right to redeem their securities at any time. Unitholders could decide to force the Company to redeem their securities at a time that is not favorable to the Investor and is damaging to the Company. Investors' exit may affect the value of the Company and/or its viability.

In cases where the rights of holders of convertible debt, SAFES, or other outstanding options or warrants are exercised, or if new awards are granted under our equity compensation plans, an Investor's interests in the Company may be diluted. This means that the pro rata portion of the Company represented by the Investor's securities will decrease, which could also diminish the Investor's voting and/or economic rights. In addition, as discussed above, if a majority-in-interest of holders of securities with voting rights cause the Company to issue additional units, an Investor's interest will typically also be diluted.

21. How are the securities being offered being valued? Include examples of methods for how such securities may be valued by the issuer in the future, including during subsequent corporate actions.

The offering price for the securities offered pursuant to this Form C has been determined arbitrarily by the Company, and does not necessarily bear any relationship to the Company's book value, assets, earnings or other generally accepted valuation criteria. In determining the offering price, the Company did not employ investment banking firms or other outside organizations to make an independent appraisal or evaluation. Accordingly, the offering price should not be considered to be indicative of the actual value of the securities offered hereby.

The initial amount invested in a SAFE is determined by the investor, and we do not guarantee that the SAFE will be converted into any particular number of units. As discussed in Question 13, when we engage in an offering of equity interests involving Preferred Units, Investors may receive a number of Preferred Units calculated as either (i) the total value of the Investor's investment, divided by the price of the Preferred Unit being issued to new Investors, or (ii) if the valuation for the company is more than the Valuation Cap, the amount invested divided by the quotient of (a) the Valuation Cap divided by (b) the total amount of the Company's capitalization at that time.

Because there will likely be no public market for our securities prior to an initial public offering or similar liquidity event, the price of the Preferred Units that Investors will receive, and/or the total value of the Company's capitalization, will be determined by our management. Among the factors we may consider in determining the price of Preferred Units are prevailing market conditions, our financial information, market valuations of other companies that we believe to be comparable to us, estimates of our business potential, the present state of our development and other factors deemed relevant.

In the future, we will perform valuations of our units that take into account, as applicable, factors such as the following:

- unrelated third party valuations;
- the price at which we sell other securities in light of the relative rights, preferences and privileges of those securities;
- our results of operations, financial position and capital resources;
- current business conditions and projections;
- the marketability or lack thereof of the securities;
- the hiring of key personnel and the experience of our management;
- the introduction of new products;
- the risk inherent in the development and expansion of our products;
- our stage of development and material risks related to our business;
- the likelihood of achieving a liquidity event, such as an initial public offering or a sale of our company given the prevailing market conditions and the nature and history of our business;
- industry trends and competitive environment;
- trends in consumer spending, including consumer confidence;
- overall economic indicators, including gross domestic product, employment, inflation and interest rates; and
- the general economic outlook.

We will analyze factors such as those described above using a combination of financial and market-based methodologies to determine our business enterprise value. For example, we may use methodologies that assume that businesses operating in the same industry will share similar characteristics and that the Company's value will correlate to those characteristics, and/or methodologies that compare transactions in similar securities issued by us that were conducted in the market.

22. What are the risks to purchasers of the securities relating to minority ownership in the issuer?

An Investor in the Company will likely hold a minority position in the Company, and thus be limited as to its ability to control or influence the governance and operations of the Company.

The marketability and value of the Investor's interest in the Company will depend upon many factors outside the control of the Investor. The Company will be managed by its officers and be governed in accordance with the strategic direction and decision-making of its Management, and the Investor will have no independent right to name or remove an officer or member of the Management of the Company.

Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction, but such opportunity cannot be assured.

The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment, or the lack of an opportunity to make such a follow-on investment, may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

23. What are the risks to purchasers associated with corporate actions, including additional issuances of securities, issuer repurchases of securities, a sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer or transactions with related parties?

Additional issuances of securities. Following the Investor's investment in the Company, the Company may sell interests to additional investors, which will dilute the percentage interest of the Investor in the Company. The Investor may have the opportunity to increase its investment in the Company in such a transaction, but such opportunity cannot be assured. The amount of additional financing needed by the Company, if any, will depend upon the maturity and objectives of the Company. The declining of an opportunity or the inability of the Investor to make a follow-on investment, or the lack of an opportunity to make such a follow-on investment, may result in substantial dilution of the Investor's interest in the Company.

Issuer repurchases of securities. The Company may have authority to repurchase its securities from unitholders, which may serve to decrease any liquidity in the market for such securities, decrease the percentage interests held by other similarly situated investors to the Investor, and create pressure on the Investor to sell its securities to the Company concurrently.

A sale of the issuer or of assets of the issuer. As a minority owner of the Company, the Investor will have limited or no ability to influence a potential sale of the Company or a substantial portion of its assets. Thus, the Investor will rely upon the executive management of the Company to manage the Company so as to maximize value for unitholders. Accordingly, the success of the Investor's investment in the Company will depend in large part upon the skill and expertise of the executive management of the Company. If the Management of the Company authorizes a sale of all or a part of the Company, or a disposition of a substantial portion of the Company's assets, there can be no guarantee that the value received by the Investor, together with the fair market estimate of the value remaining in the Company, will be equal to or exceed the value of the Investor's initial investment in the Company.

Transactions with related parties. The Investor should be aware that there will be occasions when the Company may encounter potential conflicts of interest in its operations. On any issue involving conflicts of interest, the executive management of the Company will be guided by their good faith judgement as to the Company's best interests. The Company may engage in transactions with affiliates, subsidiaries or other related parties, which may be on terms which are not arm's-length, but will be in all cases consistent with the duties of the management of the Company to its unitholders. By acquiring an interest in the Company, the Investor will be deemed to have acknowledged the existence of any such actual or potential conflicts of interest and to have waived any claim with respect to any liability arising from the existence of any such conflict of interest.

24. Describe the material terms of any indebtedness of the issuer:

Loan

Amount: $83,729.00

Outstanding principal plus interest: $83,729.00 as of 10/23/2026

Credit card obligations associated with company credit cards issued by American Express, Bank of America, and US Bank.

Balance reflects outstanding credit card obligations as of December 31, 2025. No fixed maturity date; repayment terms and any applicable interest are governed by the respective card issuer agreements.

25. What other exempt offerings has the issuer conducted within the past three years?

Offering date	Exemption	Security type	Amount sold	Use of proceeds
No exempt offerings.

26. Was or is the issuer or any entities controlled by or under common control with the issuer a party to any transaction since the beginning of the issuer's last fiscal year, or any currently proposed transaction, where the amount involved exceeds five percent of the aggregate amount of capital raised by the issuer in reliance on Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act during the preceding 12- month period, including the amount the issuer seeks to raise in the current offering, in which any of the following persons had or is to have a direct or indirect material interest: ?

1. any director or officer of the issuer;
2. any person who is, as of the most recent practicable date, the beneficial owner of 20 percent or more of the issuer's outstanding voting equity securities, calculated on the basis of voting power;
3. if the issuer was incorporated or organized within the past three years, any promoter of the issuer;
4. or any immediate family member of any of the foregoing persons.

☐ Yes

☒ No

For each transaction specify the person, relationship to issuer, nature of interest in transaction, and amount of interest.

FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE ISSUER

27. Does the issuer have an operating history?

Yes

28. Describe the financial condition of the issuer, including, to the extent material, liquidity, capital resources and historical results of operations. ?

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview of the Business and Financial Condition

Big D Energy Drink LLC is a beverage company that produces and sells politically-themed energy drinks with provocative branding. The company markets its products primarily through TikTok Shop and direct-to-consumer channels, positioning itself with patriotic and conservative-leaning messaging.

We are an early-stage company and have incurred operating losses and negative cash flows from operations since inception. We expect to continue to incur operating losses in the near term.

As of October 14, 2026, we had cash and cash equivalents of approximately $0.22.

Our ability to continue operations is dependent on managing our expenses and, if necessary, obtaining additional financing.

This discussion should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and related notes included in this offering statement.

Business and Operating Uncertainty

Our business operates in an environment subject to various risks, uncertainties, and changing conditions, which makes it difficult to evaluate our business, financial condition, and prospects and may limit the comparability of our results of operations from period to period.

Financial Condition

Financial Condition

As of December 31, 2025, our total assets were $99,866 and our current and non-current liabilities, as reflected in available financial statement fields, were $84,966.

Our financial statements reflect an early-stage company with limited operating history. Investors should not place undue reliance on historical financial information given the company's limited operating history and the likelihood that future results will differ from historical results.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2025, we had cash and cash equivalents of approximately $3,600.

Based on our current operations, we have a monthly net cash burn of approximately $8,000.

Our monthly net cash burn or profit may vary significantly from month to month due to the timing of receipts and expenditures and other short-term factors. As a result, period-to-period comparisons may not be meaningful.

Based on our current plan, we do not expect to have sufficient cash to fund operations for at least the next 12 months. The main drivers of our limited runway include:

- Buying inventory or other direct costs

- Loan, lease, or rent payments

The Company expects that, without additional financing, current cash on hand would not be sufficient to fund operations for the next 12 months. Runway depends primarily on the timing and amount of capital raised through this Wefunder offering, as well as inventory purchases, fulfillment costs, marketing costs, rent/storage obligations, and debt payments. If financing is successful, proceeds would be used to support working capital, inventory, fulfillment, marketing, debt reduction, and growth initiatives.

Timing and amount of financing are not guaranteed.

To date, our operations have been funded through minimal cash resources and have not included any external financing.

Liquidity Assumptions

Our assessment of our liquidity and ability to fund operations is not a projection and is based on current assumptions regarding operating expenses, cash requirements, and capital needs. These assumptions may change, and actual results may differ materially due to changes in operating conditions, timing of receipts and payments, and other factors.

Dependence on Additional Financing

There can be no assurance that additional financing will be available on acceptable terms, or at all. If we are unable to raise additional capital when needed, we may be required to materially reduce or suspend operations.

Indebtedness and Capital Structure

As of the date of this offering statement, we had total outstanding indebtedness consisting of 1 loan and approximately $83,729 in aggregate principal obligations. The indebtedness consists of $83,729. The material terms of such indebtedness are described in Item 24 of this Form C.

(For the avoidance of doubt, SAFEs are not treated as indebtedness.)

We have not conducted any exempt offerings or raised capital in the past three years. We have primarily been funded by approximately $365k in capital contributions from the founding team.

Known Trends, Events, and Uncertainties

Management is aware of the following trends, events, or uncertainties that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations over the next 12 months:

- Higher costs (suppliers, wages, fees, etc.)

- Platform or partner changes

As an early-stage beverage company, Big D Energy Drink faces uncertainties including access to growth capital, working capital constraints, inventory financing, fulfillment and shipping costs, customer acquisition costs, platform performance on TikTok Shop, Amazon, and Shopify, retail/distributor adoption, and timing of future production runs. The Company's ability to scale depends on raising capital, increasing inventory velocity, managing fulfillment costs, and converting brand awareness into repeat depends on raising capital, increasing inventory velocity, managing fulfillment costs, and converting brand awareness into repeat purchases.

Buying inventory or other direct costs

These factors could increase operating costs, reduce liquidity, or require us to raise additional capital earlier than anticipated.

Other than the matters described above, management is not currently aware of any known trends, events, or uncertainties that are reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations.

The absence of a discussion of any particular trend, event, or uncertainty should not be interpreted to mean that such matters do not exist; rather, it reflects management's judgment based on information currently available.

Changes Since the Date of the Financial Statements

There have been no material changes in our operations or financial condition since the date of the financial statements included in this offering.

Impact of This Offering

The proceeds from this offering are expected to be used to resolve credit obligations and begin to move the fulfillment operations to Indiana. The timing and extent of our use of proceeds will depend on the amount of proceeds raised and future operating conditions. Additional detail regarding our planned use of proceeds is provided in Item 10 of this Form C.

There can be no assurance that the proceeds of this offering will be sufficient to fund our operations or achieve our business objectives.

Certain information relevant to understanding our financial condition and liquidity is presented elsewhere in this offering statement, including in the financial statements, related notes, and the sections describing indebtedness and prior financings.

Forward-Looking Statements

This discussion contains forward-looking statements that are based on management's current expectations and assumptions. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by these statements.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

29. Include financial statements covering the two most recently completed fiscal years or the period(s) since inception, if shorter:

If you would have answered "Yes" to any of these questions had the conviction, order, judgment, decree, suspension, expulsion or bar occurred or been issued after May 16, 2016, then you are NOT eligible to rely on this exemption under Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act.

OTHER MATERIAL INFORMATION

31. In addition to the information expressly required to be included in this Form, include:

- (1) any other material information presented to investors; and
- (2) such further material information, if any, as may be necessary to make the required statements, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

The Lead Investor. As described above, each Investor that has entered into the Investor Agreement will grant a power of attorney to make voting decisions on behalf of that Investor to the Lead Investor (the "Proxy"). The Proxy is irrevocable unless and until a Successor Lead Investor takes the place of the Lead Investor, in which case, the Investor has a five (5) calendar day period to revoke the Proxy. Pursuant to the Proxy, the Lead Investor or his or her successor will make voting decisions and take any other actions in connection with the voting on Investors' behalf.

The Lead Investor is an individual that is chosen to act in the role of Lead Investor on behalf of Investors that have a Proxy in effect. The Lead Investor will be chosen by the Company and approved by Wefunder Inc. and the identity of the initial Lead Investor will be disclosed to Investors before Investors make a final investment decision to purchase the securities related to the Company.

The Lead Investor can quit at any time or can be removed by Wefunder Inc. for cause or pursuant to a vote of investors as detailed in the Lead Investor Agreement. In the event the Lead Investor quits or is removed, the Company will choose a Successor Lead Investor who must be approved by Wefunder Inc. The identity of the Successor Lead Investor will be disclosed to Investors, and those that have a Proxy in effect can choose to either leave such Proxy in place or revoke such Proxy during a 5-day period beginning with notice of the replacement of the Lead Investor.

The Lead Investor will not receive any compensation for his or her services to the SPV. The Lead Investor may receive compensation if, in the future, Wefunder Advisors LLC forms a fund ("Fund") for accredited investors for the purpose of investing in a non-Regulation Crowdfunding offering of the Company. In such circumstances, the Lead Investor may act as a portfolio manager for that Fund (and as a supervised person of Wefunder Advisors) and may be compensated through that role.

Although the Lead Investor may act in multiple roles with respect to the Company's offerings and may potentially be compensated for some of its services, the Lead Investor's goal is to maximize the value of the Company and therefore maximize the value of securities issued by or related to the Company. As a result, the Lead Investor's interests should always be aligned with those of Investors. It is, however, possible that in some limited circumstances the Lead Investor's interests could diverge from the interests of Investors, as discussed in section 8 above.

Investors that wish to purchase securities related to the Company through Wefunder Portal must agree to give the Proxy described above to the Lead Investor, provided that if the Lead Investor is replaced, the Investor will have a 5-day period during which he or she may revoke the Proxy. If the Proxy is not revoked during this 5-day period, it will remain in effect.

Tax Filings. In order to complete necessary tax filings, the SPV is required to include information about each investor who holds an interest in the SPV, including each investor's taxpayer identification number ("TIN") (e.g., social security number or employer identification number). To the extent they have not already done so, each investor will be required to provide their TIN within the earlier of (i) two (2) years of making their investment or (ii) twenty (20) days prior to the date of any distribution from the SPV. If an investor does not provide their TIN within this time, the SPV reserves the right to withhold from any proceeds otherwise payable to the Investor an amount necessary for the SPV to satisfy its tax withholding obligations as well as the SPV's reasonable estimation of any penalties that may be charged by the IRS or other relevant authority as a result of the investor's failure to provide their TIN. If applicable, the Company may also be required to pay Wefunder certain fees for the preparation of tax filings. Such fees and the Company's obligation to deliver required tax documents are further specified in the related Tax Services Agreement ("TSA").

Investors should carefully review the terms of the SPV Subscription Agreement for additional information about tax filings.

Potential Dissolution of the SPV. The Company has agreed that it will pay an administrative fee and / or certain tax fees to Wefunder, in addition to delivering required tax information in the manner prescribed by the TSA, where applicable. Failure to pay such fees or provide Wefunder with required tax information could result in the dissolution of the SPV (an "SPV Dissolution Event"). Subsequent to an SPV Dissolution Event, the securities held by the SPV would be distributed directly and proportionally to the individual investors. This could create administrative complexities, as investors would need to manage the securities themselves rather than having them held and administered by the SPV. Additionally, the unplanned distribution of securities may not align with investors' intended investment strategy or asset allocation.

Upon an SPV Dissolution Event, the Investor hereby consents to and agrees to accept direct assignment of the SPV's rights and obligations under any investment agreements between the SPV and the Company that is located in the Form C or C/A offering materials. The Investor acknowledges they will be bound by all terms and conditions of such agreements as if they were an original party thereto.

ONGOING REPORTING

32. The issuer will file a report electronically with the Securities & Exchange Commission annually and post the report on its website, no later than:

120 days after the end of each fiscal year covered by the report.

33. Once posted, the annual report may be found on the issuer's website at:

<https://www.bigdenenergydrink.com/invest>

The issuer must continue to comply with the ongoing reporting requirements until:

1. the issuer is required to file reports under Exchange Act Sections 13(a) or 15(d);
2. the issuer has filed at least one annual report and has fewer than 300 holders of record;
3. the issuer has filed at least three annual reports and has total assets that do not exceed $10 million; or
4. the issuer or another party purchases or repurchases all of the securities issued pursuant to Section 4(a)(6), including any payment in full of debt securities or any complete redemption of redeemable securities; or the issuer liquidates or dissolves in accordance with state law.
