1. ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE

Scopify LLC (the "Company") is a limited liability company organized in January 2025 under the laws of New Jersey.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the Company's significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of the accompanying financial statements follows:

a) Basis of Accounting

The Company prepares its financial statements on an accrual basis of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Under the accrual basis of accounting, revenues are recorded when earned and expenses are recorded at the time liabilities are incurred.

b) Use of Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

c) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all cash balances, and highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased.

d) Legal Fees

Legal fees consist of legal services provided for the creation of the Company and equity financing.

e) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. COMMITMENTS, CONTINGENCIES, COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

We are currently not involved with or know of any pending or threatening litigation against the Company or any of its officers. Further, the Company is currently complying with all relevant laws and regulations.

4. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

The Company has evaluated events and transactions subsequent to the period. No events require recognition in the financial statements or disclosures of the Company per the definitions and requirements of ASC Section 855-10, Subsequent Events.

5. DISCLOSURES

a) Intellectual Property Disclosure

The Company does not currently own the underlying intellectual property associated with the film project. These rights are currently held by the director. The Company intends to enter into a license or assignment agreement prior to production.

b) Early-Stage Company Disclosure

The Company is newly formed, has no operating history, and has generated no revenue to date. c) Use of Funds

Production: $400,000 – $475,000
Marketing: ~$150,000
WeFunder Fee: ~$50,000
Administrative/Other: Remainder

The Company intends to raise funds over the course of 2 rounds, the first, prioritizing production expenses, and the second, prioritizing marketing expenses.

d) Compensation Disclosure

Certain members of the production team will receive fixed compensation included in the production budget.

e) International Production Risk

Production outside the U.S. involves regulatory and currency risks.
