The Company and its Business

Company Overview

Company Overview

RePurpose Energy, Inc. is a pioneering green technology company focused on extending the life of electric vehicle batteries through innovative second-life energy storage solutions. Founded in 2018 and based on a decade of research at UC Davis, we aim to address one of the most pressing challenges in the clean energy transition: what to do with the millions of EV batteries that will reach the end of their automotive life over the next decade. Our technology platform enables us to test, certify, and reassemble these batteries into reliable, cost-effective stationary energy storage systems for commercial, industrial, and utility applications. We have obtained UL 1974 certification for battery repurposing. We have been recognized by TIME magazine as #177 among America's Top GreenTech Companies in 2024.

Business Model

Our business model centers on three complementary revenue streams that leverage our core technology platform.

First, we manufacture and sell second-life battery energy storage systems (ESS), starting with our flagship 1.2 MWh system successfully installed at Nissan USA headquarters in November 2024.

Second, we license our proprietary technologies—including our State of Health testing technology and our mobile battery pack testing devices—to OEMs, battery manufacturers, and battery collectors who need accurate assessment capabilities for second-life applications.

Third, we commercialize our patented non-destructive battery fire suppression technology through both direct sales and licensing to high-value markets including aviation, maritime, and aerospace where battery safety is paramount.

Intellectual Property

We believe our intellectual property portfolio provides significant competitive advantages and creates multiple moats around our business. Our cornerstone patent, Non-Destructive Battery Fire Suppression Technology (US 2025/0062427, published February 2025), aims to address one of the most critical concerns in battery energy storage: safety and fire risk.

This patented technology enables continued operation even with partial module loss and provides complete fire suppression at the source, making it ideal for critical applications in aviation, maritime, rockets, and UAM vehicles where catastrophic battery failure is unacceptable.

Corporate History

RePurpose Energy was founded in 2018 based on a decade of battery research conducted at UC Davis under the leadership of Dr. Jae Wan Park, who serves as our CEO. Originally incorporated as Renerage, Inc. in Delaware on December 4, 2017, the company changed its name to RePurpose Energy, Inc. on January 22, 2019, and qualified to do business in California on May 20, 2019.

Competitors and Industry

Industry

The energy storage industry is experiencing growth driven by the transition to renewable energy and electric transportation. According to IEA projections, the US is expected to have 34 million EV battery packs on the road by 2030. Industry reports project the second-life battery market may reach $1.6 billion in 2025. EV batteries typically retain 70-80% of capacity when no longer suitable for automotive use but remain valuable for stationary storage. The market opportunity exists because battery providers and collectors currently face challenges in accurately assessing State of Health, which is a critical factor in determining second-life battery value. However, there can be no assurance that these market projections will be realized or that our business will capture any meaningful portion of this market.

Competitors

The second-life battery energy storage market includes competitors such as Moment Energy (Canada), Connected Energy (UK), and Livguard Energy Technologies (India) that build ESS from used EV batteries; battery recyclers like Redwood Materials and Li-Cycle that are expanding into second-life applications; and OEMs including Nissan, BMW, and Renault developing their own second-life programs. We believe our competitive position is supported by our UL 1974 certification (first US company), our State of Health testing technology, our patented fire suppression technology, and relationships with multiple OEMs. However, we face significant competition and many competitors have substantially greater resources than we do. There can be no assurance that we will be able to compete successfully.

Current Stage and Roadmap

Current Stage

We are currently in the initial production stage and pre-revenue, transitioning from technology development to commercial scale-up. Our priorities include completing UL 1973 certification (targeted June 2026), securing 2-5 commercial ESS contracts to generate initial revenue, building production capacity at our Fairfield, CA facility for our 100 MWh production target, and establishing partnerships with OEMs and battery collectors. We currently have $300,000 in cash and a monthly burn rate of $50,000, providing approximately 14 months of runway. However, there can be no assurance that we will complete certifications on schedule, secure customer contracts, achieve production targets, or generate revenue as anticipated. Our business faces substantial risks and uncertainties.

Future Roadmap

Our plans for the next 24-36 months include completing UL 1973 certification (targeted September 2026) and securing 2-5 ESS contracts in 2026 to generate initial revenue; achieving our 100 MWh production milestone by 2027; developing and demonstrating our 1 kWh non-flammable battery pack for aviation and maritime applications; advancing our State of Health testing technology to generate licensing revenue; pursuing UL 9540 certification for complete systems; establishing strategic relationships with OEMs for battery supply and technology licensing; and possibly raising a Series A funding round in 2026-2027. However, these are forward-looking plans and there can be no assurance that we will achieve any of these milestones, secure customers or partners, generate anticipated revenue, or successfully raise additional funding. Our actual results may differ materially from these plans due to numerous risks and uncertainties including technical challenges, market conditions, competitive pressures, and capital constraints.

Risk Factors

The SEC requires the company to identify risks that are specific to its business and its financial condition. The company is still subject to all the same risks that all companies in its business, and all companies in the economy, are exposed to. These include risks relating to economic downturns, political and economic events and technological developments (such as hacking and the ability to prevent hacking). Additionally, early-stage companies are inherently more risky than more developed companies. You should consider general risks as well as specific risks when deciding whether to invest.

These are the risks that relate to the Company:

Uncertain Risk
An investment in the Company (also referred to as "we", "us", "our", or the "Company") involves a high degree of risk and should only be considered by those who can afford the loss of their entire investment. Furthermore, the purchase of any securities should only be undertaken by persons whose financial resources are sufficient to enable them to indefinitely retain an illiquid investment. Each investor in the Company should research thoroughly any offering before making an investment decision and consider all of the information provided regarding the Company as well as the following risk factors, in addition to the other information in the Company's Form C. The following risk factors are not intended, and shall not be deemed to be, a complete description of the commercial, financial, and other risks inherent in the investment in the Company.

Our business projections are only projections
There can be no assurance that the Company will meet its projections. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to find sufficient demand for its product or service, that people think it's a better option than a competing product or service, or that we will be able to provide a product or service at a level that allows the Company to generate revenue, make a profit, or grow the business.

Any valuation is difficult to assess
The valuation for the offering was established by the Company. Unlike listed companies that are independently valued through market-driven stock prices, the valuation of private companies, especially startups, is difficult to assess, may not be exact, and you may risk overpaying for your investment.

The transferability of the Securities you are buying is limited
You should be prepared to hold this investment for several years or longer. For the 12 months following your investment, there will be restrictions on the securities you purchase. More importantly, there are a limited number of established markets for the resale of these securities. As a result, if you decide to sell these securities in the future, you may not be able to find, or may have difficulty finding, a buyer, and you may have to locate an interested buyer when you do seek to resell your investment. The Company may be acquired by an existing player in the industry. However, that may never happen or it may happen at a price that results in you losing money on this investment.

Your investment could be illiquid for a long time
You should be prepared to hold this investment for several years or longer. For the 12 months following your investment, there will be restrictions on how you can resell the securities you receive. More importantly, there are limited established markets for these securities. As a result, if you decide to sell these securities in the future, you may not be able to find a buyer. The Company may be acquired by an existing player in the same or a similar industry. However, that may never happen or it may happen at a price that results in you losing money on this investment.

The Company may undergo a future change that could affect your investment
The Company may change its business, management or advisory team, IP portfolio, location of its principal place of business or production facilities, or other change which may result in adverse effects on your investment. Additionally, the Company may alter its corporate structure through a merger, acquisition, consolidation, or other restructuring of its current corporate entity structure. Should such a future change occur, it would be based on management's review and determination that it is in the best interests of the Company.

Your information rights are limited with limited post-closing disclosures
The Company is required to disclose certain information about the Company, its business plan, and its anticipated use of proceeds, among other things, in this offering. Early-stage companies may be able to provide only limited information about their business plan and operations because it does not have fully developed operations or a long history to provide more disclosure. The Company is also only obligated to file information annually regarding its business, including financial statements. In contrast to publicly listed companies, investors will be entitled only to that post-offering information that is required to be disclosed to them pursuant to applicable law or regulation, including Regulation CF. Such disclosure generally requires only that the Company issue an annual report via a Form C-AR. Investors are generally not entitled to interim updates or financial information.

Some early-stage companies may lack professional guidance
Some companies attribute their success, in part, to the guidance of professional early-stage advisors, consultants, or investors (e.g., angel investors or venture capital firms). advisors, consultants, or investors may play an important role in a company through their resources, contacts, and experience in assisting early-stage companies in executing their business plans. An early-stage company primarily financed through Regulation Crowdfunding may not have the benefit of such professional investors, which may pose a risk to your investment.

If the Company cannot raise sufficient funds it will not succeed
The Company is offering SAFEs in the amount of up to $1,235,000.00 in this offering, and may close on any investments that are made. Even if the maximum amount is raised, the Company is likely to need additional funds in the future in order to grow, and if it cannot raise those funds for whatever reason, including reasons relating to the Company itself or the broader economy, it may not survive. If the Company manages to raise only the minimum amount of funds sought, it will have to find other sources of funding for some of the plans outlined in "Use of Proceeds."

We may not have enough capital as needed and may be required to raise more capital
We anticipate needing access to credit in order to support our working capital requirements as we grow. It is a difficult environment for obtaining credit on favorable terms. If we cannot obtain credit when we need it, we could be forced to raise additional equity capital, modify our growth plans, or take some other action. Issuing more equity may require bringing on additional investors. Securing these additional investors could require pricing our equity below its current price. If so, your investment could lose value as a result of this additional dilution. In addition, even if the equity is not priced lower, your ownership percentage would be decreased with the addition of more investors. If we are unable to find additional investors willing to provide capital, then it is possible that we will choose to cease our sales activity. In that case, the only asset remaining to generate a return on your investment could be our intellectual property. Even if we are not forced to cease our sales activity, the unavailability of credit could result in the Company performing below expectations, which could adversely impact the value of your investment.

Terms of subsequent financings may adversely impact your investment
We will likely need to engage in common equity, debt, or preferred stock financings in the future, which may reduce the value of your investment in the Company. Interest on debt securities could increase costs and negatively impact operating results. Preferred stock could be issued in series from time to time with such designation, rights, preferences, and limitations as needed to raise capital. The terms of preferred stock could be more advantageous to those investors than to the holders of common stock or other securities. In addition, if we need to raise more equity capital from the sale of Common Stock, institutional or other investors may negotiate terms that are likely to be more favorable than the terms of your investment, and possibly a lower purchase price per security.

Management's Discretion as to Use of Proceeds
Our success will be substantially dependent upon the discretion and judgment of our management team with respect to the application and allocation of the proceeds of this offering. The Use of Proceeds described below is an estimate based on our current business plan. We, however, may find it necessary or advisable to re-allocate portions of the net proceeds reserved for one category to another, and we will have broad discretion in doing so.

Projections: Forward Looking Information
Any projections or forward-looking statements regarding our anticipated financial or operational performance are hypothetical and are based on management's best estimate of the probable results of our operations and may not have been reviewed by our independent accountants. These projections are based on assumptions that management believes are reasonable. Some assumptions invariably will not materialize due to unanticipated events and circumstances beyond management's control. Therefore, actual results of operations will vary from such projections, and such variances may be material. Any projected results cannot be guaranteed.

The amount raised in this offering may include investments from company insiders or immediate family members
Officers, directors, executives, and existing owners with a controlling stake in the Company (or their immediate family members) may make investments in this offering. Any such investments will be included in the raised amount reflected on the campaign page.

Reliance on a single service or product
All of our current services are variants of one type of service and/or product. Relying heavily on a single service or product can be risky, as changes in market conditions, technological advances, shifts in consumer preferences, or other changes can adversely impact the demand for the product or service, potentially leading to revenue declines or even business failure.

We may never have an operational product or service
It is possible that there may never be an operational product or that the product may never be used to engage in transactions. It is possible that the failure to release the product or service is the result of a change in business model upon the Company's making a determination that the business model, or some other factor, will not be in the best interest of the Company. In addition, the failure to launch a product or service can result in significant losses of time and resources. Even if a product or service is launched, low adoption rates can result in lackluster revenue and diminished market share.

Some of our products are still in the prototype phase and might never be operational products
Developing new products and technologies can be a complex process that involves significant risks and uncertainties. Technical challenges, design flaws, manufacturing defects, and regulatory hurdles can all impact the success of a product or service. It is possible that there may never be an operational product or that the product may never be used to engage in transactions. It is possible that the failure to release the product is the result of a change in business model upon the Company's making a determination that the business model, or some other factor, will not be in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders.

Developing new products and technologies entails significant risks and uncertainties
Competition can be intense in many markets, and a failure to keep up with competitors or anticipate shifts in market dynamics can lead to revenue declines or market share losses. We are currently in the research and development stage and have only manufactured a prototype for our product. Delays or cost overruns in the development of our product and failure of the product to meet our performance estimates may be caused by, among other things, unanticipated technological hurdles, difficulties in manufacturing, changes to design, and regulatory hurdles. Any of these events could materially and adversely affect our operating performance and results of operations.

Supply Chain and Logistics Risks
The availability of raw materials, transportation costs, and supply chain disruptions can all impact the ability to manufacture and distribute products or services, leading to lost revenue or increased costs. Products and services that are not available when customers need them can lead to lost sales and damage to the brand's reputation.

Quality and Safety of our Product and Service
The quality of a product or service can vary depending on the manufacturer or provider. Poor quality can result in customer dissatisfaction, returns, and lost revenue. Furthermore, products or services that are not safe can cause harm to customers and result in liability for the manufacturer or provider. Safety issues can arise from design flaws, manufacturing defects, or improper use.

You are trusting that management will make the best decision for the company
You are trusting in management's discretion. You are buying securities as a minority holder, and therefore must trust the management of the Company to make good business decisions that grow your investment.

Insufficient Funds
The Company might not sell enough securities in this offering to meet its operating needs and fulfill its plans, in which case it may cease operating and result in a loss on your investment. Even if we sell all the SAFEs we are offering now, the Company may need to raise more funds in the future, and if unsuccessful in doing so, the Company will fail. Even if we do make a successful offering in the future, the terms of that offering might result in your investment in the Company being worth less, if later investors have better terms than those in this offering.

The Simple Agreement for Future Equity has no rights to vote until the date of maturity
The SAFEs have no voting rights. This means you are trusting in management's discretion. You will also hold these non-voting securities as a minority holder. Therefore, you will have no say in the day-to-day operation of the Company and must trust the management of the Company to make good business decisions that grow your investment.

This offering involves "rolling closings," which may mean that earlier investors may not have the benefit of information that later investors have
Once we meet our target amount for this offering, we may request that StartEngine instruct the escrow agent to disburse offering funds to us. At that point, investors whose subscription agreements have been accepted will become our investors. All early-stage companies are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, and it is not uncommon for material changes to be made to the offering terms, or to companies' businesses, plans, or prospects, sometimes with little or no notice. When such changes happen during the course of an offering, we must file an amendment to our Form C with the SEC, and investors whose subscriptions have not yet been accepted will have the right to withdraw their subscriptions and get their money back. Investors whose subscriptions have already been accepted, however, will already be our investors and will have no such right.

Non-accredited investors may not be eligible to participate in a future merger or acquisition of the Company and may lose a portion of their investment
Investors should be aware that under Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933 if they invest in a company through Regulation CrowdFunding and that company becomes involved in a merger or acquisition, there may be significant regulatory implications. Under Rule 145, when a company plans to acquire another and offers its shares as part of the deal, the transaction may be deemed an offer of securities to the target company's investors, because investors who can vote (or for whom a proxy is voting on their behalf) are making an investment decision regarding the securities they would receive. All investors, even those with non-voting shares, may have rights with respect to the merger depending on relevant state laws. This means the acquirer's "offer" to the target's investors would require registration or an exemption from registration (such as Reg. D or Reg. CF), the burden of which can be substantial. As a result, non-accredited investors may have their shares repurchased rather than receiving shares in the acquiring company or participating in the acquisition.

This may result in investors' shares being repurchased at a value determined by a third party, which may be at a lesser value than the original purchase price. Investors should consider the possibility of a cash buyout in such circumstances, which may not be commensurate with the long-term investment they anticipate.

Our new product could fail to achieve the sales projections we expect
Our growth projections are based on the assumption that with an increased advertising and marketing budget, our products will be able to gain traction in the marketplace at a faster rate than our current products have. It is possible that our new products will fail to gain market acceptance for any number of reasons. If the new products fail to achieve significant sales and acceptance in the marketplace, this could materially and adversely impact the value of your investment.

We face significant market competition
We will compete with larger, established companies that currently have products on the market and/or various respective product development programs. They may have much better financial means and marketing/sales and human resources than us. They may succeed in developing and marketing competing equivalent products earlier than us, or superior products than those developed by us. There can be no assurance that competitors will not render our technology or products obsolete or that the products developed by us will be preferred to any existing or newly developed technologies. It should further be assumed that competition will intensify.

We are competing against other recreational activities
Although we are a unique company that caters to a select market, we do compete against other recreational activities. Our business growth depends on the market interest in the Company over other activities.

We are an early stage company and have not yet generated any profits
RePurpose Energy, Inc. was formed on December 4, 2017. Accordingly, the Company has a limited history upon which an evaluation of its performance and future prospects can be made. Our current and proposed operations are subject to all business risks associated with new enterprises. These include likely fluctuations in operating results as the Company reacts to developments in its market, managing its growth and the entry of competitors into the market. We will only be able to pay dividends on any shares once our directors determine that we are financially able to do so. RePurpose Energy, Inc. has incurred a net loss and has had limited revenues generated since inception, if any. There is no assurance that we will be profitable in the near future or generate sufficient revenues to pay dividends to our shareholders.

We are an early stage company and have limited revenue and operating history
The Company has a short history, few customers, and effectively no revenue. If you are investing in our company, it's because you think that our product is a good idea, that the team will be able to successfully market, and sell the product or service, that we can price them right and sell them to enough people so that the Company will succeed. Further, we have never turned a profit and there is no assurance that we will ever be profitable.

We are an early stage company operating in a new and highly competitive industry
The Company operates in a relatively new industry with a lot of competition from both startups and established companies. As other companies flood the market and reduce potential market share, Investors may be less willing to invest in a company with a declining market share, which could make it more challenging to fund operations or pursue growth opportunities in the future.

Intense Market Competition
The market in which the company operates may be highly competitive, with established players, emerging startups, and potential future entrants. The presence of competitors can impact the company's ability to attract and retain customers, gain market share, and generate sustainable revenue. Competitors with greater financial resources, brand recognition, or established customer bases may have a competitive advantage, making it challenging for the company to differentiate itself and achieve long-term success.

Vulnerability to Economic Conditions
Economic conditions, both globally and within specific markets, can significantly influence the success of early-stage startups. Downturns or recessions may lead to reduced consumer spending, limited access to capital, and decreased demand for the company's products or services. Additionally, factors such as inflation, interest rates, and exchange rate fluctuations can affect the cost of raw materials, operational expenses, and profitability, potentially impacting the company's ability to operate.

Uncertain Regulatory Landscape
Due to the unestablished nature of the market the business operates within, the potential introduction of new laws or industry-specific standards can impose additional costs and operational burdens on the company. Non-compliance or legal disputes may result in fines, penalties, reputational damage, or even litigation, adversely affecting the company's financial condition and ability to operate effectively.

We have existing patents that we might not be able to protect properly
One of the Company's most valuable assets is its intellectual property. The Company owns trademarks, copyrights, Internet domain names, and trade secrets. We believe one of the most valuable components of the Company is our intellectual property portfolio. Due to the value, competitors may misappropriate or violate the rights owned by the Company. The Company intends to continue to protect its intellectual property portfolio from such violations. It is important to note that unforeseeable costs associated with such practices may invade the capital of the Company.

We have pending patent approvals that might be vulnerable
One of the Company's most valuable assets is its intellectual property. The Company's intellectual property such as patents, trademarks, copyrights, Internet domain names, and trade secrets may not be registered with the proper authorities. We believe one of the most valuable components of the Company is our intellectual property portfolio. Due to the value, competitors may misappropriate or violate the rights owned by the Company. The Company intends to continue to protect its intellectual property portfolio from such violations. It is important to note that unforeseeable costs associated with such practices may invade the capital of the Company due to its unregistered intellectual property.

Our trademarks, copyrights and other intellectual property could be unenforceable or ineffective
Intellectual property is a complex field of law in which few things are certain. It is possible that competitors will be able to design around our intellectual property, find prior art to invalidate it, or render the patents unenforceable through some other mechanism. If competitors are able to bypass our trademark and copyright protection without obtaining a sublicense, it is likely that the Company's value will be materially and adversely impacted. This could also impair the Company's ability to compete in the marketplace. Moreover, if our trademarks and copyrights are deemed unenforceable, the Company will almost certainly lose any potential revenue it might be able to raise by entering into sublicenses. This would cut off a significant potential revenue stream for the Company.

The cost of enforcing our trademarks and copyrights could prevent us from enforcing them
Trademark and copyright litigation has become extremely expensive. Even if we believe that a competitor is infringing on one or more of our trademarks or copyrights, we might choose not to file suit because we lack the cash to successfully prosecute a multi-year litigation with an uncertain outcome; or because we believe that the cost of enforcing our trademark(s) or copyright(s) outweighs the value of winning the suit in light of the risks and consequences of losing it; or for some other reason. Choosing not to enforce our trademark(s) or copyright(s) could have adverse consequences for the Company, including undermining the credibility of our intellectual property, reducing our ability to enter into sublicenses, and weakening our attempts to prevent competitors from entering the market. As a result, if we are unable to enforce our trademark(s) or copyright(s) because of the cost of enforcement, your investment in the Company could be significantly and adversely affected.

The loss of one or more of our key personnel, or our failure to attract and retain other highly qualified personnel in the future, could harm our business
Our business depends on our ability to attract, retain, and develop highly skilled and qualified employees. As we grow, we will need to continue to attract and hire additional employees in various areas, including sales, marketing, design, development, operations, finance, legal, and human resources. However, we may face competition for qualified candidates, and we cannot guarantee that we will be successful in recruiting or retaining suitable employees. Additionally, if we make hiring mistakes or fail to develop and train our employees adequately, it could have a negative impact on our business, financial condition, or operating results. We may also need to compete with other companies in our industry for highly skilled and qualified employees. If we are unable to attract and retain the right talent, it may impact our ability to execute our business plan successfully, which could adversely affect the value of your investment. Furthermore, the economic environment may affect our ability to hire qualified candidates, and we cannot predict whether we will be able to find the right employees when we need them. This would likely adversely impact the value of your investment.

Our ability to sell our product or service is dependent on outside government regulation which can be subject to change at any time
Our ability to sell our products is subject to various government regulations, including but not limited to, regulations related to the manufacturing, labeling, distribution, and sale of our products. Changes in these regulations, or the enactment of new regulations, could impact our ability to sell our products or increase our compliance costs. Furthermore, the regulatory landscape is subject to regular change, and we may face challenges in adapting to such changes, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, or operating results. In addition to government regulations, we may also be subject to other laws and regulations related to our products, including intellectual property laws, data privacy laws, and consumer protection laws. Non-compliance with these laws and regulations could result in legal and financial liabilities, reputational damage, and regulatory fines and penalties. It is also possible that changes in public perception or cultural norms regarding our products may impact demand for our products, which could adversely affect our business and financial performance, which may adversely affect your investment.

We rely on third parties to provide services essential to the success of our business
Our business relies on a variety of third-party vendors and service providers, including but not limited to manufacturers, shippers, accountants, lawyers, public relations firms, advertisers, retailers, and distributors. Our ability to maintain high-quality operations and services depends on these third-party vendors and service providers, and any failure or delay in their performance could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and operating results. We may have limited control over the actions of these third-party vendors and service providers, and they may be subject to their own operational, financial, and reputational risks. We may also be subject to contractual or legal limitations in our ability to terminate relationships with these vendors or service providers or seek legal recourse for their actions. Additionally, we may face challenges in finding suitable replacements for these vendors and service providers, which could cause delays or disruptions to our operations. The loss of key or other critical vendors and service providers could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and operating results, and as a result, your investment could be adversely impacted by our reliance on these third-party vendors and service providers.

The Company is vulnerable to hackers and cyber-attacks
As an internet-based business, we may face risks related to cybersecurity and data protection. We rely on technology systems to operate our business and store and process sensitive data, including the personal information of our investors. Any significant disruption or breach of our technology systems, or those of our third-party service providers, could result in unauthorized access to our systems and data, and compromise the security and privacy of our investors. Moreover, we may be subject to cyber-attacks or other malicious activities, such as hacking, phishing, or malware attacks, that could result in theft, loss, or destruction of our data, disruption of our operations, or damage to our reputation. We may also face legal and regulatory consequences, including fines, penalties, or litigation, in the event of a data breach or cyber-attack. Any significant disruption or downtime of our platform, whether caused by cyber-attacks, system failures, or other factors, could harm our reputation, reduce the attractiveness of our platform, and result in a loss of investors and issuer companies. Moreover, disruptions in the services of our technology provider or other third-party service providers could adversely impact our business operations and financial condition. This would likely adversely impact the value of your investment.

(a) Equity Financing.

If an Equity Financing occurs before this instrument terminates in accordance with Sections 1(b) or 1(c), the Company shall notify the Investor of the closing of the Equity Financing and issue to the Investor a number of shares of the Crowdfunding Stock equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the Purchase Amount by (y) the applicable Conversion Price.

(b) Liquidity Event.

If a Liquidity Event occurs before this instrument terminates in accordance with Sections 1(a) or 1(c), the Investor will automatically be entitled to receive a portion of Proceeds, payable immediately prior to or concurrent with the consummation of such Liquidity Event, equal to the greater of:

(i) the Purchase Amount (the "Cash-Out Amount"), or

(ii) the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Liquidity Price (the "Conversion Amount").

Additionally, if any of the Company's securityholders are given a choice regarding the form and amount of Proceeds to be received in a Liquidity Event, the Investor shall be provided the same choice, provided that the Investor may not choose to receive a form of consideration that the Investor would be ineligible to receive as a result of the Investor's failure to satisfy any requirement or limitation generally applicable to the Company's securityholders, or under any applicable laws.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with a Change of Control intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization, the Company may reduce the cash portion of Proceeds payable to the Investor by the amount determined by its board of directors in good faith for such Change of Control to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, provided that such reduction (A) does not reduce the total Proceeds payable to such Investor and (B) is applied in the same manner and on a pro rata basis to all securityholders who have equal priority to the Investor under Section 1(d).

(c) Dissolution Event. If there is a Dissolution Event before this instrument terminates in accordance with Sections 1(a) or 1(b), the Investor will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(d) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds equal to the Cash-Out Amount, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to the consummation of the Dissolution Event.

(d) Liquidation Priority. In a Liquidity Event or Dissolution Event, this Safe is intended to operate like standard non-participating Preferred Stock. The Investor's right to receive its Cash-Out Amount is:

(i) Junior to payment of outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, including contractual claims for payment and convertible promissory notes (to the extent such convertible promissory notes are not actually or notionally converted into Capital Stock);

(ii) On par with payments for other Safes and/or Preferred Stock, and if the applicable Proceeds are insufficient to permit full payments to the Investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Stock, the applicable Proceeds will be distributed pro rata to the Investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Stock in proportion to the full payments that would otherwise be due; and

(iii) Senior to payments for Common Stock.

The Investor's right to receive its Conversion Amount is (A) on par with payments for Common Stock and other Safes and/or Preferred Stock who are also receiving Conversion Amounts or Proceeds on a similar as-converted to Common Stock basis, and (B) junior to payments described in clauses (i) and (ii) above (in the latter case, to the extent such payments are Cash-Out Amounts or similar liquidation preferences).

(e) Termination. This instrument will automatically terminate (without relieving the Company of any obligations arising from a prior breach of or non-compliance with this instrument) upon the earlier to occur: (i) the issuance of Capital Stock to the Investor pursuant to the automatic conversion of this Safe under Section 1(a) or 1(b); or (ii) the payment, or setting aside for payment, of amounts due to the Investor pursuant to Section 1(b) or 1(c).

Certain Definitions

"Capital Stock" means the capital stock of the Company, including, without limitation, Common Stock and Preferred Stock.

"Common Stock" means common stock of the Company.

"Conversion Price" means either: (i) the Safe Price or (ii) the Discount Price, whichever calculation results in the lower price per share and therefore will result in a greater number of shares of the Crowdfunding Stock.

"Crowdfunding Stock" shall mean the most senior class of equity securities issued by the Company in an Equity Financing, whether Common Stock, Preferred Stock, or another class of equity securities, on the same terms as new investors in such financing.

"Equity Financing" shall mean a bona fide transaction or series of transactions pursuant to which the Company sells its Equity Securities at a fixed valuation (including, but not limited to, a pre-money or post-money valuation), to one or more third parties following the date of this instrument from which the Company receives gross proceeds of not less than $1,000,000.00 (excluding the conversion of any instruments convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Capital Stock, such as Safes or convertible promissory notes) with the principal purpose of raising capital.

"Equity Securities" shall mean Common Stock or Preferred Stock or any securities convertible into, exchangeable for or conferring the right to purchase (with or without additional consideration) Common Stock or Preferred Stock, except in each case, (i) any security granted, issued and/or sold by the Company to any director, officer, employee, advisor or consultant of the Company in such capacity for the primary purpose of soliciting or retaining his, her or its services, (ii) any convertible promissory notes issued by the Company, and (iii) any Safes issued.

"Discount Price" means the lowest price per share of Crowdfunding Stock sold in an Equity Financing (determined without taking into account any incentives or other discount) multiplied by the Discount Rate. For clarity, if the Company increases the share price during the Equity Financing, the original price will be the lowest price per share for this purpose; however, if a Company offers a discount to certain investors during the Equity Financing, such discount will not be included when determining the lowest price per share.

"Liquidity Event" means a Change of Control, a Direct Listing or an Initial Public Offering.

"Liquidity Price" means either (i) the price per share equal to the Post-Money Valuation Cap divided by the Liquidity Capitalization or (ii) the price per share equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock at the time of the Liquidity Event, as determined by reference to the purchase price payable in connection with such Liquidity Event, multiplied by the Discount Rate, whichever calculation results in a lower price per share.

"Safe Price" means the price per share equal to the Post-Money Valuation Cap divided by the Fully Diluted Capitalization.

Preferred Stock

The amount of security authorized is 8,500,000 with a total of 0 outstanding.

Voting Rights

To be determined by the Board of Directors.

Material Rights

The Preferred Stock shall be undesignated and may be desginated by the Board of Directors from time to time in one or more series.

What it means to be a minority holder

As a SAFE noteholder of the Company, you will have no voting rights. Even upon conversion of the notes, you will have limited rights in regard to the corporate actions of the Company, including additional issuances of securities, company repurchases of securities, a sale of the Company or its significant assets, or company transactions with related parties. Further, investors in this offering may have rights less than those of other investors and will have limited influence on the corporate actions of the Company.

Dilution

Investors should understand the potential for dilution. The investor's stake in a company could be diluted due to the Company issuing additional shares. In other words, when the Company issues more shares, the percentage of the Company that you own will go down, even though the value of the Company may go up. You will own a smaller piece of a larger company. This increase in the number of shares outstanding could result from a stock offering (such as an initial public offering, another crowdfunding round, a venture capital round, or angel investment), employees exercising stock options, or by conversion of certain instruments (e.g. convertible bonds, preferred shares or warrants) into stock. If the Company decides to issue more shares, an investor could experience value dilution, with each share being worth less than before, and control dilution, with the total percentage an investor owns being less than before. There may also be earnings dilution, with a reduction in the amount earned per share (though this typically occurs only if the Company offers dividends, and most early-stage companies are unlikely to offer dividends, preferring to invest any earnings into the Company).

Transferability of securities

For a year, the securities can only be resold:

- In an IPO;
- To the company;
- To an accredited investor; and
- To a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the purchaser, to a trust created for the benefit of a member of the family of the purchaser or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the purchaser or other similar circumstance.

Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Financial Condition

You should read the following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of our operations together with our financial statements and related notes appearing at the end of this Offering Memorandum. This discussion contains forward-looking statements reflecting our current expectations that involve risks and uncertainties. Actual results and the timing of events may differ materially from those contained in these forward-looking statements due to a number of factors, including those discussed in the section entitled "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in this Offering Memorandum.

Results of Operations

How long can the business operate without revenue:

Based on our current cash on hand of $400,000 and monthly burn rate of $45,000, we can operate for approximately 15 months without revenue generation. If we raise the maximum offering amount of $1,235,000, our total capital resources of $1,985,000 would extend our operational runway to approximately 44 months. However, we do not anticipate operating without revenue for this entire period. We have already installed our flagship 1.2 MWh ESS at Nissan USA headquarters in November 2024, secured a product development contract for EV Bus battery systems in March 2025, and are actively pursuing additional ESS sales contracts and technology licensing agreements. We project initial revenue generation to begin in 2026 from ESS product sales and licensing fees, which will extend our operational runway beyond the projections based solely on raised capital.

Foreseeable major expenses based on projections:

Our major expenses over the next 24-36 months will be dominated by production and manufacturing costs (35-40%), including procurement of second-life battery modules, battery management systems, power electronics, and assembly labor for our 100 MWh production target. Personnel and salaries will constitute 30-35% of expenses as we expand our engineering, sales, and operations teams—our current leadership includes a CEO with 18 years of battery research experience who is a tenured professor at UC Davis. Technology development and certification (15-20%) will cover completion of UL 1973 certification expected in September 2025, development of our non-flammable battery pack technology for aviation and maritime applications, and advancement of our rapid State of Health estimation technology that is 200x faster than existing methods. The remaining expenses will cover facility and equipment costs (5-10%) for our Fairfield, CA manufacturing facility and production equipment, plus operating expenses and professional services (5-10%) including legal compliance, accounting, insurance, and business development activities.

Future operational challenges:

Our most significant operational challenges include supply chain management—securing consistent supplies of high-quality second-life batteries from OEMs like Nissan, Tesla, GM, and Hyundai while managing variability in battery quality—and maintaining rigorous quality control and safety standards as we scale from one flagship installation to 100 MWh of production. Completing UL 1973 certification on schedule by September 2025 is critical, as any delays could impact our revenue timeline and customer commitments. The second-life battery ESS market is still emerging, requiring significant customer education to address concerns about performance and safety, while sales cycles for commercial and utility-scale projects can stretch 12-18 months. Manufacturing scale-up will require process optimization, workforce training, and quality systems development as we transition from custom builds to scaled production, and recruiting engineers and technicians with battery systems expertise may be challenging given our Fairfield, CA location outside major tech hubs.

Future challenges related to capital resources:

Manufacturing energy storage systems is capital-intensive, requiring upfront investment in inventory before revenue realization, and if customer demand exceeds projections we may need additional capital sooner than anticipated for working capital and inventory growth. Large ESS projects often have 12-18 month sales cycles with payment structures based on deposits or progress payments rather than full upfront payment, creating potential cash flow challenges even with revenue generation. Market maturation and increased competition may create pricing pressure that impacts margins, ongoing certification and compliance costs may exceed projections, and balancing production scale-up with continued R&D investment in our proprietary technologies may strain resources. While this Regulation Crowdfunding campaign provides critical near-term capital, we anticipate needing a Series A round of $10-20M in 2026-2027 for further growth, and market conditions for cleantech fundraising at that time remain uncertain. Additionally, some customers may require vendor financing or favorable payment terms that tie up capital, potentially necessitating credit facilities or factoring arrangements.

Future milestones and events:

Near-term milestones include achieving UL 1973 certification by September 2026, making us the first US company with UL-certified second-life battery ESS products and significantly accelerating sales opportunities; securing our first 2-5 commercial ESS projects in Q4 2026-Q1 2027 to validate our business model and generate initial revenue; signing technology licensing agreements in 2026 for our rapid State of Health testing technology to create high-margin recurring revenue; and demonstrating our patented non-flammable battery pack technology in 2026 to access aviation and maritime markets. Medium-term milestones include achieving our 100 MWh production target by 2028 (representing $30M+ revenue potential), forming strategic partnerships with major OEMs or utilities, and raising a Series A round of $10-20M in 2027-2028 based on demonstrated traction. External factors that will significantly impact our business include the pace of EV adoption (directly affecting second-life battery supply), federal and state energy storage incentives that improve project economics, emerging battery recycling regulations that may drive OEMs to partner with second-life companies, and continued grid reliability challenges from extreme weather and demand growth that increase market demand for distributed energy storage solutions.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

What capital resources are currently available to the Company? (Cash on hand, existing lines of credit, shareholder loans, etc...)

As of September 30, 2026, the Company has capital resources available in the form of $255,330 cash on hand.

How do the funds of this campaign factor into your financial resources? (Are these funds critical to your company operations? Or do you have other funds or capital resources available?)

We believe the funds of this campaign are critical to our company operations. These funds are required to support scaling production capacity to 100 MWh of energy storage systems, completing UL 1973 certification, developing our non-flammable battery pack technology, and establishing strategic partnerships for technology licensing.

Are the funds from this campaign necessary to the viability of the company? (Of the total funds that your company has, how much of that will be made up of funds raised from the crowdfunding campaign?)

We believe the funds from this campaign are necessary to the viability of the Company. Of the total funds that our Company has, approximately 64% will be made up of funds raised from the crowdfunding campaign, if it raises its maximum funding goal ($1,235,000 raised + $700,000 current cash = $1,935,000 total, with $1,235,000 representing 64% of total available capital).

How long will you be able to operate the company if you raise your minimum? What expenses is this estimate based on?

If the Company raises the minimum offering amount ($20,000), we anticipate the Company will be able to operate for approximately 14 months. This is based on a current monthly burn rate of $50,000 for expenses related to personnel salaries ($25,000), facility and equipment costs ($10,000), research and development ($8,000), professional services and compliance ($5,000), and general operating expenses ($2,000).

How long will you be able to operate the company if you raise your maximum funding goal?

If the Company raises the maximum offering amount ($1,235,000), we anticipate the Company will be able to operate for approximately 39 months (over 3 years). This is based on a projected monthly burn rate of $50,000 for expenses related to personnel salaries ($25,000), facility and equipment costs ($10,000), research and development ($8,000), professional services and compliance ($5,000), and general operating expenses ($2,000).

Are there any additional future sources of capital available to your company? (Required capital contributions, lines of credit, contemplated future capital raises, etc...)

Currently, the Company has contemplated additional future sources of capital including potential strategic partnerships with OEMs and battery manufacturers for technology licensing, revenue from our first commercial ESS sales beginning in 2026, additional government grants for continued technology development (we have a strong track record with $10M in non-dilutive funding secured to date), and a potential Series A equity round in 2026 following achievement of revenue milestones.

To the Board of Directors of RePurpose Energy, Inc.
Fairfield, California

We have reviewed the accompanying financial statements of RePurpose Energy, Inc. (the "Company"), which comprises the balance sheets as of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' deficit, and cash flows for the years ending December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, and the related notes to the financial statements. A review includes primarily applying analytical procedures to management's financial data and making inquiries of company management. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to conduct the review in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. 1. NATURE OF OPERATION

RePurpose Energy, Inc. was incorporated on December 4, 2017, in the State of Delaware under the name Renerage, Inc. On January 18, 2019, the Company changed its name to RePurpose Energy, Inc. The accompanying financial statements of RePurpose Energy, Inc. (which may be referred to as the "Company," "we," "us," or "our") are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The Company's headquarters are located in Fairfield, California.

RePurpose Energy, Inc. is a clean-energy technology company focused on the development of advanced energy storage systems utilizing second-life electric vehicle batteries. The Company leverages proprietary battery diagnostics and system-integration technologies to deliver safe, reliable, and cost-effective energy storage solutions for commercial, industrial, and grid-scale applications. Its activities are primarily concentrated on research, engineering, system deployment, and the execution of demonstration and pilot projects.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The summary of significant accounting policies is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP" and "US GAAP").

Basis of Presentation
The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with US GAAP and the Company has adopted the calendar year as its basis of reporting.

Use of Estimates
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash
Cash includes all cash in banks. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company's cash & cash equivalents exceeded FDIC insured limits by $210,375 and $1,038,559, respectively.

Concentration of Credit Risk
The Company is subject to concentrations of credit risks primarily from cash and accounts receivable. At various times during the years, the Company may have bank deposits in excess of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance limits. Management believes any credit risk is low due to the overall financial strength of the financial institutions. Accounts receivable consist of uncollateralized receivables from customers/clients primarily located throughout the United States of America.

Accounts Receivable
Accounts receivable are stated at the amount expected to be collected, net of any allowance for expected credit losses. The Company adopted ASU 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses (ASC 326), effective January 1, 2023, using the modified retrospective approach. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Management evaluates expected credit losses based on historical loss experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Due to the immaterial nature of receivables and historical collection experience, the Company determined that no allowance for expected credit losses was necessary as of December 31, 2025, and 2024.

Property and Equipment
Property and equipment are stated at cost. Expenditures for additions, major renewals and betterments are capitalized, and expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged against income as incurred. When property and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed of, the related cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts, and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in statements of operations.

Depreciation and amortization of property and equipment are computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over either the useful life of the improvement or the remainder of the related lease term, whichever is shorter.

Estimated useful lives for property and equipment are as follows:

Category	Useful Life
Equipment	5 years

Intangible Assets
Intangible assets with finite lives, such as patents, which re amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives.

Impairment of Long Lived Assets
Long-lived assets, including property and equipment and intangible assets, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of such assets may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recorded in the period in which it is determined that the carrying amount is not recoverable. The determination of recoverability is made based on an estimate of undiscounted future cash flows resulting from the use of the asset and its eventual disposition. The measurement of the impairment for long-lived assets is based on the asset's estimated fair value. No such impairment was recorded for the year ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Revenue Recognition
Revenue from Contracts with Customers
The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Revenue is recognized when control of promised goods or services is transferred to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled.
In applying ASC 606, the Company follows a five-step model:
(1) identification of the contract with a customer,
(2) identification of performance obligations,
(3) determination of the transaction price,
(4) allocation of the transaction price to performance obligations, and
(5) recognition of revenue when or as performance obligations are satisfied.

The Company primarily generates customer revenue from the sale and deployment of energy storage systems and the provision of related engineering, integration, and technical services.
Revenue is generally recognized over time as services are performed because the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits of the Company's performance. Progress toward completion is measured using an input method, based on costs incurred to date relative to total estimated costs to complete the contract. Revenue recognized to date is calculated as the cumulative progress toward completion multiplied by the total contract price.
For contracts that do not meet the criteria for over-time recognition, revenue is recognized at a point in time when control of the goods or services is transferred to the customer, in accordance with the terms of the underlying contract.
Grant Income
The Company receives grant funding from governmental and other agencies to support research, development, and demonstration activities. Grant income is recognized when qualifying expenditures have been incurred, required documentation has been submitted, and reimbursement is reasonably assured. Grant income is presented within net revenue, and related qualifying costs covered by the grants are presented within cost of goods sold.

Grant activity for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 was as follows:

(in USD)	2025	2024
Grant income recognized (included in net revenue)	239,350	1,509,809
Grant-related costs (included in cost of goods sold)	1,059,484	1,591,218

Income Taxes

The Company is taxed as a C corporation for income tax purposes. The Company accounts for income taxes under the liability method, and deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying values of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. A valuation allowance is provided on deferred tax assets if it is determined that it is more likely than not that the deferred tax asset will not be realized. The Company records interest, net of any applicable related income tax benefit, on potential income tax contingencies as a component of income tax expense. The Company records tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return based upon the amount that is more likely than not to be realized or paid, including in connection with the resolution of any related appeals or other legal processes. Accordingly, the Company recognizes liabilities for certain unrecognized tax benefits based on the amounts that are more likely than not to be settled with the relevant taxing authority. The Company recognizes interest and/or penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense.

Leases

The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception by determining whether the agreement conveys the right to control the use of the identified asset for a period of time, whether the Company has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the identified asset, and the right to direct the use of the asset. Lease liabilities are recognized at the commencement date based upon the present value of the remaining future minimum lease payments over the lease term using the rate implicit in the lease or the Company's incremental borrowing rate. The incremental borrowing rate is defined as the rate of interest the Company would have to pay to borrow on a collateralized basis over a similar term in an amount equal to the lease payments in a similar economic environment. The Company's lease terms include options to renew or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that it will exercise the option.

The lease right-of-use assets are initially measured at the carrying amount of the lease liability and adjusted for any prepaid or accrued lease payments, remaining balance of lease incentives received, unamortized initial direct costs, or impairment charges relating to the right-of-use-asset. Lease expense for minimum lease payments is recognized on straight-line basis over the lease term.

Variable lease expenses include payments related to the usage of the leased asset (utilities, real estate taxes, insurance, and variable common area maintenance) and are expensed as incurred.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation to both employee and non-employees in accordance with ASC 718, Compensation - Stock Compensation. Under the fair value recognition provisions of ASC 718, stock-based compensation cost is measured at the grant date based on the fair value of the award and is recognized as expense ratably over the requisite service period, which is generally the option vesting period. The Company uses the Black-Scholes option pricing model to determine the fair value of stock options.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying value of the Company's financial instruments are included in current assets and current liabilities (such as cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of such instruments).

The inputs used to measure fair value are based on a hierarchy that prioritizes observable and unobservable inputs used in valuation techniques. These levels, in order of highest to lowest priority, are described below:

> Level 1 — Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 — Observable prices that are based on inputs not quoted on active markets but corroborated by market data.

Level 3 — Unobservable inputs reflecting the Company's assumptions, consistent with reasonably available assumptions made by other market participants. These valuations require significant judgment.

SAFE Agreements

The Company accounts for Simple Agreements for Future Equity ("SAFEs") in accordance with the guidance in ASC 480-10-25. The SAFEs represent instruments that obligate the Company to issue a variable number of equity shares upon the occurrence of certain future triggering events (such as equity financing, liquidity events, or dissolution) in exchange for a fixed monetary investment and are subject to valuation caps.

Because the SAFEs may be required to be settled in cash or a variable number of shares upon a change of control or liquidation event, and such events are not solely within the Company's control, they are considered mandatorily redeemable financial instruments or net-settled obligations under ASC 480-10-25-8. As such, the SAFEs do not meet the criteria for classification as equity and are instead classified as liabilities in the Company's balance sheet.

The Company has therefore determined that classification as a liability is appropriate based on the following considerations:

- The SAFEs contain provisions that require the Company to transfer assets (i.e., settle in cash or a variable number of shares).
- The settlement features are outside the sole control of the Company (e.g., in a change of control).
- The SAFEs do not qualify as permanent equity instruments.

The SAFEs are measured at fair value, with changes in fair value recognized in the statement of operations each period in accordance with ASC 480 and ASC 825-10. The fair value of the SAFEs is determined using valuation techniques that consider the underlying terms of the instruments and relevant market inputs.

Subsequent Events

The Company considers events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date, but prior to the issuance of the financial statements to provide additional evidence relative to certain estimates or to identify matters that require additional disclosure. Subsequent events have been evaluated through the date the financial statements were issued.

7. DEBT

SAFE Agreement

The details of the Company's Simple Agreements for Future Equity ("SAFE") and the terms are as follows:

					As of Year Ended December 31,
SAFE(s)	Borrowing Period	Valuation Cap	Principal Amount	Discount	2025	2024
SAFE - 2021	2023	$ 12,000,000	$ 2,000,000	0%	$ 2,000,000	$ 2,000,000
The excess of the SAFE's fair value					45,000	35,000
Total SAFE(s)			$ 2,000,000		$ 2,045,000	$ 2,035,000

On October 17, 2023, the Company entered into a Simple Agreement for Future Equity ("SAFE") with Primer Sazze Fund II, LP, pursuant to which the Company received $2,000,000 in funding. The SAFE has a post-money valuation cap of $12,000,000 and does not bear interest or have a stated maturity date. If there is an equity financing prior to the termination of the SAFE, the SAFE will automatically convert, upon the initial closing of such equity financing, into the greater of:

(i) the number of shares of preferred stock equal to the purchase amount divided by the lowest price per share paid by new investors in the equity financing, or

(ii) The number of shares of preferred stock equal to the purchase amount divided by the SAFE price, which is based on the post-money valuation cap.

If a liquidity event occurs prior to conversion, the SAFE holder is entitled to receive, immediately prior to or concurrent with the consummation of such event, the greater of:

(i) The original purchase amount (the "cash-out amount"), or

(ii) The amount payable on the number of shares of common stock equal to the purchase amount divided by the liquidity price, as defined in the SAFE agreement.

If a dissolution event occurs prior to conversion, the SAFE holder is entitled to receive the cash-out amount, subject to available proceeds. In a liquidity or dissolution event, the SAFE is intended to operate similarly to non-participating preferred stock. The SAFE holder's right to receive the cash-out amount is junior to outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, on par with other SAFEs and preferred stock, and senior to common stock.

Because the SAFE may require the issuer to redeem the instrument for cash upon a change of control, the agreement should be classified and recorded as a liability under ASC 480-10-25-8 because a change of control is an event that is considered not under the sole control of the issuer. Therefore, the SAFEs are classified as marked-to-market liabilities pursuant to ASC 480 in other long-term liabilities.

8. SHARE BASED COMPENSATION

During 2020, the Company authorized the Stock Option Plan (which may be referred to as the "Plan"). The Company reserved 1,900,000 shares of its Common Stock pursuant to the Plan, which provides for the grant of shares of stock options, stock appreciation rights, and stock awards (performance shares) to employees, non-employee directors, and non-employee consultants. The option exercise price generally may not be less than the underlying stock's fair market value at the date of the grant and generally have a term of four years. The amounts granted each calendar year to an employee or non-employee is limited depending on the type of award.

Stock Options
The Company granted stock options to its employees and executives at various times. The stock options were valued using the Black-Scholes pricing model with a range of inputs indicated below:

Expected life (years)	10.00
Risk-free interest rate	3.95%
Expected volatility	75%
Annual dividend yield	0%

The risk-free interest rate assumption for options granted is based upon observed interest rates on the United States government securities appropriate for the expected term of the Company's employee stock options.

The expected term of employee stock options is calculated using the simplified method which takes into consideration the contractual life and vesting terms of the options.

The Company determined the expected volatility assumption for options granted using the historical volatility of comparable public company's Common Stock. The Company will continue to monitor peer companies and other relevant factors used to measure expected volatility for future stock option grants, until such time that the Company's Common Stock has enough market history to use historical volatility.

The dividend yield assumption for options granted is based on the Company's history and expectation of dividend payouts. The Company has never declared or paid any cash dividends on its Common Stock, and the Company does not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

Management estimated the fair value of Common Stock based on recent sales to third parties. Forfeitures are recognized as incurred.

A summary of the Company's stock options activity and related information is as follows:

	Number of Awards	Weighted Average Exercise	Weighted Average Contract Term
Outstanding at December 31, 2023	695,000	$ 0.06	8.85
Granted	-	-

Exercisable Options at December 31, 2024	470,000	$ 0.06	6.85

The Company recognizes compensation expense for stock based compensation awards using the straight-line basis over the applicable service period of the award. The service period is generally the vesting period. During the year ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company recognized stock-based compensation expense of $13,590 and $14,806, respectively.

9. EQUITY AND CAPITALIZATION

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, 9,265,625 shares of common stock were issued, of which 608,016 shares were held as treasury stock at December 31, 2024. The provision for income taxes for the year ended December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024 consists of the following:

For the Year Ended December 31,	2025	2024
Net Operating Loss	$ (330,220)	$ (330,220)
Valuation Allowance	330,220	330,220
Net Provision For Income Tax	**$ -	**$ -

Significant components of the Company's deferred tax assets and liabilities at December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024 are as follows:

As of December 31,	2025	2024
Net Operating Loss	$ (458,133)	$ (127,913)
Valuation Allowance	458,133	127,913
Total Deferred Tax Asset	**$ -	**$ -

Management assesses the available positive and negative evidence to estimate if sufficient future taxable income will be generated to use the existing deferred tax assets. On the basis of this evaluation, the Company has determined that it is more likely than not that the Company will not recognize the benefits of the federal and state net deferred tax assets, and, as a result, full valuation allowance has been set against its net deferred tax assets as of December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024. The amount of the deferred tax asset to be realized could be adjusted if estimates of future taxable income during the carry-forward period are reduced or increased.

For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025, the Company had federal cumulative net operating loss ("NOL") carryforwards of $1,535,298. Utilization of some of the federal and state NOL carryforwards to reduce future income taxes will depend on the Company's ability to generate sufficient taxable income prior to the expiration of the carryforwards. The federal net operating loss carryforward is subject to an 80% limitation on taxable income, does not expire, and will carry on indefinitely.

The Company recognizes the impact of a tax position in the financial statements if that position is more likely than not to be sustained on a tax return upon examination by the relevant taxing authority, based on the technical merits of the position. As of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, the Company had no unrecognized tax benefits.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. As of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, the Company had no accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions.

11. CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

Contingencies

The Company's operations are subject to a variety of local, state, and federal regulations. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in fines, penalties, restrictions on operations, or losses of permits, which will have an adverse impact on the Company's operations and might result in an outflow of economic resources.

Litigation and Claims

From time to time, the Company may be involved in or exposed to litigation arising from operations in the normal course of business. As of December 31, 2025, and December 31, 2024, there were no pending or threatened lawsuits that could reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the results of the Company's operations.

12. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company owns an automobile that is also used by its Chief Executive Officer for personal purposes. A portion of the vehicle-related costs attributable to personal use was allocated to the Chief Executive Officer and recorded as a related-party charge. Amounts allocated for personal use totaled $4,611 and $4,958 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively and were recorded within general and administrative expenses.

13. GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company incurred a net operating loss of $1,096,636 and had operating cash outflows of $825,490 for the year ended December 31, 2025. These conditions, when considered in the aggregate, raise some doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern for the twelve months following the date the financial statements are available to be issued is dependent upon its ability to generate revenues and/or obtain financing sufficient to meet current and future obligations and achieve profitable operating results.

Management has evaluated these conditions and has developed plans intended to mitigate the conditions giving rise to the substantial doubt. These plans include increasing revenues and raising capital through debt and/or equity financing. During the next twelve months, the Company expects to fund its operations primarily through these activities.

There can be no assurance that management's plans will be successfully implemented. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of these uncertainties.

14. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent to December 31, 2025, the Company raised approximately $163,314 through a StartEngine crowdfunding campaign and an additional $30,000 through the issuance of a SAFE (Simple Agreement for Future Equity). The SAFE includes a valuation cap of $30,000,000 and a discount rate of 20%.

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date the financial statements were issued, and has concluded that, other than the event described above, no additional events or transactions have occurred that would require adjustment to or disclosure in the financial statements.

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Repurpose Energy is a pioneer in the design, development, and deployment of second-life energy storage systems for commercial and utility applications. The mission is to create a circular economy for EV batteries to ensure the transition to renewable energy is just, environmentally sound, and accessible to all. Repurpose Energy installed its first commercial deployment, a 1 megawatt-hour energy storage system at Nissan North America headquarters.

Upcoming installations are grant-funded projects by the California Energy Commission and a 4 MWh second life energy storage installation project with a $6 million grant from the Department of Energy. Additionally, Repurpose Energy is one of the first companies in the industry to obtain UL1974, the standard for repurposing EV batteries into stationary energy storage. After 10 years of use, an EV battery's remaining state of health can range from 40 to 80%.

Though no longer suitable for transportation, these batteries can be repurposed to create substantial additional value in energy storage applications before recycling, making reuse far more cost-effective than recycling. Repurpose Energy has innovated machine learning algorithms that accurately estimate battery state of health 200 times faster than cycling methods, as well as battery sorting and monitoring technology.

AI data centers are driving massive growth in power demand and reliability needs. Energy storage is becoming essential infrastructure—and second-life batteries are being recognized as a key domestic strategic resource. Repurposing Energy is well positioned to meet this wave of energy demand with grid support, peak shaving, and backup power, while cutting costs and environmental impact.

Additionally, Repurpose Energy has patented technology that stops battery fires at their earliest stages. Even when batteries are damaged, catch fire, or get pushed to their limits, the system absorbs heat instantly and keeps the remaining batteries safe vastly reducing operational risk. This breakthrough makes any battery-powered technology safer and more reliable, from consumer electronics to electric vehicles and large-scale energy storage. Repurpose Energy is now building a working prototype to demonstrate this life-saving technology and bring it to market.

These innovations enable Repurpose Energy to deliver affordable energy storage systems with optimal safety performance and lifespan. In 2030s, second-life batteries could generate over $30 billion annually and avoid the social and environmental impacts of mining millions of pounds of lithium and cobalt. Repurpose Energy is laying the foundation for a sustainable future. Join us in our mission.

Platform Compensation

- As compensation for the services provided by StartEngine Capital or StartEngine Primary, as identified in the Offering Statement filed on the SEC EDGAR filing system (the "Intermediary"), the issuer is required to pay to Intermediary a fee consisting of a 5.5-14% (five and one-half to fourteen) commission based on the dollar amount of securities sold in the Offering and paid upon disbursement of funds from escrow at the time of closing. The commission is paid in cash and in securities of the Issuer identical to those offered to the public in the Offering at the sole discretion of the Intermediary. Additionally, the issuer must reimburse certain expenses related to the Offering. The securities issued to the Intermediary, if any, will be of the same class and have the same terms, conditions, and rights as the securities being offered and sold by the issuer on StartEngine's platform.

- As compensation for the services provided by StartEngine, investors are also required to pay the Intermediary a fee consisting of a 0-3.5% (zero to three and a half percent) service fee based on the dollar amount of securities purchased in each investment.

Information Regarding Length of Time of Offering

- Investment Cancellations: Investors will have up to 48 hours prior to the end of the offering period to change their minds and cancel their investment commitments for any reason. Once within 48 hours of ending, investors will not be able to cancel for any reason, even if they make a commitment during this period.

- Material Changes: Material changes to an offering include but are not limited to: A change in minimum offering amount, change in security price, change in management, material change to financial information, etc. If an issuer makes a material change to the offering terms or other information disclosed, including a change to the offering deadline, investors will be given five business days to reconfirm their investment commitment. If investors do not reconfirm, their investment will be canceled and the funds will be returned.

Hitting The Target Goal Early & Oversubscriptions

- The Intermediary will notify investors by email when the target offering amount has hit 25%, 50%, and 100% of the funding goal. If the issuer hits its goal early, the issuer can create a new target deadline at least 5 business days out. Investors will be notified of the new target deadline via email and will then have the opportunity to cancel up to 48 hours before the new deadline.

- Oversubscriptions: We require all issuers to accept oversubscriptions. This may not be possible if: 1) it vaults an issuer into a different category for financial statement requirements (and they do not have the requisite financial statements); or 2) they reach $5M in investments. In the event of an oversubscription, shares will be allocated at the discretion of the issuer, with priority given to StartEngine Venture Club members.

- If the sum of the investment commitments does not equal or exceed the target offering amount at the offering deadline, no securities will be sold in the offering, investment commitments will be canceled and committed funds will be returned.

- If a StartEngine issuer reaches its target offering amount prior to the deadline, it may conduct an initial closing of the offering early if they provide notice of the new offering deadline at least five business days prior to the new offering deadline (absent a material change that would require an extension of the offering and reconfirmation of the investment commitment). StartEngine will notify investors when the issuer meets its target offering amount. Thereafter, the issuer may conduct additional closings until the offering deadline.

Minimum and Maximum Investment Amounts

- In order to invest, commit to an investment or communicate on our platform, users must open an account on StartEngine and provide certain personal and non-personal information including information related to income, net worth, and other investments.

- Investor Limitations: There are no investment limits for investing in crowdfunding offerings for accredited investors. Non-accredited investors are limited in how much they can invest in all crowdfunding offerings during any 12-month period. The limitation on how much they can invest depends on their net worth (excluding the value of their primary residence) and annual income. If either their annual income or net worth is less than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest either $2,500 or 5% of their annual income or net worth, whichever is greater. If both their annual income and net worth are equal to or more than $124,000, then during any 12-month period, they can invest up to 10% of annual income or net worth, whichever is greater, but their investments cannot exceed $124,000.

(g) Company Information. Subscriber has read the Offering Statement. Subscriber understands that the Company is subject to all the risks that apply to early-stage companies, whether or not those risks are explicitly set out in the Offering Materials. Subscriber has had an opportunity to discuss the Company's business, management and financial affairs with managers, officers and management of the Company and has had the opportunity to review the Company's operations and facilities. Subscriber consents to StartEngine Primary LLC holding the Securities as custodian (the "Custodian"). The Securities will be recorded on the books of the Company as being held by the Custodian in omnibus as legal holder of record of the securities. The undersigned will appear on the books of the Custodian as the beneficial owner of the Securities.

CROWDFUNDING SAFE

(Crowdfunding Simple Agreement for Future Equity)

THIS CERTIFIES THAT in exchange for the payment by %%VESTING_AS%% (the "Investor") of %%VESTING_AMOUNT%% (the "Purchase Amount") on or about %%TODAY%%, %%NAME_OF_ISSUER%%, a %%STATE_INCORPORATED%% corporation (the "Company"), hereby issues to the Investor the right to certain shares of the Company's Capital Stock, subject to the terms set forth below.

The "Discount Rate" is %%DISCOUNT_RATE%%% .

The "Post-Money Valuation Cap" is $%%VALUATION_CAP%%.

See Section 2 for certain additional defined terms.

1. Events

(a) Equity Financing.

If an Equity Financing occurs before this instrument terminates in accordance with Sections 1(b) or 1(c), the Company shall notify the Investor of the closing of the Equity Financing and issue to the Investor a number of shares of the Crowdfunding Stock equal to the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the Purchase Amount by (y) the applicable Conversion Price.

(b) Liquidity Event.

If a Liquidity Event occurs before this instrument terminates in accordance with Sections 1(a) or 1(c), the Investor will automatically be entitled to receive a portion of Proceeds, payable immediately prior to or concurrent with the consummation of such Liquidity Event, equal to the greater of:

(i) the Purchase Amount (the "Cash-Out Amount"), or

(ii) the amount payable on the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Purchase Amount divided by the Liquidity Price (the "Conversion Amount").

Additionally, if any of the Company's securityholders are given a choice regarding the form and amount of Proceeds to be received in a Liquidity Event, the Investor shall be provided the same choice, provided that the Investor may not choose to receive a form of consideration that the Investor would be ineligible to receive as a result of the Investor's failure to satisfy any requirement or limitation generally applicable to the Company's securityholders, or under any applicable laws.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with a Change of Control intended to qualify as a tax-free reorganization, the Company may reduce the cash portion of Proceeds payable to the Investor by the amount determined by its board of directors in good faith for such Change of Control to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes, provided that such reduction (A) does not reduce the total Proceeds payable to such Investor and (B) is applied in the same manner and on a pro rata basis to all securityholders who have equal priority to the Investor under Section 1(d).

(c) Dissolution Event. If there is a Dissolution Event before this instrument terminates in accordance with Sections 1(a) or 1(b), the Investor will automatically be entitled (subject to the liquidation priority set forth in Section 1(d) below) to receive a portion of Proceeds equal to the Cash-Out Amount, due and payable to the Investor immediately prior to the consummation of the Dissolution Event.

(d) Liquidation Priority. In a Liquidity Event or Dissolution Event, this Safe is intended to operate like standard non-participating Preferred Stock. The Investor's right to receive its Cash-Out Amount is:

(i) Junior to payment of outstanding indebtedness and creditor claims, including contractual claims for payment and convertible promissory notes (to the extent such convertible promissory notes are not actually or notionally converted into Capital Stock);

(ii) On par with payments for other Safes and/or Preferred Stock, and if the applicable Proceeds are insufficient to permit full payments to the Investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Stock, the applicable Proceeds will be distributed pro rata to the Investor and such other Safes and/or Preferred Stock in proportion to the full payments that would otherwise be due; and

(iii) Senior to payments for Common Stock.

The Investor's right to receive its Conversion Amount is (A) on par with payments for Common Stock and other Safes and/or Preferred Stock who are also receiving Conversion Amounts or Proceeds on a similar as-converted to Common Stock basis, and (B) junior to payments described in clauses (i) and (ii) above (in the latter case, to the extent such payments are Cash-Out Amounts or similar liquidation preferences).

(e) Termination. This instrument will automatically terminate (without relieving the Company of any obligations arising from a prior breach of or non-compliance with this instrument) upon the earlier to occur: (i) the issuance of Capital Stock to the Investor pursuant to the automatic conversion of this Safe under Section 1(a) or 1(b); or (ii) the payment, or setting aside for payment, of amounts due to the Investor pursuant to Section 1(b) or 1(c).

2. Definitions

"Capital Stock" means the capital stock of the Company, including, without limitation, Common Stock and Preferred Stock.

"Change of Control" means (i) a transaction or series of related transactions in which any "person" or "group" (within the meaning of Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), becomes the "beneficial owner" (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of the Company having the right to vote for the election of members of the Company's board of directors, (ii) any reorganization, merger or consolidation of the Company, other than a transaction or series of related transactions in which the holders of the voting securities of the Company outstanding immediately prior to such transaction or series of related transactions retain, immediately after such transaction or series of related transactions, at least a majority of the total voting power represented by the outstanding voting securities of the Company or such other surviving or resulting entity or (iii) a sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company.

"Common Stock" means common stock of the Company.

"Conversion Price" means either: (i) the Safe Price or (ii) the Discount Price, whichever calculation results in the lower price per share and therefore will result in a greater number of shares of the Crowdfunding Stock.

"Crowdfunding Stock" shall mean the most senior class of equity securities issued by the Company in an Equity Financing, whether Common Stock, Preferred Stock, or another class of equity securities, on the same terms as new investors in such financing.

"Direct Listing" means the Company's initial listing of its Common Stock (other than shares of Common Stock not eligible for resale under Rule 144 under the Securities Act) on a national securities exchange by means of an effective registration statement on Form S-1 filed by the Company with the SEC that registers shares of existing capital stock of the Company for resale, as approved by the Company's board of directors. For the avoidance of doubt, a Direct Listing will not be deemed to be an underwritten offering and will not involve any underwriting services.

"Discount Price" means the lowest price per share of Crowdfunding Stock sold in an Equity Financing (determined without taking into account any incentives or other discount) multiplied by the Discount Rate. For clarity, if the Company increases the share price during the Equity Financing, the original price will be the lowest price per share for this purpose; however, if a Company offers a discount to certain investors during the Equity Financing, such discount will not be included when determining the lowest price per share.

"Dissolution Event" means (i) a voluntary termination of operations, (ii) a general assignment for the benefit of the Company's creditors or (iii) any other liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company (excluding a Liquidity Event), whether voluntary or involuntary.

"Dividend Amount" means, with respect to any date on which the Company pays a dividend on its outstanding Common Stock, the amount of such dividend that is paid per share of Common Stock multiplied by (x) the Purchase Amount divided by (y) the Liquidity Price (treating the dividend date as a Liquidity Event solely for purposes of calculating such Liquidity Price).

"Equity Financing" shall mean a bona fide transaction or series of transactions pursuant to which the Company sells its Equity Securities at a fixed valuation (including, but not limited to, a pre-money or post-money valuation), to one or more third parties following the date of this instrument from which the Company receives gross proceeds of not less than $1,000,000.00 (excluding the conversion of any instruments convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Capital Stock, such as Safes or convertible promissory notes) with the principal purpose of raising capital.

"Equity Securities" shall mean Common Stock or Preferred Stock or any securities convertible into, exchangeable for or conferring the right to purchase (with or without additional consideration) Common Stock or Preferred Stock, except in each case, (i) any security granted, issued and/or sold by the Company to any director, officer, employee, advisor or consultant of the Company in such capacity for the primary purpose of soliciting or retaining his, her or its services, (ii) any convertible promissory notes issued by the Company, and (iii) any Safes issued.

"Fully Diluted Capitalization" is calculated as of immediately prior to the Equity Financing and (without double-counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis):

- Includes all shares of Capital Stock issued and outstanding;
- Includes all Converting Securities;
- Includes all (i) issued and outstanding Options and (ii) Promised Options; and
- Includes the Unissued Option Pool, except that any increase to the Unissued Option Pool in connection with the Equity Financing will only be included to the extent that the number of Promised Options exceeds the Unissued Option Pool prior to such increase.

"IPO" means the closing of the Company's first firm commitment underwritten initial public offering of Common Stock pursuant to an effective registration statement filed under the Securities Act.

"Liquidity Capitalization" is calculated as of immediately prior to the Liquidity Event, and (without double- counting, in each case calculated on an as-converted to Common Stock basis):

- Includes all shares of Capital Stock issued and outstanding;
- Includes all (i) issued and outstanding Options and (ii) to the extent receiving Proceeds, Promised Options;
- Includes all Converting Securities, other than any Safes and other convertible securities (including without limitation shares of Preferred Stock) where the holders of such securities are receiving Cash-Out Amounts or similar liquidation preference payments in lieu of Conversion Amounts or similar "as-converted" payments; and
- Excludes the Unissued Option Pool.

"Liquidity Event" means a Change of Control, a Direct Listing or an Initial Public Offering.

"Liquidity Price" means either (i) the price per share equal to the Post-Money Valuation Cap divided by the Liquidity Capitalization or (ii) the price per share equal to the fair market value of the Common Stock at the time of the Liquidity Event, as determined by reference to the purchase price payable in connection with such Liquidity Event, multiplied by the Discount Rate, whichever calculation results in a lower price per share.

"Lock-up Period" means the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to the Company's IPO, and ending on the date specified by the Company and the managing underwriter(s). Such period shall not exceed one hundred eighty (180) days, or such other period as may be requested by the Company or an underwriter to accommodate regulatory restrictions on (i) the publication or other distribution of research reports, and (ii) analyst recommendations and opinions.

"Preferred Stock" means the preferred stock of the Company.

"Proceeds" means cash and other assets (including without limitation stock consideration) that are proceeds from the Liquidity Event or the Dissolution Event, as applicable, and legally available for distribution.

"Regulation CF" means Regulation Crowdfunding promulgated under the Securities Act.

"Safe" means any simple agreement for future equity (or other similar agreement), including a Crowdfunding Safe, which is issued by the Company for bonafide financing purposes and which may convert into Capital Stock in accordance with its terms.

"Safe Price" means the price per share equal to the Post-Money Valuation Cap divided by the Fully Diluted Capitalization.

"Unissued Option Pool" means all shares of Capital Stock that are reserved, available for future grant and not subject to any outstanding Options or Promised Options (but in the case of a Liquidity Event, only to the extent Proceeds are payable on such Promised Options) under any equity incentive or similar Company plan.

3. Company Representations

(a) The Company is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its incorporation, and has the power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and carry on its business as now conducted.

(b) The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this instrument is within the power of the Company and, other than with respect to the actions to be taken when equity is to be issued to the Investor, has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of the Company. This instrument constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity. To the knowledge of the Company, it is not in violation of (i) its current charter or bylaws; (ii) any material statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Company; or (iii) any material indenture or contract to which the Company is a party or by which it is bound, where, in each case, such violation or default, individually, or together with all such violations or defaults, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

(c) The performance and consummation of the transactions contemplated by this instrument do not and will not: (i) violate any material judgment, statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Company; (ii) result in the acceleration of any material indenture or contract to which the Company is a party or by which it is bound; or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien upon any property, asset or revenue of the Company or the suspension, forfeiture, or nonrenewal of any material permit, license or authorization applicable to the Company, its business or operations.

(d) No consents or approvals are required in connection with the performance of this instrument, other than: (i) the Company's corporate approvals; (ii) any qualifications or filings under applicable securities laws; and (iii) necessary corporate approvals for the authorization of shares of the Crowdfunding Stock, as applicable, issuable pursuant to Section 1.

(e) The Company shall, prior to the conversion of this instrument, reserve from its authorized but unissued shares of Capital Stock for issuance and delivery upon the conversion of this instrument, such number of shares of the Crowdfunding Stock and, from time to time, will take all steps necessary to amend its charter to provide sufficient authorized numbers of shares of the Crowdfunding Stock issuable upon the conversion of this instrument. All such shares shall be duly authorized, and when issued upon any such conversion, shall be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, free and clear of all liens, security interests, charges and other encumbrances or restrictions on sale and free and clear of all preemptive rights, except encumbrances or restrictions arising under federal or state securities laws.

4. Investor Representations

(a) The Investor has full legal capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this instrument and to perform its obligations hereunder. This instrument constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Investor, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity.

(b) The Investor has been advised that this instrument and the underlying securities have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and are offered and sold hereby pursuant to Section 4(a)(6) of the Securities Act. The Investor understands that neither this instrument nor the underlying securities may be resold or otherwise transferred unless they are registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws or pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF, in which case certain state transfer restrictions may apply.

(c) The Investor is purchasing this instrument and the securities to be acquired by the Investor hereunder for its own account for investment, not as a nominee or agent, and not with a view to, or for resale in connection with, the distribution thereof, and the Investor has no present intention of selling, granting any participation in, or otherwise distributing the same.

(d) The Investor acknowledges, and is purchasing this instrument in compliance with, the investment limitations set forth in Rule 100(a)(2) of Regulation CF, promulgated under Section 4(a)(6)(B) of the Securities Act.

(e) The Investor acknowledges that the Investor has received all the information the Investor has requested from the Company and the Investor considers necessary or appropriate for deciding whether to acquire this instrument and the underlying securities, and the Investor represents that the Investor has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of this instrument and the underlying securities and to obtain any additional information necessary to verify the accuracy of the information given to the Investor. In deciding to purchase this instrument, the Investor is not relying on the advice or recommendations of the Company or of Republic.co and the Investor has made its own independent decision that an investment in this instrument and the underlying securities is suitable and appropriate for the Investor. The Investor understands that no federal or state agency has passed upon the merits or risks of an investment in this instrument and the underlying securities or made any finding or determination concerning the fairness or advisability of this investment.

(f) The Investor understands and acknowledges that as a Crowdfunding Safe investor, the Investor shall have no voting, information or inspection rights, aside from any disclosure requirements the Company is required to make under relevant securities regulations.

(g) The Investor understands that no public market now exists for any of the securities issued by the Company, and that the Company has made no assurances that a public market will ever exist for this instrument and the securities to be acquired by the Investor hereunder.

(h) If the Investor is not a United States person (as defined by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), the Investor hereby represents that it has satisfied itself as to the full observance of the laws of its jurisdiction in connection with any invitation to subscribe for this instrument, including (a) the legal requirements within its jurisdiction for the purchase of this instrument; (b) any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to such purchase; (c) any governmental or other consents that may need to be obtained; and (d) the income tax and other tax consequences, if any, that may be relevant to the purchase, holding, conversion, redemption, sale, or transfer of this instrument. The Investor's subscription and payment for and continued beneficial ownership of this instrument and the underlying securities will not violate any applicable securities or other laws of the Investor's jurisdiction. The Investor acknowledges that the Company has taken no action in foreign jurisdictions with respect to this instrument and the underlying securities.

5. Transfer Restrictions.

(a) The Investor hereby agrees that during the Lock-up Period it will not, without the prior written consent of the managing underwriter: (A) lend; offer; pledge; sell; contract to sell; sell any option or contract to purchase; purchase any option or contract to sell; grant any option, right, or warrant to purchase; or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable (directly or indirectly) for Common Stock (whether such shares or any such securities are then owned by the Investor or are thereafter acquired); or (B) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities; whether any such transaction described in clause (A) or (B) above is to be settled by delivery of Common Stock or other securities, in cash, or otherwise.

(b) The foregoing provisions of Section 5(a) will: (x) apply only to the IPO and will not apply to the sale of any shares to an underwriter pursuant to an underwriting agreement; (y) not apply to the transfer of any shares to any trust for the direct or indirect benefit of the Investor or the immediate family of the Investor, provided that the trustee of the trust agrees to be bound in writing by the restrictions set forth herein, and provided further that any such transfer will not involve a disposition for value; and (z) be applicable to the Investor only if all officers and directors of the Company are subject to the same restrictions and the Company uses commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a similar agreement from all stockholders individually owning more than 5% of the outstanding Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable (directly or indirectly) for Common Stock. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the underwriters in connection with the IPO are intended third-party beneficiaries of Section 5(a) and will have the right, power and authority to enforce the provisions hereof as though they were a party hereto. The Investor further agrees to execute such agreements as may be reasonably requested by the underwriters in connection with the IPO that are consistent with Section 5(a) or that are necessary to give further effect thereto.

(c) In order to enforce the foregoing covenant, the Company may impose stop transfer instructions with respect to the Investor's registrable securities of the Company (and the Company shares or securities of every other person subject to the foregoing restriction) until the end of the Lock-up Period. The Investor agrees that a legend reading substantially as follows will be placed on all certificates representing all of the Investor's registrable securities of the Company (and the shares or securities of the Company held by every other person subject to the restriction contained in Section 5(a)):

> THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE ARE SUBJECT TO A LOCK-UP PERIOD BEGINNING ON THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE COMPANY'S REGISTRATION STATEMENT FILED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, AS SET FORTH IN AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE COMPANY AND THE ORIGINAL HOLDER OF THESE SECURITIES, A COPY OF WHICH MAY BE OBTAINED AT THE COMPANY'S PRINCIPAL OFFICE. SUCH LOCK-UP PERIOD IS BINDING ON TRANSFEREES OF THESE SECURITIES.

(d) Without in any way limiting the representations and warranties set forth in Section 4 above, the Investor further agrees not to make any disposition of all or any portion of this instrument or the underlying securities unless and until the transferee has agreed in writing for the benefit of the Company to make the representations and warranties set out in Section 4 and the undertaking set out in Section 5(a) and:

(i) There is then in effect a registration statement under the Securities Act covering such proposed disposition and such disposition is made in accordance with such registration statement; or

(ii) The Investor shall have notified the Company of the proposed disposition and shall have furnished the Company with a detailed statement of the circumstances surrounding the proposed disposition and, if reasonably requested by the Company, the Investor shall have furnished the Company with an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Company that such disposition will not require registration of such shares under the Securities Act.

(e) The Investor agrees that it shall not make any disposition of this instrument or any underlying securities to any of the Company's competitors, as determined by the Company in good faith.

(f) The Investor understands and agrees that the Company will place the legend set forth below or a similar legend on any book entry or other forms of notation evidencing this Crowdfunding Safe and any certificates evidencing the underlying securities, together with any other legends that may be required by state or federal securities laws, the Company's charter or bylaws, any other agreement between the Investor and the Company or any agreement between the Investor and any third party:

THIS INSTRUMENT HAS BEEN ISSUED PURSUANT TO SECTION 4(a)(6) OF THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), AND NEITHER IT NOR ANY SECURITIES ISSUABLE PURSUANT HERETO HAVE BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE. THESE SECURITIES MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED, PLEDGED OR HYPOTHECATED EXCEPT AS PERMITTED BY RULE 501 OF REGULATION CROWDFUNDING UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AND APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS OR PURSUANT TO AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT OR EXEMPTION THEREFROM.

6. Miscellaneous

(a) Any provision of this Safe may be amended, waived or modified by written consent of the Company and either (i) the Investor or (ii) the majority-in-interest of all then-outstanding Safes with the same "Post-Money Valuation Cap" and "Discount Rate" as this Safe (and Safes lacking one or both of such terms will be considered to be the same with respect to such term(s)), provided that with respect to clause (ii): (A) the Purchase Amount may not be amended, waived or modified in this manner, (B) the consent of the Investor and each holder of such Safes must be solicited (even if not obtained), and (C) such amendment, waiver or modification treats all such holders in the same manner. "Majority-in-interest" refers to the holders of the applicable group of Safes whose Safes have a total Purchase Amount greater than 50% of the total Purchase Amount of all of such applicable group of Safes.

(b) Any notice required or permitted by this Safe will be deemed sufficient when delivered personally or by overnight courier or sent by email to the relevant address listed on the signature page, or 48 hours after being deposited in the U.S. mail as certified or registered mail with postage prepaid, addressed to the party to be notified at such party's address listed on the signature page, as subsequently modified by written notice.

(c) The Investor is not entitled, as a holder of this Safe, to vote or be deemed a holder of Capital Stock for any purpose other than tax purposes nor will anything in this Safe be construed to confer on the Investor, as such, any rights of a Company stockholder or rights to vote for the election of directors or on any matter submitted to Company stockholders, or to give or withhold consent to any corporate action or to receive notice of meetings, until shares have been issued on the terms described in Section 1. However, if the Company pays a dividend on outstanding shares of Common Stock (that is not payable in shares of Common Stock) while this Safe is outstanding, the Company will pay the Dividend Amount to the Investor at the same time.

(d) Neither this Safe nor the rights in this Safe are transferable or assignable, by operation of law or otherwise, by either party without the prior written consent of the other; provided, however, that this Safe and/or its rights may be assigned without the Company's consent by the Investor (i) to the Investor's estate, heirs, executors, administrators, guardians and/or successors in the event of Investor's death or disability, or (ii) to any other entity who directly or indirectly, controls, is controlled by or is under common control with the Investor, including, without limitation, any general partner, managing member, officer or director of the Investor, or any venture capital fund now or hereafter existing which is controlled by one or more general partners or managing members of, or shares the same management company with, the Investor; and provided, further, that the Company may assign this Safe in whole, without the consent of the Investor, in connection with a reincorporation to change the Company's domicile.

(e) In the event any one or more of the terms or provisions of this instrument is for any reason held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, in whole or in part or in any respect, or in the event that any one or more of the terms or provisions of this instrument operate or would prospectively operate to invalidate this instrument, then such term(s) or provision(s) only will be deemed null and void and will not affect any other term or provision of this instrument and the remaining terms and provisions of this instrument will remain operative and in full force and effect and will not be affected, prejudiced, or disturbed thereby.

(f) All rights and obligations hereunder will be governed by the laws of the State of %%STATE_INCORPORATED%%, without regard to the conflicts of law provisions of such jurisdiction.
